

The Dominion Bank

INCORPORATED 1871. TOTAL ASSETS $48,000,000
FARMERS' SALE NOTES discounted at lowest current rates.
 Special attention given to Savings Accounts.
 Interest paid or added to principal four times a year at highest current rate.
 General Banking Business transacted.
LONDON BRANCH: CORNER DUNDAS AND TALBOT STS.
C. A. ROSS, Manager.

POULTRY WAS MARKET FEATURE

LOCAL MARKET.

Poultry was here, there and everywhere at today's market, and of course, it was the principal offering at the market.

It would have been almost impossible to place any more vehicles on the square, and those who came late had to take to the streets to sell their produce.

It took a pile of money to pay for all of the produce and poultry that was offered; it would run into the thousands.

Considering the large amount of produce that was offered, sales were fairly brisk, but prices were hardly as strong as a week ago.

Grain—Oats scarce at $1.20 per cwt. for choice. Wheat sold at 88c per bushel. Barley, $1.15 per cwt.

Hay and Straw—A half dozen loads that had been bargained for on the previous day sold at $11.50 to $12.50 per ton. There will not be any hay offered until Tuesday. Straw sold at $7 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—Butter scarce at least the best quality, which sold at 22c for crocks, and 25c for rolls. Eggs were higher at 25c to 27c per dozen by the basket in the dairy hall. For a single dozen 20c was asked and obtained.

Fruits—Apples were very plentiful and sales were slow, as the market was oversupplied. Prices ranged from 50c to $1 per bag, or $1.50 to $2.50 per barrel. Pears were slow at 60c to 80c per bushel. Chestnuts, higher, at $2.50 per bushel. Citrons, 40c to 75c per dozen.

Vegetables—Potatoes were plentiful; in fact, the supply was the largest this year. Prices were 60c and 65c per bag by the load, or 70c for the ten-bag lots. Some of the loads were unsold at noon.

Cabbages were slow at 25c to 50c per dozen. Celery, 30c to 40c per dozen. Onions, dull, at 90c to $1 per bag. Turnips, 20c per bushel. Carrots, 30c to 50c per bushel.

Poultry—Piles of turkeys and other fowls were offered and there was a large amount of money changed hands for what was offered. Turkeys sold at 12c to 14c per pound dressed. Ducks sold at 9c to 10c per pound whole. Geese, 8 1/2c to 9c per pound. Chickens, 10c to 11c dressed. Old fowl, 7c per pound, dressed.

Dressed Hogs—Nearly all the sales were made at $7.75 per cwt.

Live Hogs—No shipment Monday, but it will take place Wednesday, or at least that is the intention.

Small pigs sold at $4 to $5 per pair. Butchers' Meat—Beef scarce at $5.50 to $6.50 per cwt. Veal, $5 to $6 per cwt. Lamb, 9c per pound by the carcass. Pork, 9c per front and 10c for hind quarters.

INSURANCE

FIRE-ACCIDENT-LIFE

Phone 343.
 380 Front Street.

J. A. NELLES & SON

PRODUCE MARKETS.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—Ontario wheat holds steady under a very moderate movement. Manitoba wheat continues strong. Oats and barley are unchanged, but are rather difficult to sell. Those who have it on hand are, however, in no hurry to get rid of it, and are holding for higher prices.

Both rye and buckwheat are easier. New American corn is offering more freely, and is lower in sympathy with the Chicago market. Local quotations are:

Wheat—Ontario No. 2 white or red, outside, 88c to 90c; No. 2 white, 88c to 90c; Manitoba wheat, spot, No. 1 northern, 81c; No. 2 northern, 81c; lake ports, 81c to 83c; No. 3 extra, 78c to 80c; No. 3, 75c to 77c.

Oats—Ontario No. 2 white, 37 1/2c to 38 1/2c; No. 3 mixed, 36c to 37c; Manitoba No. 2, 42c, on track; lake ports, 42c to 44c; No. 2, 42c to 44c; No. 3, 40c to 42c; No. 4, 38c to 40c; No. 5, 36c to 38c.

