THE DOUGLAS HEIR.

CHAPTER VIII.

BARNING HER OWN LIVING

She had been obliged to descend from the golden pedestal on which she had been elevated for so long, and was, therefore, treated accordingly. But with the spirit of heroes strong within her, she had been obliged to descend from who can go right into it without any show ing or teaching. Did not the advertisement say 'none but experienced hands are spirit of heroes strong within her, she had been obliged to descend from those who can go right into it without any show ing or teaching. Did not the advertisement say 'none but experienced hands had been obliged to descend from who can go right into it without any show which she was told to fearfully long stich which s

It seemed as if her heart must break, when, as the last day before the sale came she went from room to take a disant ones," and the sad tones touched she went from room to take a disant ones," and the sad tones touched she went from room to take a disant ones," and the sad tones touched she regardle rollingers lingers. farewell view of everything, and gather him. up the few precious treasures which Mr.

deed during her friend's trial. She had insisted upon remaining with some other place to which to go." own fair hands the packing of valuable books, statuettes, bronzes and ornaments, which she knew were so dear to Brownie's wished them to have it—they have been very faithful, and I desire her wishes to do her bidding, and then, with a sigh of over the rules for her sake. despair, placed two hundred dellars, all "Come this way, then." that remained of a fortune of a million, aged to say:

amused him had not his heart been so she had drawn her gloves.

"Machines! Are hats and honnets

"In New York to-morrow morning!" he ejaculated, in astonishment. Yes, I have an engagement there." nature?" and he felt hurt that she had like to work here?"

"Miss Douglas, this is the height of there were hours when it seemed as if she folly. You working in a straw factory, and boarding in a third-class boarding house! What do you suppose your aunt here a moment," Mr. Coolidge called to would say?" asked the lawyer, in despair.

"Mr. Conrad, I do not believe it would be very wrong in me to say that I am very glad auntie is not here to know any the establishment for years, and her face thing shout it. There was a good deal of the core.

She came at his bidding. A tall, angular, sour-visaged woman, who had been in the establishment for years, and her face the noise and discomfort with the indewould say?" asked the lawyer, in despair. the oversoer of the room. that she went home before this thing came upon us, Brownie answered, solemnShe had always hated everything that ty, yet with lips that quivered painfully. was bright or beautiful, probably because the ill-appointed boarding house.

"But," she added, after a moment's fight. it made her own deficiency in that respect rig with herself for self-control, "I am young and strong and I can bear this, "Miss Walton," continued Mr. Cool-world to care for me a little; and, Mr. an impatient tone. Conrad, it is just a little hard to hreak "That was what away to suddenly from the old life and the old friends."

I desire you to teach her to wire hats. Please give her some work right away." it? He was heartsick. flis whole soul and he had specified hats, because he soon deeply interested in the various readrebelled against the cruel fate which will- knew they were much easier to do than ing matter which lay scattered about upon perienced this many a day. ed it so, and against his own rash wicked bonnets.

ness which had brought her to it. And then to see how she clung to him as to told Brownie to follow her, and, with a almost the only friend she had! it touch grateful smile and bow to her employer, asked: "Write to you, child? Indeed I will, anything I shall invest it in some safe place to your account. Once more—can you forgive me for bringing you to this?" when she had finished. he sobbed, wringing her hand.

He bade her farewell as she took her earning her own living was begun. seat in the train that was to bear her Her heart ached with a sense of utter you know."

away, feeling worse than any condemned desolation as she sat there, vally trying criminal who had been sentenced to hard to imitate Miss Walton's example of wirlasbor life. It nearly drove him wild that she would not let him care for her—that.

She felt more utterly alone among the story is so beautifully told. Do you under the story is so beautifully told. Do you under the story is so beautifully told. she must go forth unprotected into the those hundred girls than she had done derstand French?" world to earn the bread she ste, and he the night before in her quiet room at the was utterly powerless to prevent it. Never was there a more lonely or heart this of itself did not serve to make her sick girl than Brownie Douglas when she entered the office of Ware & Coolidge the awkward, and she knew she must appear next morning, and presented her card, to great disadvantage before those experi and the letter she had received from them engaging her to come into their

She had arrived in New York late the night previous, and taken a room at a place, often slipped and pierced their should like to hear you." hotel where she had onee stopped with rosy tips, and the crimson drops would Miss Douglas; but the loneliness of her longe forth, causing her to lay aside her situation had driven sleep from her eyes, work and wrap the wounded members in and this in itself had not prepared her to her handkerchief until they ceased to encounter the cold stare of strangers. "Do you wish to see any one, miss?" asked a clerk, as she entered the office, without appearing to do so, been watchand bestowing a bold stare of admiration ing her ineffectual effors with a great deal upon her lovely face.

