All-Fight Card Instead of All-Star Card Promised Fans At Arena Tonight.

Barnes' Debut In Home Town Vies With Headline Bouts On Well-Balanced Bill

Presence of Home Brews in Support of Freddie Vincent and Other Stars Excites Fans.

Smiling Gardner, St. Thomas, vs. Art. Woodham, London. Welterweight.

Indications are the London fans & will appreciate the fact that they have been provided with an all-fight card instead of an all-star boxing bill at the Arena tonight. The effort to get enough experience on the card to carry off the wholesale introduction of local boys into the professional ranks has been made successful apparently Freddie Vincent and his fellow Welshman, Jackie Jones of Hamilton, meeting an invasion of experienced and hard battling U. S. fighters, should provide the fans, who appreciate the finer points of the mitt game, with two sparkling bouts. Vincent has met some of the best boys in the husiness, and so has his opponent, Freddie Thompson. Jackie Jones' experience is neither so wide nor so varied as is that of Vincent, but nevertheless. Jones was hailed as a real sensation when he broke in last year in Hamilton. Such a veteran boxer and trainer as Charlie Conkle, who then had Eber's con-

The slight change in prices it is believed will have its effect in thickening up the crowd. The Ontario boxing commission, through its long experience in handling reports of cards staged throughout the province, has a scale of prices for guidance, and the new schedule it is said represents the minimum prices at which shows may be staged.

Central Juniors Play Wednesday

Meet St. Thomas in the Second Round of Wossa.

The Central C. I. junior Wossa gridders will in all probability open their second round grind towards the championship on next Wednesday af-ternoon at St. Thomas against the Flower City C. I.

The purple and gold kids are winners of the local group by right of their two successive victories over De La Salle, and on their showing are favored to go a long way in the run for the title. Reports so far indicate that the St. Thomas juniors are strong individually. Several stars have been made through their earlyseason showing, but Central should be able to get rid of them easily as

Harris' statement was made in reply to a telegram sent him by Johnson from Chicago, in which the league president tempored his congratulations for a "game fight" with the assertion that Washington lost the series because of "sentimental reasons" in pitching Johnson.

"Sentiment played absolutely no part "sentimental reasons" in pitching Johnson.

"Sentiment played absolutely no part in my decision to pitch Johnson." Harris declared in his statement. "He pitched wonderful ball. I regard it as a reflection on Walter Johnson to have such a thing said of him. President Johnson's remarks, if his telegram has been correctly quoted, are gratuitous, and would have been better left unsaid."

The Washington manager said he had "no alibis" to offer for loss of the final game and the series.

"The breaks were somewhat against us." he added. "Our team went down fighting, and I feel that we will be in the thick of it next year. We are not dismayed by the decision."

Six-Team Junior City Loop Launched For 1926 Season

To Play in Arena One Night Each Week Shortly After November 1. SELECT COLORS A six-team junior city hockey league, hich will commence its schedule as oon as the ice gets in the arena early november, was launched last night at a meeting in Westervelt's school.

Hawks, Ridouts, Young Britons, Westervelts, Orioles and St. Marys were, the way the teams were entered, and when it looked as if more teams might pop through the door, a motion was nastily passed to limit the league to six. The O. H. A. age limit will be enforced.

Bill Marsden, grounds supervisor at Western University, and who has in Western University, and who has in his days developed more championship teams off the ponds than any other his days developed more champlonship teams off the ponds than any other single coach, gave the youngstees present a talk. He said that they must forget self-interest and concentrate on development, and he hoped that the league would go through without a protest. Contract forms, dated, will obviate wrangling over possession of players, and all must produce birth certificates before being allowed to play. The league will be given practice hours at the arena free, and will play threa games once a week. It will be to this league that O. H. A. officials will look when they seek material for the junior O. H. A. team.

A president and other executives have not been selected yet, with the exception of the office of secretary, which will be filled by Stan Reid.

The team managers will meet at Westervelt's next Friday night, when it is expected practice hours and playing nights will be alloted. The teams had already selected their colors.

The team representatives last night were: The team representatives
