WAR REVIEW.

LONDON, To-day.—The Hungarian and German troops fighting on the centre in Roumania have emerged from the swampy lands on the Jominitza River and made a crossing of the stream near Receanu, about midway between Bucharest and the important railway junction town of Buzau. Before the invaders it is Buzau now, with about 35 miles of plain with no rivers to cross until Buzau itself is reached. Despite severe storms the Teutonic Allies have gained ground all along the front and the rout continues to make progress. The Roumanians' attack, which had held the invaders in the Ploz region, has now been broken, according to Berlin, and several thousand additional Roumanians made prisoners. In the fighting in the eastern Carpathians along the Moldavian front the Russian attacks have all been repulsed, says the Berlin War Office. Considerable heavy fighting has again taken place on the Cerna River. Both Berlin and the Bulgarian War Office repeat the repulse of the Entente Allies attacks in this sector, Berlin asserting that the Serbians suffered losses. However, they advanced several hundred yards against the Teutonic Allies west of Susodol and north of Monastir, it is reported by the General Staff, while the French official communication records an advance forward on the Entente line about two hundred metres near Vildar. Artillery actions and small engagements continue to prevail on the Western front in France and Belgium and also in the Austro-Italian theatre. Quiet prevails in Russia and Galicia. The Greek situation remains tense. Conferences between the Entente Allies in an endeavour to reach a very radical solution problem are in progress, according to an announcement of the British Foreign Office. An official report says a revolution has been started in the Cyclades Islands, in the Aegean Sea. The speech of the German Imperial Chancellor at the opening of the Reichstag on Tuesday is awaited in Germany with much interest. The speech, it is said, will be the most remarkable since the outbreak of the war and of world wide and historical importance.

EXPLOSION IN QUAKER OATS PLANT.

PETERBORO, Ont., To-day.—The casualties, as the result of an explosion and fire which this morning destroyed the plant of the Quaker Oats Company, now number four dead, twelve missing, five severely injured and ten less seriously hurt. The majority of the cases will recover. The fire, which broke out this morning, followed an explosion in the drying room and completely destroyed the huge mill of the Quaker Oats Co. on the bank of the Otanabee River and wiped out a large elevator, gutted the Court House, destroyed the roof of the Law Library and leveled a heavy toll in human life. Four are dead, 12 missing, believed to be in the ruins, and 15 severely burned whose recovery is doubtful. A statement from a semi-official source brings out the information that the building and stock were valued at one million six hundred thousand dollars. The factory buildings were covered by insurance.

LOOKS SERIOUS.

WASHINGTON, To-day.—The information assembled at the State Department by some of the officials is believed to present a clear-cut violation of the German pledges in the sinking of the British steamer Marina with a loss of six American lives and has been forwarded to Berlin for submission to the German Foreign Office. It was announced by the State Department to-day. The evidence has been sent as a matter of courtesy to allow the Imperial Government to offer any other facts it may have before the United States takes its next step. Officials indicated also that any move by this Government might be delayed until complete information concerning the British liner Arabia, for which Britain has been asked, could be sent to Berlin.

MEETING OF THE CZARS.

LONDON, To-day.—The Exchange Telegraph's Amsterdam correspondent quotes a Berlin despatch as saying that King Ferdinand and the Emperor of Roumania arrived at Reni, Bessarabia, on the left bank of the Danube yesterday, and that Emperor Nicholas is expected there tomorrow. Both monarchs are accompanied by several Ministers.

OF WORLD-WIDE IMPORTANCE.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.—A Berlin correspondent of Dutch newspapers emphasises the importance of the session of the Reichstag which will be held to-morrow, which they characterize as the most remarkable since the outbreak of the war and of world-wide and historical importance. All the members of the Reichstag, even those in the fighting line, have been summoned by telegraph to Berlin. The Imperial Chancellor to-day received the Ministers of all the Federal States and discussed with them the subjects which will bring up in the Reichstag. It is said Chancellor's statement has met with the approval of the Governments of Vienna, Sofia and Constantinople, where similar Parliamentary sittings will be held simultaneously.

1.00 P.M.

RUSSIA'S HOUSE IN ORDER.

LONDON, To-day.—Friday's session of the Council of the Empire marked an epoch in the evolution of Russian Legislative Institutions, says the Times Petrograd correspondent. The Council by an overwhelming majority adopted a resolution urging the formation of a Government capable of working jointly with the Legislature and the elimination of irresponsible influences from State Affairs. The Upper House, therefore in every essential signified its solidarity with the Duma and the country.

TRAITOR SOCIALIST IN FRENCH CHAMBER.

