THE CROSSROADS CRITIC.
The general I roundly scold, I criticize the soldiers bold, who now conduct the fray; the Kaiser would be promptly caned, if I were only in command, and running things my way. I sit around the corner store, with languid cronies, half a score, who smoke their long clay pipes; I swipe the grocer's priceless cheese, and say the scrap across the seas is giving me the gripes. And

When I pause to take a rest, some other Jay pulls down his vest, and talks in kindred strain; he hits the grocer's demijohn, and says the way the war goes on is giving him a pain.

How to Cure Biliousness
Doctors warn against remedies containing powerful drugs and alcohol. The Extract of Roots, long known as Mother Sigel's Curative Syrup, has no dope or strong ingredients; it cures indigestion, biliousness and constipation. Can be had at any drug store. Get the genuine. 50c and $1.00 Bottles.

When he subsides another skate explains that Halig's featherweight, a failure and repeat; he takes a bite of boneless cod and says that balled up scrap abroad is giving him cold feet. If you would find the gifted weight on whom Napoleon's mantle might most fittingly descend, if you a Caesar would desecr, don't cast your keen inquiring eye; where modern armies wend, don't waste a scrutinizing glance upon the riven fields of France, all red and damp with gore; avoid the battle's din and seek—for you will find the man you seek in any village store. He sits and talks from sun to sun, and says he wishes he might run that scrap across the pond; his fount of language ne'er runs dry until some fellow asks him why he has not bought a bond.

Lieut. Norman Outerbridge

Badly Wounded but Carried On.
The following are letters received by Sir Joseph Outerbridge from members of the 1st Newfoundland Regiment, prisoners of war in Germany, in connection with enquiries made about Lieut. Norman Outerbridge who was reported wounded and missing on April 14th:

From Private J. Joy, #776, Gustron I.M. Germany, Head Camp, Aug. 26.
Dear Sir,—I regret to inform you that Lieut. Outerbridge on the 14th April was wounded twice, carried on, and then was killed, I am sorry to say as I saw him fall. Well Sir, thank you for your kindness in sending the letter and glad to hear you are sending parcels as I am in great need of them. And could you arrange for private parcels to be sent to me and I will not so much monthly out of my pay for them, and oblige
Yours truly,
J. JOY.

From Corporal F. G. Davis, Soltan Z. 3010, Germany, September 20, 1917.
Dear Sir,—In reply to your enquiry of news re Lieut. Norman Outerbridge I am sorry to say that I cannot give you any definite information. I heard from other men that Mr. Outerbridge, although slightly wounded, continued to lead his men until he fell mortally wounded. I cannot vouch for the truth of this.
I am, Sir, yours faithfully,
F. G. DAVIS (Corporal).

From J. R. Moakler, Krieger-Gefangenen-Stammlager, Friedrichsfield, Sept. 14, 1917.
To Sir Joseph Outerbridge, London.

Dear Sir,—Your letter of July 30th reached me to-day and I am very sorry to hear that your son Lieut. Norman Outerbridge is reported wounded and missing since our attack on April 14th. Your son was in charge of No. 15 Platoon, "D" Co. and I was in charge of No. 14 Platoon, hence was in a position to see some of the morning's doings. My platoon went over the top in the first wave, we being the left of our battalion. Your son's platoon was in the second wave which would be about 30 to 40 yards behind mine. After we had advanced close on 300 yards our ranks had become considerably thinned. All our officers had been knocked out, with the exception of Mr. Norman, and he was wounded in the leg; he, however, did not flinch but with the pluck and bravery becoming an English officer he rallied the remainder of good old "D" Co., and limping he gallantly led us on our way. After progressing another 100 or 150 yards we received the full force of the enemy's machine gun fire, and were forced to take cover. On again rising and moving forward your heroic son was not with us, and I concluded that his wound had become too much for him, and that he had rested; however I did not see any more of him, and on being captured some time afterwards. I made enquiries of the men belonging to "D" Co., but they could give me no other information. Your son's actions on that memorable morning will for ever remain in the minds of those who were with him as his courage and perseverance inspired us all in the face of great odds, but our little band (we numbered scarcely) were eventually surrounded by the enemy and forced to surrender. During the day the Germans brought in many of our wounded and perhaps Lieut. Norman may be amongst the number. I trust such is the case and that you have heard better news ere now. There were of the Nfd. Regiment captured unbound. They are now distributed in various working camps and whilst at first conditions were not of the best they have vastly improved and we are becoming comfortable. In this camp with me are two other Newfoundlanders No. 523 Pte. Smythe and 2214 Pte. Hudson. They work each day and are quite well. Sergeants and Corporals do not work but are in charge of parties. I am in charge of 50 men who work at an electric plant, and whilst the work is interesting it also helps to pass the time away. We are looking forward to receiving our parcels and we would be much obliged if the good people at home would send along some magazines or papers printed before the war. We are allowed to write two letters monthly and a post card each week, so in case our people at home do not get news often they can understand matters. Trusting you have received better news and hoping all our people at home are well and know of our whereabouts.
I am, yours very truly,
J. R. MOAKLER.

