STOCKYARD CONGESTED

Cattle Suffering Much Hardship at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Nov. 10.-Congestion in Winnipeg stockyard on the C. P. where cattle to be shipped east are suffering severely, and shippers are complaining bitterly of the tremendous loss occasioned by the shrinkage in weight when the cattle cannot be watered or fed for as much as 30 hours at a stretch. Receipts at the stockyards yesterday were exceptionally heavy, totalling nearly 2,000 head. There were 119 carloads due to arrive pefore midnight, most of which will have to stand on side tracks until room can be made for them. Mr. W. Cummings, shipper, from Yorkton, states that he lost $2,000 on a shipment of 611 head from shrinkage due to the fact that they were in the cars from Wednesday to Saturday with food and water for only 24 hours, the usual time for the trip to Winnipeg. Mr. J. Lyons, of Minto, Man., declares that his cattle had to go 30 hours without water or food.

NINE CASES MONDAY FOR JUSTICE MULOCK

List of Varied Suits To Be Decided at the Non-Jury Sittings.

Ten cases were entered for the November session of the non-jury high court, commencing Monday, in the office of Mr. R. K. Cowan yesterday afternoon, but as the action of Whelihan vs. Kohoe has been settled out of court, but nine remain to be decided by Justice Mulock, of Toronto, when court opens.

The list includes two actions for damages, one to break a will, one for commission on the sale of patents, four for the recovery of money alleged to be due, and one for the transfer of money on deposit in banks to the son of the dead depositor.

The settled action was one in which Charles E. Whelihan, of St. Marys, sued Judge J. J. Kehoe, of Sudbury, for $1,500 and interest, totalling about $1,900 the amount of three promisory notes given by Judge Kehoe in 1903. Dr. R. J. Gibson, of Sault Ste. Marie, who indorsed the notes was named as co-defendant. The settlement was for $1,600. The defendant is a brother-inaw of the plaintiff.

The remaining nine cases entered will be tried in the following order uness otherwise arranged in court: Burley Bennett, of this city, vs. the Windsor Gas Company. An action re-Continued on Page Nine.

London's police station has been condemned an insanitary. For some time there have been rumors to the effect that it was not the healthiest of spots, and today Dr. T. V. Hutchinson, medical health officer, after an inspection, condemned the building as dangerous. PAVING PURPOSES The building is not sanitary," said Dr. Hutchinson. "I made a thorough inspection of the place today, and I found it unhealthy. There is not enough air space, and the ventilation is bad, I am making out my report on the building. I hope to have some radical changes made at an early date. When these are made there will be more fresh air, and a consequent improvement in conditions.

Need More Fresh Air. "The court room is not a very pleasant smelling place at any time," said Chief Williams. "We need more fresh air. As a rule the class of people we get are quite odoriferous. It is not a sanitary building."

"There is not sufficient ventilation," said Police Magistrate Love. "There is no way of ventilating the court room except through the windows, and that is almost impossible these days.
