"The Least Hair Casts a Shadow."

A single drop of poison blood will, unless checked in time, make the whole impure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great leader in blood purifiers.

It casts no shadow, but brings sunshine and health into every household. Running Sore—"My mother was troubled with rheumatism in her knee for a number of years, and it broke out into a running sore. She took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now well. Hood's Olive Ointment helped to heal the eruption." Mrs. John Fare, Cloverlawns, Ancaster, Ont.

Rheumatism-"I was badly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism. Consulted doctors without relief. Was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and five bottles gave me relief and enabled me to go to work."

ON A HOOK

Chicago Man Hanged Himself Unnoticed by His Wife.

Chicago, Oct. 22 .- Within a few feet of his wife, and in the same room where she was sewing and singing, John Pfeiffer hanged himself to a hook in the door casing. So quiet was the man in his act and so busy was the woman with her work and her song that she did not see him procure the clothesline and deliberately hang himself. It was nearly a half-hour later before the woman arose to leave the room, and saw her husband hanging by the neck and dead. She uttered a scream and tried to revive him after cutting the rope, but he had been dead for several minutes. His two children were at school when he committed suicide. For some time he had been out of employment and had been despond-

Mosquito Warfare" Holds the Field in South Africa-Convalescent Canadians Return to Duty.

London, Oct. 21 .- A Cape Town dispatch says: Lord Methuen has reoccupied Zeerust and captured numerous wagons, a large quantity of stores and many cattle and sheep. Kelly-Kenny reports Capt. C. G. Henty, 16th (London Irish) Rifle Brigade, endeavored to surprise a party of Beers near Bloemfontein, but the party turned out to be stronger than was expected, and our little force had to retire, which it did unmolested after three hours' fighting. Our losses were nine wounded, including Lieut. Slater, 57th company, Imperial Yeomanry (leg). Lieut. Thomas, Ceylon Mounted Intantry, reported missing, is believed to be dead. Henty states that the Boers suffered heavily.

Full particulars of the mishap to the British convoy near De Jager's Drift have been received. They show that the earlier reports rather under-estimated the extent of the unfortunate affair. The Boers numbered 450, and were under the command of Com-mandant Chris Botha. Our men-all Durban volunteers-were taken completely by surprise. They were out-spanned when the attack commenced. All our natives in charge of the oxen were shot in cold blood by the Boers. Our losses were an officer and six men wounded, and 53 men taken prisoners. The latter were subsequently released. The Boers also captured a Hotchkiss gun, which had only an hour previously been handed over to the composite corps composing the convoy's escort. The Boers burned 24 of our wagons, and took away all the stores, with oxen, mules and all the provisions. They left one mule wagon, in which to take away our wounded men.

Pietermaritzburg, Oct. 21.-A loyal Dutchman, named Hattin, residing near Frere, has made a graceful offer to Lord and Lady Roberts. The re-mains of their son, Lieut. Roberts, who fell at Colenso, lie on this man's farm, and he offers to make over to the parents of the deceased officer two acres of land round the grave. Hatting is one of the very few Natal Dutch who refused to join the enemy when they appeared in his neighborhood.

STRATHCONA'S HORSE. Strathcona's Horse have recently had some startling experiences in the Selati district, and they have greatly distinguished themselves upon every occasion. While patroling the Sand River they gained intelligence that there was a Boer convoy ahead. They immediate-16c; Kings, 18s to 20s; Baldwins, 14s ly started in pursuit, and by a forced to 18s; Spys, 12s to 17s. The market march along a circuitous route sucmarch along a circuitous route suc-ceeded in reaching a drift just as the convoy was preparing to cross. Believing that another British patrol was, as arranged, supporting them, Strathcona's Horse attacked the Boers. Unfortunately, the other patrol did not arrive in time to help, and the attack failed. Had the support acted as arranged, the whole convoy would certainly have been captured. As it was, caped with difficulty.

KILLED BY LIONS.

Subsequent to this adventure a trooper of Strathcona's Horse and a native attached to the corps were killed by lions.

WINDING UP.

What is described by military men as "mosquito warfare," is still in progress, but the departure of Mr. Kruger is hailed as an indication that the struggle has practically ended, and elaborate preparations are being made for the reception in London of the volunteers a week hence.

The importance of the reception of the colonial contingent in London will be magnified. Mr. Chamberlain has become master of the imperial revels a post which was vacant after Lord

Beaconsfield's death.

Attempts of the half-penny press to revive alarm over continental intrigues for the intervention of Russia France on behalf of Mr. Kruger have failed. Intervention would not be practicable unless those powers were prepared to send 300.000 troops across the seas and protect the transports and convoys with their combined fleets. CANADIANS RETURNED TO DUTY.

London, Oct. 20 .- The following Canadian officers, who have been ill in hospitals, were discharged on the 14th. and are now on duty again: Lieut. J. Moodie, C squadron, Canadian Mounted Rifles, late inspector N. W. M. P.; Major V. A. S. Williams, B squadron, Canadian Mounted Rifles, late captain R. C. D.; Major J. A. G. Yesterday afternoon the funeral service of the late Sergt. Mrs. Butler took place in the S. A. Citadel, Major Mc-Millan conducted the service, and Sergt. Mrs. Jarvis and Mrs. Andrews were called on to speak of their departed comrade. They were both very much affected as they spoke of the faithfulness of the one who had been called to her reward. Staff-Capt. Cowan, matron of the Rescue Home, was then called upon, and rendered a beautiful solo, entitled "Fading Away." Ensign Wakefield, officer in charge of the London corps, stated that the Sunday afternoon previous he handed Sister Butler her commission as sergeant for the coming year, little thinking that the following Sunday afternoon her funeral service would be conducted. Continuing, he spoke of her faithfulness, and claimed her life was worthy of imitation. Major McMillan knew Mrs. Butler when stationed in London eleven years ago, and had always found her to be faithful. The remains were interred in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The brass band and soldiers turned out in full force, and many citizens witnessed the funeral march. Staff-Capt. Phillips gave his farewell address in the citadel last night. Washington, Oct. 22. - Hon. John Sherman, who for a period of 40 years occupied a prominent place in the legislative and administrative branches of public affairs in the United States, died here at 6:45 o'clock this morning of brain exhaustion. Death came to the aged sufferer peacefully after almost 36 hours of nearly complete unconsciousness. John Sherman was born in Lancaster, Ohio, May 10, 1823. In 1844 he was admitted to the bar. He was elected to congress, where he took his seat on Dec. 3, 1855. He was pre-sident of the first Republican convention in Ohio. Mr. Sherman was a United States senator from 1861 to 1877 and again from 1881 to 1897. In 1880 he was a candidate for the presidency, James A. Garfield presenting his name in the national convention. A second time he was a candidate for chief executive, when in 1884 Joseph B. Foraker presented his name. The author of many important laws, he has long been known as a famous statesman. In 1896, President McKinley appointed him secretary of state, but soon after taking up the portfolio ill-health compelled him to resign.
