Successful Garden Party

The garden party, held in St. Patrick Convent grounds yesterday afternoon, was largely patronized, and proved highly successful. The stalls and tables containing a large variety of useful things found ready patrons, and by 6 p.m. everything had been practically bought up; which realized a good sum. The presence of the Mt. Cashel Band during the afternoon and evening was an added attraction. The day for North. rendition of music was well nigh perfect and nothing was left at this end to make the day enjoyable. At nights the band rendered a pleasing programme of music in the Old Convent School
