LOCAL MARKET.

LONDON, Saturday, July 22.

The farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather to harvest their hay and wheat, and consequently the attendance was not as large as the average for Sunday.

Quite a number of farmers have cut their fall wheat, and they all agree that it is of fine quality. In ordinary years some fields are not up to much, but this year it is hard to find a poor field of wheat. Barley and oats are so far in splendid shape, and unless something unforeseen happens this will not result in a good crop. Prices at the market today were firm, and sales as a rule brisk.

Grain-Oats were the only grain offered; there was a good demand and prices ruled at 45 to 48 per cwt.

Butter and Eggs-Butter was firm and higher in price; crocks sold at 12c to 13c. Eggs were also in good demand; prices ruled at 20c to 22c per dozen.

Vegetables and Roots-The display in this line was very large; considering that so many different crops are being harvested in London, there was a good demand; nearly every class of vegetables were sold by 12 o'clock; new potatoes were easier, at 80c to 90c per bushel; tomatoes were lower in price; most of the sales were made at 10c per bushel; celery, 40c per dozen; cabbage, 40c per dozen; cucumbers, 30c to 40c per dozen; other vegetables plentiful, at the prices quoted.

Fruits-Raspberries sold well, at 10c to 12c per crate and 12c per bushel; the quantity offered was below expectation; hardy any cherries were offered, and sales were brisk at 12c per box; gooseberries were dull, at 12c per box; black currants sold well at 12c per box, and red currants at 10c per box.

Live Hogs-Most of the small pigs were from 6 to 8 weeks old, and sold at 35c to 40c per pair; sales were slow; the price of live hogs for Monday's shipment will be 35c to 40c per pair.

Butcher's Meats-Not much offered; sales were brisk at prices quoted.

Dressed Hogs-Only a couple of carcasses were offered; sales were made at 35c to 40c per cwt.

Honey-Strained sold at 35c to 40c per lb, and for honey in the comb 12c to 15c per dozen was asked.