PARIS, To-day.—There was a tumult in the Chamber of Deputies to-day during a discussion of the Military Appropriations Bill, when the Socialist Deputy Pierre Brizon spoke. M. Brizon was violently interrupted from all parts of the Chamber when he declared that the Frenchmen should no longer fight to assure possession of Constantinople to Russia. "You're a traitor," was yelled at M. Brizon by numerous deputies, and his colleagues of Brizon endeavored to quiet him, but without avail. Bouge and other deputies requested the atmosphere to take down nothing said by Brizon. During the excitement Brizon grasped a water glass which stood before him and threw it at the heads of the deputies in a semi-circle before the Secretary's desk. Thereupon Rene Renoult, Vice-President of the Chamber, who was presiding, ordered a suspension of the sitting. Brizon was hooted by the entire Chamber as he moved alone to his extreme left of the Chamber. Most of the Socialist seats had been vacant during the tumult. After the chamber had reconvened Renoult announced that M. Brizon having outraged the assembly, Renoult would consult the chamber concerning an application of the rule. (Brizon?) mounted the Speaker's stand: "How much did you receive from Germany to do this?" he asked, "which you are applying yourself?" The Chamber then decided to exclude Brizon. The galleries were cleared and the session again suspended. When it was resumed twenty minutes later M. Brizon had left the Chamber.

C. P. R. SECRETARY RESIGNS.

MONTREAL, To-day.—Mr. W. R. Baker, Secretary to the Canadian Pacific Company and assistant to President, has at his own request been relieved from his duties and placed on the retired list. Alexander, formerly Assistant Secretary to the Company, succeeds Baker.

ANOTHER RIOT IN BELGIUM.

AMSTERDAM, To-day.—Sixteen persons were killed and several more injured in a riot at Tourcoing on the occasion of the demonstration of 300 civilians by the Germans, according to the Echo Belge. The paper says that the riot broke out when one of the men ordered to be deported was struck on the head with a rifle butt by a German soldier, because he did not walk fast enough.

WHAT ELSE IS HE DOING.

LONDON, To-day.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Times says that Count Reventlow, the well-known German military critic, says that King Constantine now desires to give time to enable the Germans to concentrate a stronger force. The Count is quoted as adding that it is uncertain if the Greek supplies will last long enough to permit the Germans to come to their assistance.

WHAT IS HOLLAND THINKING OF?

LONDON, To-day.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Times quotes the Maastbid as saying that immediately after it was known that David Lloyd George had become British Premier a special meeting of the Dutch cabinet was held. After this meeting the Maastbid says, telegrams all went out to all Dutch shipping agents in America instructing them to reserve all available tonnage for Government grain and cancel arrangements for other freight.

BERLIN, To-day.—Via Saville, Germany and her Allies propose peace.

Shipwrecked Crew Reaches Port

By the s.s. Graciana, which reached port this morning, Capt. Wm. Furieux and crew of the ill-fated ship Earl Kitchener arrived safe home after an experience that will remain fresh in their memories throughout the remainder of their natural lives. The story as told by Capt. Furieux of the loss of the vessel embraces the story of the crew of the Earl Kitchener, which was not experienced by shipwrecked crews. The Earl Kitchener, fish laden from Mr. Geo. M. Starr left Westport, N.B. on Nov. 6th for the European market, and shortly after boisterous weather was encountered, the seas running mountain high. At times the Earl Kitchener would be on the top of a huge wave and then engulfed to rise again with the next wave. With hands at their posts the seamen made a desperate fight for life, but were greatly handicapped in their work by the thousands of gallons of water that poured through the open seams of the vessel's hull. Almost exhausted, the little crew gave every ounce of strength in an attempt to save the vessel. On the sixth day the smoke of a steamer was seen far off to the westward, which later proved to be the Danish passenger boat Oscar. Second, in answer to distress signals the big liner bore down on the little schooner and immediately put out a lifeboat, coming close to the Earl Kitchener. It was impossible owing to the heavy sea to take her crew on board. However, Capt. Furieux, who is noted as a powerful swimmer, tied a strong rope around his waist, and with the end made fast to the foremast, plunged into the churning sea, disappearing beneath the waters. About one minute passed before he regained the surface, and striking out he was soon on board the lifeboat. This daring feat accomplished, he made it possible for the remainder of the crew to guide themselves along by the rope. To make matters worse, in the meantime, a gasoline lamp exploded and set the ship on fire, and those remaining on board were in danger of being burnt to death. Safe on board the Oscar II, where every attention was given the shipwrecked sailors, they were shortly after landed at Kirkwall, Scotland, and proceeding thence to Glasgow they joined the Graciana direct for this port.

GRACIANA HERE.—The Furness liner Graciana, 9½ days from Liverpool, reached port this morning, bringing 500 tons of cargo and a large mail.

WANTED.—5,000 Ox & Cow Hides: highest cash price paid. J. J. MacLEAN & SONS, Tannery, Water St. West, St. John's. dec2,61,ead

HERRING SHIPMENTS.—The schooners, Hazel L. Ritcey, Catherine Burke and J. R. Bradley sailed to-day from Nipper's Hr. for Gloucester with herring cargoes, and the Senator left Wood's Island for Gloucester with 775 barrels of herring and 125,755 pounds of codfish. This is a great improvement in the herring fishery at Wood's Island and yesterday 1,200 barrels were taken. Four vessels have gone there from Bonne Bay to load.

