He's gone unto ter tivel—

"His bark vas full ov musick—
It goes just like ting tong;
His ears were cut off short,
His tail was cut off long.
He uch'd to trive ter schickene,
And say to tem, 'Pow-wow!'
But he'sh gone unto te dickens—

"Arrah, Pat, and why did I marry ye? jist tell me that—for its myself that's had to maintain ye ever since Father O'Flanagan sent me home to yer house."

"Swate jewel," replied Pat, not relishing the charge, "and its myself that hopes to live to see the day when ye're a widow waiping over the cowld sod that covers me, then, by St. Patrick, I'll see how you get along without me, honey dear."

Hear the outporings of an honest heart in regret for the dilapidated condition of his unmentionables:—

Farewell! farewell! old trouserloons!
Long time we've stuck together—
Variety of scenes gone through
And braved all sorts of weather!

"Miss Brown I have been to learn how to tell fortunes," said a young fellow to a brisk brunette. "Just let me have your hand if you please."

"Ha! Mr. White how sudden you are! Well, go and ask my father."

I say, landlord inquired a loafer, what are you going to charge to keep me all the winter for nothing!

"My Brethren," said a preacher descanting on the difficulties of the sinner, "it is a very easy task to row a skiff over Niagara Falls, but a tremendous job to row it back again."

"Jim, I'm a courtin a woman." "The duce you are—is she pretty?" "Don't know—I hav'nt been able to see her face yet, for the paints on it. She hides it in a pulverized brickbat."

'Jemmy, what is a member of Parliament?' 'A member of Parliament is a common substantive, agreeing with self interest and is governed by four dollars a day, understood.'

A negro's idea of love, as given by Pelham one of the Ethiopian serenaders:—'Ah nigger! I felt as if I war up in the clouds between two hot buckwheat cakes, and all de little angel's were pourin' down 'lasses on me.'

The following orders were recently given by the captain of a western steamboat when about to engage in a race with another boat:—'Rossin up there, and tell the engineer to shut down the safety valve!—Give her goss! Gentlemen who havn't stepped up to the office and settled will please retire to the ladies' cabin till we pass that boat. 'Fire up!'

It is considered a foolish experiment to graft hog's tails upon pear trees to make them bear roasting pigs.

'You are the scum of society,' said a fop to a poor laborer. 'And you are the sediment,' was the answer.

An English gentleman travelling in the county of Kilkenny, came to a ford, and hired a boat to take him across. The water being rather more agitated than was agreeable to him, he asked the boatman if any person was ever lost in the passage.—'Never,' replied the boatman, 'my brother was drowned here last week, but we found him next day.'

"Were you ever in the mesmeric state, said a believer in the science to a flat-boat Hosier. "I never was stranger," said the Hosier. "I came from the state of Indianny, myself, but I've lived in the Iowa territory.'

"I've just looked in, to see if you are doing well," as the cook said to the lobster when she lifted up the saucepan lid.

The Bangor Advertiser tells a good story of a yankee, who was refused a dinner, at one of the taverns, 'down east,' until he had shown the landlord his pewter. Bonface then did his best, and at the sound of the bell, in walked the Yankee, and taking a general survey of the table, turned to his host and said, Mister you've seed my money, and I've seed your dinner—good bye.'

Why is a young lady like a bill of exchange? Because she ought to be settled as soon as she comes to maturity.

'Do you think raw clams is healthy, Bob?' 'Yes, I do.' 'Some folks say they isn't.' 'I don't care what some folks say, but I never knew a raw clam to complain of being out of health.'

An old lady in Vermont was once asked by a young clergyman to what religious denomination she belonged. "I don't care anything about your nominations—for my part I hold on to the old meeting house.'

'That's all in my eye,' as the herring said when he got strung.

'John, did you leave Mr. Jones's umberella at home?' said a fond mother yesteady to her first born. 'No ma,' said John.—'And why did you not my son? Didn't I tell you to?' said the mother. 'Yes, you did, ma,' said John; 'but did'nt you always tell motto keep something for a rainy day, and as it looks as if to-morrow would be wet, what better thing can I keep than an umberella?' The 'ma' smiled at John's juvenile simplicity.

Some one calls the time of squeezing the girls' hands 'the palmy season of life.'