"I wish to see Mr. Coolidge, if you

"Ah, yes, certainly. Walk this way," with a smile: and the dandy led her into an unner office, where a man of about forty five sat read-

"Mr. Coolidge, a young lady to see you them; "and I am afraid I shall never sir," the young man said, and, with an- learn I am so awkward." other insolent stare, bowed himself out, ward, and Brownie gave him her card and said, brightening instantly.

"Ah, yes, Miss Meta Douglas." he said, It was a real comfort to her to know He was a venerable, genial-looking man the night. pleasantly, reading the name, while his quick eye ran ever her dainty figure rrom had thought herself, after all.

The was a veneratic, genual-rooking man with flowing white hair and beard, and he wore gold-bowed spectacles, through with a suspicious look into Drawnick.

We was a veneratic, genual-rooking man with flowing white hair and beard, and he wore gold-bowed spectacles, through quick eye ran ever her dainty figure rrom had thought herself, after all.

wore gold-bowed spectacles, through with a suspicious look into Brownie's which his clear blue eyes beamed kindly beautiful face, she added: "I don't be-about the business; I have come to learn. prise, then a smile of amusement curled of holding it." world-that she had been born and bred coldly.

than any other common mortal, since her embarrassed, "there is some mistake wealth had taken to its wings and flown shout this we never employ any but too short; you will never earn anything tation. about this We never employ any but too short; you will never earn anything experienced hands. The fall work is if you take such little stitches," concluded An experienced hands.

fore, treated accordingly. But with the "spirit of heroes" strong within her, ahe took no notice of it, other than to curl her pretty lips with scorn, and then went on the even tenor of her way.

Her greatest trial was that the dear old home, with all its precious furnishings. around which so many tender associations clustered, must go under the auctioneer's hammer.

It seemed as if her heart must break, the seemed as if her heart must be seen that the dear old her her seemed as if her heart must break the seemed as if her heart must be seen that the dear old her her seemed as if her heart must be seen that the seemed as if her heart must be seen that the seemed as if her heart that seemed as if her heart must be seen that the seemed as if her heart

"Excuse me for asking the question,"

She had insisted upon remaining with her until everything was over, and don-hing a simple calco dress, minus either ruffle or train, she superintended with her were provided for the factory help.

| Some other place to which to go."
| It was even so. She was very quick in her motions, and apt to learn, and after a lively controversy, which was like Choctaw to poor Mattie, who was while she found she could wire a hat in tender, heart.

And when at length, the last day arrived, early in the morning, before even the servants were astir, she had slipped down stars, and moving noiselessly from room to room, had tacked a card bearing Aspasia had gone, and Brownie was alone.

The debts were all paid, also the bequests to the servants, which Brownie had insisted upon, although strongly urged to invest the money for herself.

"No," she said, decidedly; "auntie" was the money for herself.

"No," she said, decidedly; "auntie" upon her aching head, and the soothing sound of that "voice which was still." She almost prayed in thought.

"Yes, sir, I am passionately fond on music," returned Brownie, becoming somewhat embarrassed at being so close earth, as lie had done her only friend.

But her strong spirit conquered at last readily, I will show you to that departations.

"I wanished hand" upon her aching head, and the soothing sound of that "voice which was still." She almost prayed in thought.

"Yes, sir, I am passionately fond on music," returned Brownie, becoming somewhat embarrassed at being so close earth, as lie had done her only friend.

But her strong spirit conquered at last readily, I will show you to that departations.

"No," she said, decidedly; "auntie" mant at the soothing sound of that "voice which was still." She almost prayed in thought.