SUNLIGHT SOAP.

£1,000 Guarantee of Purity on every Bar.
THE "Sunlight" Guarantee of Purity was never more justified than it is to-day, because it enables us to insure the wives of our gallant soldiers and sailors against the drudgery and worry of household cleaning.

Sunlight Soap saves rubbing—saves scrubbing—saves the clothes. That portion of a wife's allowance which must be devoted to the cleaning of the home is, therefore, absolutely safeguarded when spent on Sunlight Soap.

SUNLIGHT SOAP is made for the housewife's profit for only thereby can the makers hope to profit by Sunlight Soap.

Miss A. Jeffrey has, during the last eight months, been doing war work as inspector in a munition factory in Toronto, Ontario, where she won a medal and bar in recognition of her services.
The weather at Whitbourne has been decidedly bad during the past month owing to continuous rain showers, King Sol being in eclipse nearly every day. The mild weather is appreciated by many, as it means a saving of fuel which is an expensive item these hard times.

The "C. E. W. A." held their annual Sale of Work and Tea in the Anglican School Room, on Tuesday, Nov. 20th. A large number of people of the various denominations being present. Praise for Nfd.

From Chaplain of Canadian Regiment.
The following fine tribute to one of our boys, Thomas Christopher, was written to his mother, Mrs. Michael Christopher, of St. Joseph's, Salmonier, by his battalion Chaplain. It helps to show how high the Newfoundlanders are regarded by their officers and comrades. A younger son of Mrs. Christopher, Leo, enlisted in the Newfoundland Regiment before his seventeenth birthday. He has unfortunately been reported missing since the engagement of October 9th:
France, 14/6/17.

Mrs. Kate Christopher, St. Joseph's, Salmonier, Newfoundland.
Dear Mrs. Christopher,—I got your letter of April 18th to-day, and am answering it at once. I am in the same battalion as your son, Thomas Christopher. He is big and strong and well. Never looking better. He has been through many a fight but if God spares him he will return the same lad, unspotted to you. I see him almost every day and we have been long friends. Let me tell you that he has distinguished himself in France, by his faithfulness, fearlessness, intelligence and unquestioned bravery. In one engagement he undoubtedly saved his officer's life. He has his own room for his receiver where life will be more easy for him and with less danger. I am sorry that your wish to have him come home on furlough cannot be granted, and then only for serious illness or if for some reason the Government at home votes for you. I hope the war will soon be over and your boy safe home again. I am glad to be able to write you as I have about Thomas. He is one of the finest fellows in the battalion and one of whom any mother might be proud.
Yours very sincerely,
GEORGE FARQUHAR, Chaplain.
44th Can. Infantry.

BAZAAR OPENS.—All arrangements have been finalized for St. Joseph's annual bazaar, which will be opened at the C. C. Hall on Tuesday next and continue for three days. The affair is under the patronage of His Grace the Archbishop and in aid of the new church-building fund.
