Hood Farm Exhibits At the Toronto Fair

The Jerseys and Berkshires from Hood Farm, Lowell, Mass., exhibited at the Toronto Fair, attract the admiring attention of all who visit the stock pens. Coming from the home of the great World's Fair winners, Brown Bessie and Merry Maiden, and some of the Jerseys being direct descendants of these cows, it was natural that they should be a center of interest.

Among the Jerseys shown is the bull, Hood Farm Pogis, a son of the great Kathletta's Fancy who has a seven days' test of 17 lbs. 634 oz. from 344 lbs. 9 oz. milk. Her greatest day's milk yield during the test was 50 l'os. 6 oz. In one month she gave 1,416 lbs. 1 oz. milk, in one year, 11,784 lbs. 2 oz. and in two consecutive years, 22,374 lbs. As a two-year-old Hood Farm Pogis won at the New England Fair the sweepstakes prize as the best bull of any age and headed the sweepstakes herd, and he has proved a prize-winner wherever shown.

For a two-year-old bull a son of Brown Bessie's Son is shown. This young bull is out of the creat prize winning cow, Tormentor's Fancy Wax. He has won many blue ribbons.

A yearling son of Hood Farm Pogis out of Donny Pogis 2d is exhibited. He proved a great prize winner in the east, as a calf and has improved very much during the year. Two choice bull calves are shown.

Among the cows exhibited are Figgis, Marna and Hood Farm Waxie. The first two have won many prizes in the show ring. Hood Farm Waxie is a young cow of grand conformation and will have an enviable reputation when she is as old as the others. Sophie 10th of Hood Farm, sired by the same bull as Figgis and Marna, is shown in the three-year-old class, and it will take a good one to beat her. Chroma 3rd of Hood Farm, a very handsome two-year-old, is strongly bred in the lines of the World's Fair winners. She carries a large percent of the blood of Combination, being out of one of his daughters, and by Chromo of World's Fair fame. Oonan 12th of H. F., and Hood Farm Caltharine, are both excellent heifers, one year old and under two. In the class for heifers under one year old there are two or three entries. They were selected from the grand herd and are in show condition. It is worth the price of admission to the fair to see these beautiful Jerseys. The Berkshire hogs exhibited were all bred at Hood Farm. For a boar two years old or over, Longfellow, of Hood Farm is shown. He is a grand hog, and it will do every spectator good to see his strong back and great heart girth. He stands well on his toes and in every respect he is a model hog. He is a son of the great Duke III. of Hood Farm, a hog of remarkable size and quality. For company at the fair, Longfellow of Hood Farm has, in the aged sow class, Highelere Countess IX. of H. F., and