Barley—No. 2, 55c to 56c; No. 3 extra, 52c to 54c; No. 3, 50c to 52c.

Rye—No. 2, 75c to 76c; No. 3, 72c to 74c; No. 4, 70c to 72c; No. 5, 68c to 70c.

Buckwheat—No. 2, 54c.

Flour—Manitoba first patents, 55c; second, 53c; strong bakers, 55c; Ontario winter wheat patents, for export, 55c to 56c outside.

Milled—Bran, 23c to 24c per ton in bags, outside; shorts, 24c to 25c per ton in bags, outside.

SECURITIES

returning attractive rates of interest, listed and always salable. Write or telephone 212.

H. C. BECHER, 432 Richmond

DAIRY MARKETS

CHICAGO.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—On the produce exchange today the butter market was firm; creameries, 21c to 22c; dairies, 19c to 20c. Cheese strong, 12 1/2c to 13 1/2c.

Pleasant, Nov. 6.—At our cheese board today 21 factories boarded, 1,426 boxes, all colored; 11 1/2c bid, 825 sold.

Naples, Nov. 6.—Boarded, 709 white and 1,190 colored; sold at 11 1/2c on the curb.

PERTH.

Perth, Nov. 6.—There were 800 boxes of cheese boarded here today; ruling price, 11 1/2c.

HUNTINGDON.

Huntingdon, Nov. 6.—The Huntingdon Dairymen's Exchange held their first season today for the season of 1908; nine factories offered 23 boxes white and colored cheese; all sold at 11 1/2c; seven factories offered 185 packages salted butter; 25 packages sold at 35c; 70

The Middlesex Beekeepers in Session

The semi-annual session of the Middlesex County Beekeepers' Association opened this morning at the city hall. The attendance was larger than usual, a very large number of beginners being present.

Routine business was largely taken up, the main discussion taking place this afternoon.

Mr. F. J. Miller, Ealing P. O., presided. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Dowdale, Mount Elgin Institute; Gibson, of Lucan, and others, on matters pertaining to the bee industry.

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

Mr. J. Silbald, of the department of agriculture, was present, and gave a most instructive talk on bees and honey.

The year has been a most successful one for the bee men.

"We have had an excellent year," said President Miller. "The honey output has been very good, and the prices realized were excellent. We are growing in our society, the membership increasing all the time. The convention so far is very gratifying, and we have the largest attendance in years. A large number of beginners are taking an interest in the association, and as a result it is developing rapidly. The bee industry is very important, and is creating more attention than formerly."

WORTH HAS BEEN PROVEN

Local Man Commends Advertiser as an Advertising Medium.

Every business aims to give satisfaction, and when that point has been secured a few words of commendation are appreciated. The Advertiser always endeavors to give satisfaction to its advertisers as well as its readers, and without speaking of its own good points, it prints herewith a copy of a letter received, without solicitation, this morning, from Mr. F. B. Clarke, the well-known ticket and steamship agent:

LONDON, Nov. 6, 1908.
 Manager London Advertiser:
 Dear Sir,—In my advertising campaigns I use the London Advertiser almost exclusively, and it is remarkable the number of letters and local inquiries I am receiving daily in regard to space passages to the old country. I attribute same to the large circulation of the Advertiser, some of the inquiries coming even from the State of Michigan. Therefore, I wish to congratulate you on the thorough way in which your paper covers not only the city of London, but the surrounding district. Circulation is a valuable factor, and as far as it is concerned, I am satisfied the Advertiser produces results.

Persons nowadays realize the fact that arrangements for trips can easily be made by mail, or when information is required quickly by use of the telephone. Wishing the Advertiser continued success,
 F. B. CLARKE,
 Steamship Agent.

Personal Mention

Mrs. W. D. Thomas and little daughter Reta, of 484 Matland street, are spending Thanksgiving with friends in Hamilton and Toronto.

Mr. Ronald D. White, of Chicago, agent of the Transcontinental Freight Company, is spending a few days at the home of Detective Thompson, Nickle.

