BOARD OF HEALTH ACT NOT ENFORCED

Contagious Diseases Not Closely Quarantined And Other Regulations Ignored.

There is much general criticism of the manner in which the New Brunswick Health Act is being enforced in the Town of Campbellton by the Restigouche Board of Health.

It is stated on good authority that the neglect of the proper officials in not properly quarantining a house in which diphtheria existed was the indirect cause of the death of a child from this disease here early this week.

It is a well known fact that many places in town are in a filthy state and breeders of typhoid, yet no steps are being taken to enforce proper sanitary conditions. Pigs are allowed to be kept within the town limits. It is also said that a slaughter house is conducted on a small scale on one of our best residential streets and on a vacant lot in close proximity to residences and stores filth and rubbish have been dumped, despite the fact that the Inspector's attention has been called to these matters.

After an epidemic has broken out it will be too late to remedy these matters and we sincerely trust that prompt steps will be taken to clean matters up.

It is the opinion of our citizens that the one organization for the county is not sufficient, but that the town should be permitted to look after matters as outlined above.

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., June 22.—Mrs. John Baldwin of Boston, who formerly resided in Dalhousie, and who is a daughter of the late John Phillips, who at one time represented the Co. of Restigouche in the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick, was recently the recipient of the following letter which refers to her late brave son Gideon Baldwin, who when he enlisted in the great war, left a splendid position, that he filled with great credit, in the Dalhousie branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, under the able management of Mr. W. A. R. Cragg.

Pauline Starke, who plays the leading role in James Oliver Curwood's famous story, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone" is an excellent animal trainer although she never realized it until called upon to tame Tara, a bear that plays an important part in the story. Director David Smith insisted that Miss Starke become familiar with the grizzly used in the production and soon she had him performing many feats not included in the script.

A very quiet and pretty wedding took place at the Presbyterian Manse, Dalhousie, Wednesday evening, June 10th, when Grace May Campbell, one of the shiretown's most popular girls, was united in marriage to Wm. Alexander Dawson of Maple Green, Restigouche County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. McLean, B.A.

The bride was becomingly attired in a travelling suit of navy blue serge. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson left on the Maritime Express for a trip through the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. J. B. H. Storer, Secretary, Baitouist Board of Trade, who attended the meetings of the Tourist Convention here last week, was accompanied by Mrs. Storer. While in Dalhousie, they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. LaBillicois. They motored to Campbellton before returning home.

One of the most enjoyable speeches made at the supper that was given at the Inch Arran House on Wednesday evening last, in honor of the 129 members of the Associated American Press, was made by Commodore J. L. Stewart, Editor of the Chatham World, who is a bachelor and who responded to the toast of the ladies.

To give an idea how pleased the American visitors were with their visit to Dalhousie and Campbellton, one of the leading ladies of the American party, in speaking with the Chairman of the supper, and expressed