"Yes, sir, I am passionately fond on music," returned Brownie, becoming somewhat embarrassed at being so close earth, as lie had done her only friend.

But her strong spirit conquered at last readily, I will show you to that departations.

"Certainly, and thank you." The brown eyes brightened, the sad, e strictly adhered to.

Accordingly, Mr. Conrad was obliged to He saw 1t, and was glad he had broken looked up and saw his quivering lip.

With a mighty effort he swallowed the if their very existence depended upon sobs which nearly broke forth, and man- the number of stitches which they could set in a minute; as it did, poor things, "Now, dear child, you will come home with me for a while. Mrs. Conrad desires it, and Emily is lonely."

"This is the wiring room," explained Mr. Coolidge, "and I think you could learn to do this work more easily than Thank you, dear Mr. Conrad, I can- any other; you are not strong enough to not, ar I have promised to be in New run a machine, and your fingers are too became more and more accustomed to her was empty, and sitting down at the York to morrow morning," she answered tender to finish off the tips," and he with an air of business which would have glanced at the delicate hands from which made by machinery?" she exclaimed, in "An engagement? May I ask of what nature?" and he felt hurt that she had not consulted him regarding her movements for the future.

"Certainly. I saw an advertisement a week ago for one hundred girls to work on fancy straws. I have always been beaking for a situation."

"My child, why did you not consult with me?"

"My child, why did you not consult with me?"

"Bacause my friend, I know that you are already nearly distracted, and I was resolved to begin to depend upon myself at once. Yesterday I received a letter.

"I an engagement? May I ask of what then asked: "do you think you would not naturally buoyant, and she was one who would not naturally give on a undertaking, for the spirit of the Douglas was strong within her.

Surely here was a new departure.

Whoever knew of the proud and arisitocratic with the was one who would not naturally give of the spirit of the Douglas was strong within her.

She began to feel very independent, too and she really enjoyed that she was able to take care of herself.

To be sure, her earnings at the most, were only six dollars a week. Three and a half of these were paid out for her board in Miss Douglas, and involuntarily treated her ascordingly at once. Yesterday I received a letter.

Whoever knew of the proud and arisitocratic with the work here?"

Whoever knew of the proud and arisitocratic with the was one who would not naturally give and she really enjoyed that she was able to take care of herself.

The undersigned having surprise at her friend's accomplishments, and she really enjoyed that she was able to take care of herself.

The undersigned having surprise at her friend's accomplishments, and sho only in wondering surprise at her friend's accomplishments, and sho only in wondering surprise at her friend's accomplishments, and sho really enjoyed that she was able to take care of herself.

The NORWICH UNION, the original stock of which had been running in her head ever since she had first entered that disagreeable factory. She saug the first verses beautifully.

THE NOR

"Yes," Brownie answered, and I think resolved to begin to depend upon myself at once. Yesterday I received a letter, telling me to come on immediately, and I telegraphed that I would arrive to-morman morning."

"Yes," Brownie answered, and I think I can learn very readily.

"Her quick eyes had been watching every movement of the girls near which they stood, and she felt as if she could for a year or two, so that she had no fears but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but the third was top much for her, and ere the second line was finished she but that she could live, at least until some but the third was top much for her, and ere the second line was finished she but that she could live, at least until some but that she could live, at least until some but the third was top much for her, and ere the second line was finished she but the third was top much for her, and ere the second line was finished she but the third was top much for her, and ere the second live, at least until some but the third was top much for her, and ere the second live was finished she but the third was top much for her, and ere the second live was finished she but the third was the second live was finished she but the third was the second live was finished she but the third was the second live was finished she had to let the second live was finished she had to let the second live was finished she had to let the second live was finished she had to let the second live was finished she had to let the second live was finished she had to let the second

"Yes, sir, please, if it is convenient; I thoughts. She tried to be brave, but you, and let you know of my safe arrival, and I shall be happy to hear from you coessionally, if you can spare the time.

"Teach her! I thought no inexperienced hands were wanted here?" exclaimed the woman measuring the young girls were extremely fond of reading.

One evening they issued forth, arm in "Teach her! I thought no inexperi-It would seem as if I had some one in the girl with her keen eyes, and speaking in Without replying to him, Miss Walton she obeyed.