Mrs. Harry B. Moyer (nee Perry) will receive for the first time since her marriage at her home, 3 Perry street, on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, Nov. 12, and afterwards the first and second Thursdays at 46 Stanley street.

Los Angeles, Nov. 6.—On trial for shedding his wife three times last June in an attempt to slay her, Guy Hadley, a decrepit white-haired man, 60 years old, broke down on the witness stand in the superior court yesterday and confessed that his real name was Elias Hamlet, and that prominent persons in Indiana by the name of Harley were his relatives. He changed his name, assuming the name of his mother, 15 years ago, following the death of his first wife. He was superintendent of the Woodmen Sovereign Wheel Works of Indianapolis 24 years ago, he testified, but lost his position because of gambling. He drifted over the country as a gambler for many years, marrying his second wife some years ago. Hadley attempted to kill his wife, but failed at the time he shot his wife. He said he did not know why he tried to kill her, as he had no reason for it.

Both Hadley and his wife wept throughout the trial, the recital of his life story. The old man said he had spent the night on his knees imploring for courage to make the confession.

Ten years in the penitentiary is the penalty Hadley will pay for his crime. The jury was out but fifteen minutes.

STEAMER STRIKES PIER.
 Sault Ste. Marie, Nov. 6.—The steel steamer Wexford, down bound, and loaded with grain, struck the south pier on making the entrance to the Canadian canal near the same place as the Lyman C. Smith did some time ago. She has a hole wide and six feet long above the water line. Temporary repairs are being made, and the boat may get away today. Captain Sinclair, underwriters' representative, left Detroit last night for here. The Wexford is a new boat in the lake trade, and is managed by W. J. Bassett, of Collingwood. Part of her cargo is being lightered.

MONEY TO LOAN.
 MONEY TO LOAN—LOWEST RATES, no commission, easy terms of payment. Call or write P. H. Bartlett, barrister, etc., 28 Dundas street.

PRIVATE FUNDS TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES.
 M. P. McDonagh, barrister, 415 Talbot.

MONEY TO LOAN AT LOWEST RATES.
 Knott & Sangster, real estate brokers, room 101, Masonic Temple.

PRIVATE FUNDS TO LOAN ON MORTGAGE.
 GAGNER, Dundas and Wellington. Wm. J. Wright, proprietor.

DOMINION HOUSE, ADJOINING
 Grand Trunk Railway station, London. J. J. Cox, proprietor.

HOTEL HARRISON—H. AND UPWARD.
 Harrison Bros., proprietors. King and Talbot streets.

HOTEL WINDSOR, OPPOSITE MARKET.
 R. T. Windsor, Rates, $1 to $15. Charles James, 545 BROADVIEW ST.

CROWE STARTS ROW.
 Chicago, Nov. 7.—Patrick Crowe, who several years ago gained notoriety in connection with the kidnapping of Edward Gurney, Jun., of Omaha, Neb., was arrested last night after half a dozen shots were fired. Crowe is alleged, fired shots into the mirror in a saloon, and then caused excitement which occasioned a riot call to the police. After three shots had been fired at him Crowe was captured.

AWFUL PITTSBURG MURDER.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was under suspicion when his wife was found dead, but for lack of evidence was discharged.

Man Returning Home Finds Wife and Child Killed by Son-in-Law.
 East Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 7.—His wife lying on a bed, her head near her ear, his 6-year-old adopted daughter on the floor nearby with her head almost severed; a razor dripping with blood on the bed beside the dead woman, and great crimson splashes on the floor and bed clothing were the ghastly sight which confronted William Casey when he returned to his home in Fifth avenue, East McKeesport, early today. The scene of the tragedy was a room occupied by George Hartzell, Casey's son-in-law, whose wife was mysteriously killed a year ago, and who had been boarding recently at the Casey home. Hartzell was missing when the murder was discovered, but after a few minutes he was found unconscious in a trunk near the bodies, a chloroform bottle at his nostrils, and died in a short time. Circumstances point to Hartzell as a murderer and suicide. He was