The First Stage Taken in the Lords Tribune that he has anything to do with this undertaking, and states that Mr. Mackey would not associate himself with the men whose names have been given in connection with the new scheme. Mr. Keene, who is the well-known speculator that last year sunk several millions in the attempt to corner wheat, is, it is stated, short of Western Union stock, which probably accounts for the formation of the new company.

The American Minister at Berlin.

Berlin, July 29.—It is rumored that Carl Schurz will succeed Mr. White as American minister.

Mr. White's resignation is to take effect August 15, at which time he will return to the United States. The secretary of the legation will act as charge d'affaires until Mr. White's successor is appointed. It is not probable that an appointment will be made until congress-meets.

THE OPIUM TRADE.

The Viceroy of China is Hopeful of Procuring Its London, July 29 .- The secretary of the society for the suppression of the opium trade wrote to the viceroy of China explaining the society's views on the traffic. The viceroy replied: Opium is a subject on which England and Camaracan never meet which England and Canacan never meet on common ground. China views the whole question from a moral and England from a fiscal standpoint. The Chinese government is impressed with the necessity of making strenuous efforts to control the flood of opium before it overwhelms the whole country. The new treaty with America containing a prohibitory clause, encourages the belief that the broad principles of justice and feelings of humanity will prevail in the future relations of China with western nations.

The French Chamber Closed. Paris, July 29.—Gambetta read the decree closing the session of the French chamber of deputies. He said the country would judge the work of the session, and each member would have to bow to that judgment. He hoped the policy of the future chamber would be inspired by a determination to promote the well-being of the country.

Austrian Superstition. Vienna journals contain accounts of obrowitz, which assembled from all parts lage church, firmly impressed with the be-lief that the devil was at that moment in nor that the devil was at that moment in person lodged within the sacred edifice, and anxious to get a glimpse of him. The priest tried in vain to persuade them that they were mistaken. His exhortations were greeted with jeers and laughter, and with the derisive cry that he was willing to show the devil to the rich members of his flock, but not to the poor ones. After several hours of disorderly demonstration the re-port spread that the devil had left the Ob-
