Local Market.

London, Tuesday, Oct. 23. Generally speaking, business was slow on the market this morning. The attendance was poor. Everything seemed to be in a state of contrariness. Where there was a demand there was a sharp demand for poultry, and it was scarce. There was no great de-mand for beef, and there was an abundance of it. On the whole, prices remained as in previous quotations. Grapes were there in large quantities. Quinces are nearly done. Dealers may expect an early advance in the