Uncovers Coming Boxing Champion.

"Snowy" Baker, the Australian fight promoter, has uncovered an 18-year-old youngster—Jim Tracey—whom he believes will some day be heavyweight champion of the world. "He is six feet four inches tall and weighs about 185 pounds now," writes Baker. "In a year or two he will put on 35 or 40 pounds more and then he'll be ready to go out after the best man in the world."

The kid has been boxing only a few months, with Les Darcy training him. Les declares that Tracey is a coming wonder and Les knows "no fighter when he sees one. The boy can hit with the power of a mule's kick. He is fast and smart, and learns the fine points of the game quickly."

Tracey, by the way, walked 2,000 miles for a chance to become a boxer. His home was far out in the Queensland bush. One day he got into a scrap with the town bully and gave him a nifty lacing. The bully had friends—and they went "gunning" for the kid.

Tracey remained in hiding for a while and then decided to go to Sydney, the Australian Mecca of pugilists. Having no funds for railroad fare, he was about to give up when, seven days later, bedraggled and weary, he saluted Baker. And the promoter, impressed with the gameness of the boy in making that long journey, alone, has taken him under his wing.

The Christmas Tree's Origin.

(From the People's Home Journal.)

A beautiful myth concerning the Christmas tree, the fir, is connected with St. Winifred. In the early part of the eighth century while this famous missionary was hewing down the sacred oak which his pagan people had been worshipping—a tornado blasted it. Just behind it, unharmed by the whirlwind, stood a young fir tree, pointing a green spire to the stars. Winifred turned to his followers and said: "This little tree, a young child of the forest, shall be your holy tree to-night. It is the wood of peace, for your houses are built of it. It is a sign of an endless life, for its leaves are always green. See how it points upward to heaven. Let this be called the tree of the Christ Child. Gather about it; not in the wild woods, but in your own homes; there it will shelter no deeds of blood, but loving gifts and acts of kindness."

A quaint old writer thus spiritualizes the practice of Christmas decorations: "So our churches and houses, decked with bays and rosemary, holly and other plants which are always green, winter and summer, signify and put us in mind of His Deity, that the Child that now is born, was God and man, who should spring up like a tender plant, should always be green and flourishing, and should live 'evermore.'" Festive carols were chanted at Christmas in praise of the evergreen, the holly, the rosemary and the bay.

Household Notes.

Starched clothes must be dried quickly if they are to retain their stiffness, and flannels if they are not to shrink.

If kept over night should be placed where the moon will not shine on them. The effect is as disastrous as the hot sunshine.

If you use a clean brick for an iron-stand the iron will hold its heat ever so much longer than when an ordinary stand is used.

Lemon juice whitens and toughens the hands without making the skin look hard. Raw potato rubbed on the hands after peeling potatoes and before washing removes the stain splendidly.

If you want to get paint stains off a dress or washing material of any kind, saturate the spots two or three times with equal parts of ammonia and turpentine, and then wash in the usual way.

Now that the winter is before us it is very wise to let children go about without hats. In fact, it is always startling danger to expose sensitive little heads until to scorching heat or bitter winds.

All house brushes should be soaked in cold water for several hours and laid aside until they are used. This prevents the hairs from coming out, and increases the life of the brush.

A tepid bath is far more refreshing than a really cold one. If you have time to spare, you will find it an excellent plan to get into a warm bath and remain there till the water has dropped in temperature to tepid.

When putting a poultice on a child, be sure it is hot enough to do good, but not too hot. Test it with the back of your hand. Covered with a double piece of thick flannel, a poultice will keep hot for two hours.

A bag of oatmeal is a good thing to keep by you if you have to wash your hands often and can't always dry them perfectly. Instead, plunge them into your oatmeal bag, and dry them roughly afterwards. They will never chafe if you do this.

The best kind of fancy buttons to have for a washing garment are those which have shanks. The buttons can then be fastened to the blouse with a tiny safety-pin on the wrong side. In this way it will be quite easy to take them off before the garment goes to the wash.

If a child swallows any foreign substance—buttons, for instance—do not give an aperient. The correct treatment is to feed the little one for two or three days entirely on soft foods, such as porridge, milk puddings and gruel. If trouble is suspected a doctor should be consulted at once.

House brooms should be washed occasionally in boiling water to which a handful of soda has been added. First remove all the fluff and pieces from the broom, and move up and down in the water. Well rinse in cold water, shake and leave to dry in the open air. Never leave brooms standing on their bristles, as this will rot them.

SPLENDID NEW PICTURES AT ROSSLEYS.
The pictures shown last night at the Rossley, British Theatre are the finest seen in a long time and were very much enjoyed. Friday night's contest will be the last for the season, as the preparation for the Xmas production will fully occupy all the time and attention of Mrs. Rossley. For this Christmas there will be a very novel and interesting program and something never attempted in the city before by any one with such young people.