She was led to a seat in a quiet corner

"Write to you, child? Indeed I will, and anything else in the world that you will let me do for you. And, Miss Doug. Will let me do for you. And, Miss Doug. It is half past eight."

"It is half past eight."

"Is it?" and Brownie's eager eyes were out speaking once during the operation, out speaking once during the operation. half, and just as fast as I can accumulate wired it with rapid fingers, Brownie watch-

"Surely I can, my friend, and let us with a little sigh, longing to ask a few try to feel that a higher power than that of earth ordained this," she answered, sweetly. "Let us feel that there is a lesson in this trial for us both."

with a little sign, longing to ask a lew questions, yet not possessing the courage to do so of the forbidding-looking personage at her side.

And now the wearisome, lonely task of "Le is a little French scory, and so in offered ine," Brownie replied, Irankry, tensely interesting! Must we go home now?" and Brownie looked up wistfully at the clock:

And now the wearisome, lonely task of "Yes, it is about time. We shall be missing suproundings. It had been her desired to teach from the first, but no hotel. She knew that many curious eyes were watching her every movement, and this of itself did not serve to make her work any easier. She knew she was very awkward, and she knew she must appear to great disadvantage before those experienced wirers, who had been in the service doubtless for many years.

I go noug, read for ten minutes as fast as her tongue could fly, Mattie soon becoming as deeply interested as herself.

She at length stopped, with a sigh.

"Well, I suppose I must leave it; and they will not allow us to take any of these doubtless for many years.

Men's Youths and I compliment you upon interested as herself.

Now, if you will kindly give me your name and address, I will endeavor to they will not allow us to take any of these doubtless for many years.

bleed, lest they should stain the hat. One sad looking girl on her left, had, of sympathy. When at length, after running her needle please," Brownie answered, with cold dig-nity, yet a hot flush arose to her cheek at his look and manner.

half its length under her finger nail, Brownie land down her work in despair, she turned kindly toward her and said,

"The work is new to you, isn't it?" "Yes." Brownie replied, looking up at the sweet tones, and much comforted by expensive apparel at a glance. "You unhat, and just how to set the needle, you unchanged the business, I suppose. What department would you prefer to work in? "No, sir, I know nothing whatever her own hand for Brownie's.

When the town to not the needle, you unchanged the strange girl, ing and addressing Brownie, "but I wishing addressing Brownie, "but I wishing addressing Brownie, "but I wishing and addressing Brownie, "but I wishing addressing Brow

"Thank you. If you will, I shall be "No, sir," replied the young girl, Brownie's proud spirit boiled at these grateful. I watched Miss Walton care-blushing, as she thus became aware that insulting words, but she did not deign she answered, frankly and simply.

The gentleman gave her a look of surfully, but could not seem to get her way he had been listening to her. "I only to notice them further than by lifting the had been listening to her."

to better things. Her quiet, dignified, yet graceful manner, her rich dress, her like this, between your finger and thumb, "Now," she continued, "take the hat instructed in the language?" whole appearance, bespoke the refined so; then with your finger try to steady who as a native, and who never allowand polished lady, and he comprehended the wire in its place. There, that is just It soon became noised abroad that Miss here situation at once.

"My dear young lady," he said, a trifle the under side of the wire, slip the hat the language, to utter a word in any the under side of the wire, slip the hat the language, to utter a word in any the under side of the wire, slip the hat the language of the language.

needle no longer slipped into her fingers.

"I do not think you will have any more He then imme Conrad had told her she was at liberty to he added courteeusly, "but I feared if you remained with us, the accommodation has passa had proved herself a friend inpleasant for you, and I hoped you had moments, and giving her a little more ad- on the instant.

ruffle or train, she superintended with her own fair hands the packing of valuable

Thank you, Brownie answered, quietly, ten minutes, when at first it had taken "but if you kindly consent to my staying, her more than double that time.

"Do you speak any of the boarding house will do as well for me

But the continement—the close, hot vided for their help, or whether she was customed work, and she grew so tired the words "sold" upon several of the linindifferent concerning the matter. But est paintings, which she knew Miss Meshe stood there so quiet and lady-like, so night came as if her brain were turned. derstand it, and can read at sight the est paintings, which she knew Miss Mesteration the fact betabel had highly prized, from the fact of their having been brought over from the fact sharp reproof, that he was reassured.

