At the City Hall.

Mayor Goelling presided over last night's meeting of the Municipal Council.

The Colonial Secretary will be informed that offices are available for the Health Department at the City Hall.

The water pipe requested by Mr. Burt, for Battery Road, will be supplied as soon as possible.

The question of constructing a well on Battery Road, of draining McFarlane Street, and of placing a light in Rocky Lane will be considered.

The reduction of expenses in connection with the conduct of the coming plebiscite will be arranged by the Mayor and Returning Officer.

Owners of property opposite the East End Fire Hall will have to fence and repair it or otherwise be summoned.

J. Power, Duckworth Street, will have to find funds himself to install sewerage, the Council refusing the request under the Small Homes' Act.

E. S. Piment wrote that work being done at the C. of E. Cemetery was not satisfactory and a deputation had been appointed to interview the Council on the matter.

When the sewerage system is extended on the Southside Alfred Cranford will be supplied with water.

T. M. White was appointed as appraiser.

The Council will adhere to its decision in relation to the refusal to grant permission to Mr. Parsons to build off Leslie Street.

Plans of houses to be built by J. R. Johnston for Mr. Lawlor, on Theatre Hill, were not approved.

Mary Flynn was granted permission to repair house 35 Job Street.

Permission was refused Mr. Stamp, of the Battery, to extend dwelling.

Mrs. Dillon's request that repairs be made to the retaining wall, Southside will be looked into.

The sewer will be extended near Ebbary's residence on the Southside.

It was decided to call for tenders of outis and hay for the Sanitary Department.

The Salvation Army will be notified that they may build on Adelaide Street with a frontage of 40 feet.

Repairs to Barden's and Rennie's Mill Roads will be made immediately.

The meeting adjourned at 11.15 p.m.

McMurdo's Store News

FRIDAY, Sept. 8, 1916.

Among recent arrivals in the way of Toilet Soaps we note Woodbury's Facial Soap, Cuticura Soap, Cream of Lilies Soap. All these Soaps are high class, and each has a large crowd of votaries.

Another new shipment of Willard's Chocolates has just come to us. The list includes most of the popular packages, and comprises hard centres, nuts, jellies, fruits, bon bons, etc., put up in elegant shapes, and sold at reasonable prices.

Here and There.

GOES TO THE POOR HOUSE.—An old and worn out fisherman of Calbooner, who in his younger days was a successful fish killer but lost his life's savings some years ago through some unscrupulous investments that he was led into, was forced to seek admission to the Poor Asylum, where he was taken on arrival of the noon train to-day. The poor old man whose age is ten years beyond the allotted span, feels his position keenly. It is said that some of his immediate relatives are well to do, but refused to offer assistance.

WILL BURN WOOD.

The A.N.D. Company at Grand Falls are using wood for fuel in order to conserve their coal supply. They have at present some sixteen thousand cords of firewood cut in large quantities and are being erected to convey the wood to the various places where needed. The Dutch oven system of furnaces have been installed in which to use the wood. The Company have over fifteen hundred men employed at present.—Western Star.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT AT GRAND FALLS.

Information reached the city this morning that a terrible accident occurred at Grand Falls last evening in which a man lost his life. Deputy Minister of Justice Hutchings, is in receipt of a message from Mr. H. P. Fitzgerald, magistrate at the inland town, intimating that Peter Kne, a married man, aged 45 years, and belonging to Pool's Island, B.B., was seriously injured in a saw mill about five o'clock last evening and died from his injuries during the night. No particulars as to how the accident happened are yet to hand and Magistrate Fitzgerald is holding an investigation into the sad affair.

Rob the Dead is German Order.

The following regimental order has been found on a captive German officer:

"Regimental order (7-6-16) of the 119th regiment (26th XIII. c.)

"The greatest importance must be attached to everything left on the battlefield; for example, shoes of every kind, arms or parts of arms, trench tools, steel helmets, leather equipments, cartridge carriers, arms for hand to hand fighting, belts, tents, articles of equipment of all kinds, such as sacks, tunics, trousers and canvas bags for earth. These articles are of almost decisive importance to our great cause. Enemy corpses should be stripped of their woollen clothes and socks."

Apples cooked in the following way may be very good dessert: Pare and quarter the apples, then make in a granite stewpan a syrup of one-third sugar and two-thirds water. Let this boil until it is rather rich, then drop the apples in, a few at a time, and allow them to cook until tender. When all the apples are cooked pour the syrup on them and allow them to cook. Serve with cream.
