Guelph Evening Mercury

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 27, 1873

Town and County News.

CONVICTUM.—Our young representative of the king of hoods perpetrates the following: Why is the editor of the Guelph Herald like a successful professor of the art tonsorial? Because he is an adept at using the scissors. (Loud and continued applause.)

The Guelph "Maple Leaf" Base Ball nine have secured the services of some eminent players. By what process they will become naturalized Guelphites we are not informed. —Matt.

Make British subjects of them by Act of Parliament, the same as was done in the case of the immaculate Dodge. — Times.

WELL IN HAND.—A grey team, drawing a load of bacon, became alarmed at the whistling of a locomotive this morning, and were within one of getting off and scattering the contents of the sleigh in every direction. The driver happened to have them well in hand at the time, and thus prevented the catastrophe.

Y.M.C.A. — At the meeting to be held this evening, Mr. Townsend will read an Essay relating to Association work. Mr.
Bates will give a reading. All are invited.
We would remind the ladies of the town of the meeting in the Young Men's rooms to-morrow afternoon, at half-past two o'clock.

THE ROARING GAME.—The ice on the covered rink here has not been in better condition for curling this season before.
A number of the admirers of the game exercised themselves yesterday and last night to their hearts content. The last game played in 1872 took place on the 1st day of April. Present appearances indicate a continuance of the sport much later in the same month this year.

FUNERAL OF MR. GOODE.—The funeral of the late Frederick Guggisberg merchant, Galt, takes place to-morrow in that town, on the arrival of the train from Toronto, at 10:50 a.m. The brethren of Galt Masonic Lodge, to which the deceased belonged, have invited as many of the brethren of Guelph Lodge as can attend, in order to pay the last mark of respect to the deceased.

SAD ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—Tuesday night, about 10 o'clock, two boys, named respectively Cooper and Aul, went into a sawmill at Kempsville, for the purpose of catching pigeons, when the former fell through a hole in the floor a distance of fifteen feet, when it is believed he was instantly killed. It seems his comrade had missed him, but thinking something was wrong, went home and said nothing about it until this morning, when he told some other boys, who gave the alarm.— A jury was at once empanelled, and an inquest held, when a verdict was returned of accidental death.

HIGHLY NECESSARY.—We learn from the London Advertiser that the interior of the Great Western station in that city is undergoing a general transformation.
Two commodious rooms are being fitted up: one at the eastern end of the building for the ladies, and the other in the centre for gentlemen. Both will be large, airy, light and comfortable and the ticket offices will have a wicket opening into each, for the greater convenience of all parties. The entire work will be completed in the course of a week or two and will be very creditable to those in charge of it. A similar general transformation of the Great Western Station here is necessary, so as to afford something like christian accommodation to passengers having to wait for trains. A new coal stove has been introduced, but it is evidently not thoroughly understood, as the station was closed as charity, last Saturday evening, while the train was an hour behind time. We draw attention to the fact in the hope that the evil may be remedied without delay.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Two Ministers Retire from the Spanish Cabinet.

A general Ministerial Crisis
Imminent.

The Garrison at Barcelona in Open Mutiny.

Carlists Still on the War Path.

Arrest of a Murderess.

Two Men Murdered in One Night.

Suspension of a Bank.

London, March 26. — Advice from Madrid says that Senor Castelar, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Gen. Acosta, Minister of War, will probably retire from the Spanish Cabinet. It is also stated that a general Ministerial crisis is imminent.

The garrison at Barcelona is in open mutiny, and the officers are powerless to effect a restoration of discipline.

Bands of Carlists have entered the town of Ripoli, in the Province of Gerona, and are committing many excesses.

London, March 27, 5:30 a. m.—Don Carlos is positively reported to be in Geneva. The Spanish Cabinet has issued a circular claiming the sympathy and assistance of all parties in the country against the Carlists on account of the declaration of Emancipation in Porto-Rico. The Gazette contains an official announcement of the appointment of Gen. Rieltan, Captain General of Cuba, and General Revira, Captain General of Porto-Rico.

New York, March 27.—It is rumored that the Brooklyn police have arrested a woman who is suspected of having murdered Charles Goodrich, though her name has not been disclosed.

San Francisco, March 27.—Last night a man named Lund was brutally murdered at North Bloomfield, Nevada County, in this State, by some person unknown.
In the same County thirty hours before, Conly Smith was murdered by George Kilgore.

New Haven, Conn., March 27.—The Banking house of E. C. Scranton & Co. suspended yesterday, owing to an unexpected run upon the Bank. It is probable the suspension is temporary, and de-positors will be paid in full.