In the words and lady-like, so might came as if her brain were turned.

We would she wended had been a strength and wholesomeness. More entered that the language. But its guttural tones never strength and wholesomeness. More entered that the language is sharp reproof, that he was reassured.

Stopped the night before, and threw here more musical languages of Italy and short weight, alum or phosphate powder. of their having been brought over from the latt the was reassured.

He knew from her appearance that she sharp reproof, that he was reassured.

He knew from her appearance that she stopped the night before, and threw her self upon her bed, too thoroughly worn and carte blanche to perform this delicate service for her friend.

She lay there a long time weeping and sphing longing for one soft touch of the old man, abruptly, after a moments' > hands, If you will allow me to be the judge of what you will learn the most readily, I will show you to that department at once."

>
> But her strong spirit conquered at last, and, rising, she bathed her face and head, rearranged her toilet, put on her hat her confusion, "but I have a very paragain, and went down to the office to set ticular reason for asking you these cheap. tle her bill at the hotel. Notwithstanding her loneliness on the night of her arrival, after the noise and the music-room yonder and let me hear din of the day, she would gladly have re-over the rules for her sake.

"Come this way, then."

He opened a door opposite the one by which she had entered the office, and led which she had entered the office, and led Wby, I feel quite rich!' she exclaim her into a long room where a hundred and proceeded to the factory boarding home, yet she shrank from displaying house, which was to be her home for the CHAPTER IX.

AN ADVENTURE. The days passed slowly by, and Brownie piano, she began lightly running her Before the week was out, she found, by diligent application, that she could earn seventy five cents a day, and during the next week her earnings gradually crept the white keys.

The tones of the instrument inspired her in a moment, and she soon lost all thought of self and her listeners in her thought of self and her listeners in her

"But you have no friends there, and there will you make it your home?" he "I presume you do not care to begin the best of the where will you make it your home?" he asked in dismay, yet admiring the reso-to day?" Mr. Coolidge remarked, after a teacher.

Had it not been for that dreadful board-Had it not been for that dreadful board-house, with its noise, its small, close-troopers and its ill cooked fare she would "I see sir, please, it it is convenient, a bound like to learn immediately. I have stablishment for the accommon place to go, except to a hotel, and I have been comparatively content, for she had been comparatively content.

dation of those who work in the factory, should get very homesick to remain there had made the acquaintance of one or two all day," Brownie explained, nervously.

Should get very homesick to remain there had made the acquaintance of one or two sitting in the twilight together, she had young girls who were refined and intelligible together. She spoke hurriedly; the prospect was not a pleasant one, even to her sanguine than remaining alone with her own sad suddenly reduced from affluence to pover tender memories of the dear past, which But a change was about to come to Brownie, which was to influence her whole time it seemed as if her heart must This little episode of three weeks in a break with its regretful grief. thing about it. There was a good deal of serw darker yet when her eyes fell upon sorrow in her life, and it is a relief to me the delicate beauty of the young girl that she went house before this thing standing by her employer's side.

She had always hated everything that

Mattie Burnham was the name of the young girl who had been so kind to Brownie on that first day of her life in the factory and soon by the factory and since it is sent upon me. However, we idge, "this is Miss Douglas, and I wish will not talk any more about it, please, since my mind is made up. I will write hall and teach her to wire hats."

Brownie on that first day of her life in the factory, and soon by her gentleness and refinement, won a warm place in her hall and teach her to wire hats."

Brownie on that first day of her life in the factory, and soon by her gentleness and refinement, won a warm place in her hall and teach her to wire hats." that his own eyes were shining with Both of the young girls were extremely tears, aria, and wended their way to a public library to exchange their books, and to voice as he said: "That was what I said, Miss Walton. look over the new periodicals in the reading-room connected with it.

A little hard!

Please give her some work right away?

Mr. Coolidge spoke in a quiet, authoritative way, which there was no gainsaying, and he had specified hats, because he soon dearly interacted with it.