NEWS FROM ELORA.

(Special to The Mercury.)

Elora, March 27, 10 a.m.

Yesterday and last night were the most severe of the season.

The roads are all drifted, and the railroad is in a bad state.

All yesterday's trains are stuck between Alma and Drayton. The night train due here at 10 last night has not yet arrived. We do not expect any trains north or south to-day.

The weather to-day is very warm.

News From Ottawa.

(Special to The Mercury.)

Ottawa 27.

Sir Francis Hincks returned to Ottawa last evening.

Public Accounts Committee have been occupied for more than two hours this morning in the discussion of most of the points in dispute relating to the Intercolonial Railway.

The discussion arose on a motion by Mr. McKenzie to summon Messrs. Chandler and McLennan, two former engineers of the Railway, to give evidence with reference to certain irregularities in the payments made in connection with the Road. Tilgry wished the motion to be deferred till papers relating to section 16, moved for in the House by Mackenzie, and promised for to-day, had been referred to the Committee. Both sides soon wandered off into discussion of matters relating to the Intercolonial, totally irrelevant to the point at issue.
High words arose, charges of swindling direct contradiction of statements were made, and more than two hours were taken on the amendment of Tilgry, to postpone subject till to-morrow, which was carried by 24 to 16. The division was strictly of a party nature, the only member present usually classed as independent, was Cartwright, voting with the Opposition. Committee then adjourned.

The Council of the Dominion Rifle Association met this morning, and elected the following officers: C. S. Gzowski, President; Col. Gilmore, Vice-President for Ontario; J. Langton and T. D. Harrington, Auditors; Lieut. Col. McPherson, Secretary; Lieut. Col. Brunel, Lieut.- Col. Ross, and Capt. Hilton, Finance Committee.

The heaviest snow storm of the season took place last night. There have been no mails.

The Prescott train is just in; but no news of the Grand Trunk, due last night.
Magnificent weather to-day, and the winter is looked on as virtually over.

Lady Macdonald's bazaar in aid of St Alban's Church begins to-day. It gives promise of being a great success.

A NEW GAME.—The Hamilton Times says that the east end young ladies are about introducing a new game, called "Kiss me quick, and let me go." They have frequent rehearsals, at which the girls are never late, but they are not perfect in their parts. They remember the "Kiss me quick" well enough, but sometimes they forget to say "and let me go." And the young men are so man that they won't "prompt" the girls a single time.

Signor Arrighi's Lecture.

To the Editor of The Mercury.

Sir,—I had the privilege and pleasure of hearing Signor Antonio Arrighi's very interesting and instructive lecture on the religious aspect of Italy, last evening. I feel a warm interest in the lecturer, and a still warmer interest in the country of his birth, so dear to him. For the sake of both I would like to give him one or two hints; and as the matters referred to are now in possession of the public, I will permit me, I shall give my hints through your columns.

And first, I would say that very unnecessarily makes his Methodism offensively egotistic. The whole passage in which he connects the Italian martyr, Savonarola, of the fifteenth century, with John Wesley, of three centuries later, is an example. The burnt ashes of the martyr that passed down the Arno, along the Mediterranean, by wave after wave through the straits of Gibraltar, and at length landed on the shores of England, must have been possessed of wonderful vitality. Their passage through the straits, against the current incessantly setting in from the Atlantic, must have been a miracle which would surely have entitled the martyr to canonization if he had been a true son of the Church of Rome. Perhaps it was the difficulty of that passage which caused so much delay that those precious ashes, with all their vitality, did not reach England till the days of John Wesley. And it is not surprising that, even then, John Wesley seems to have been the only person, in all England, who caught inspiration from them! The whole thing amounts to an ignoring of all other reformers in England, before, in, and after John Wesley's time. Perhaps he never heard of the Wickliff's, Cranmer's, Owens', Baxter's, Henry's, Scott's, Newton's, Berrige's, Hill's, Whitfield's, &c., &c., of England; nor of the Hamilton's, Wishart's, Knox's, Melville's, Henderson's, Gillespie's, Rutherford's, Cameron's, Renwick's, &c., &c., down to the Chalmers of Scotland.
If so, does it not indicate a one-sided, defective, and sectarian education, for which, perhaps, the blame lies somewhere else rather than at his door? Some naughty people say that this egotism is characteristic of Methodism, wherever you find it. Now, Mr. Editor, I am not making that charge, though I have often heard it; neither am I prepared to deny and disprove it; but if it will help to palliate it any, I would venture to insinuate that the Methodists do not stand entirely alone in this matter. Since the ugly thing does exist in the church, set your