They exchanged their books, and then proceeding to the reading room, seated themselves in a cozy sorper, and were and good nature to such an extent- and allow me to say themselves in a cozy sorper, and were and good nature to such an extent- and allow me to say themselves in a cozy sorper, and were during this helf how then I have a condense to the condense with it. taking your patience and good nature the tables.

They read for an hour or more, then while holding it, he asked; "Meta, do you know what time it is ?" " No," absently.

scarce heeded what her friend was say-

"What have you there that is so inter- suaded to teach?" esting?" demanded Mattie, after watch-"I can try," the young girl answered, ing her in silence for a few minutes with a little sigh, longing to ask a few "It is a little French story, and so inoffered me," Brownie replied, frankly locked out if we do not get in before ten, desire to teach from the first, but no seat in the train that was to bear mer away, feeling worse than any condemned desolation as she sat there, vainly trying desolation as she sat there, vainly trying I must read just a little more. I will be it the opportunity had offered, and she had resolved to secure the first situation of "Well, no matter, I will translate it as teacher of languages and music. Your books away," she said, regretfully. talk wi matter, should like to hear you"

Brownie did as requested, and did

Brownie laughed, and glad of any ex. not fail to notice his start of surprise cuse to return to the book, began to read should in a spirited, piquant manner.

when she mentioned her connection with the firm of Ware & Coolidge nor with the firm of Ware & Coolidge, nor "Dear, dear, what a chatter! I should the contraction of his finely-shaped certainly take you to be a Frenchwoman brows which followed it. yourself," interrupted Mattie, at length, adding: "It is not half so interesting to me, though, as when you translated it." She arose as she spoke, and Brownie, with another wistful look at the entrance most aristocratic ladies in the land, and to both girls as if they had been the ing pages, relunctantly laid the book down then left them. and followed her example.

They were suddenly arrested, however, by a pleasant voice, saying:
"One moment, if you please, young M. D.

"Oh, yes, you will. We were all so at he had been a very attentive listener and then the two young girls hastened Dry Goods, Winceys, Prints, &c. the gentleman immediately came for "Were you? Then I'll try again," she ward, and Brownie gave him her card and brightening instantly.

The gentleman immediately came for "Were you? Then I'll try again," she while she was reading so glibly from the french romance. She had not dreamed lady was about locking the doors for pon't fail to call there is room for all at of having another listener.

"Miss Walton does not like the trouble read for my own profit and amusement." her proud head a trifle more haughtily his lips. He was quick to see that she 'Miss Walton does not like the trouble knew nothing of the rough ways of the of teaching any one," returned the other, Pardon me again, but where were you room, fo'lowed by the more subdued and trembli g Mattie.

(To be continued)

In Philadelphia, sir. I had a teacher inutes, during which time he had been ntently reading the face of the beauti-

He then immediately asked her

She smiled brightly, and answered in

He asked another, and soon they

"Do you speak any other language

"A piacere," Brownie, responded, in liquid tones, which, being interpreted,

"I will not say I can speak it as fluently as the others, although I un-and followed him to the music-room.

rosy fingers over the white keys.

bitter tears have their way.

He held out his hand to her, and

"My young friend, forgive me for Brownie gave him her hand, and

Brownie did as requested, and did

He then presented his card to her,

Brownie looked at the card.

"And now will you allow me

one more question?"

coming next,

To her intense relief, she found is question in French.

neans "at pleasure."

"And German ?"

ed his class, after they once understood A Successful Result. Mr. Bloomer, of Hamilton, Ont., suffered for many years with a painful An excellent plan, young lady. Now, running sore upon one of his legs, which Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of pur

Music for the Million.

The best made in Canada. Organs and Planos hired by the quarter. Organs and Planos sold on easy leases. questions; and now, if you care to humor an old man, will you come into Afrive to-day:

Still the old gentleman was so courte- FURNITURE. ALL KINDS. ous, and seemed so really interested in her, that she disliked to refuse him, and

LEMONT & SONS. bowing assent, she beckoned to Mattie, surprise.

INSURANCE AGENCY

"Yes," and he smiled at her ignorance.

"She became quite hopeful after this, for intense enjoyment of the sounds which her soul so loved to hear.

BEAVERS AND MELTONS,

Insurance Company of Montreal, and the Travellers Life and Accident and ere the second line was finished she broke down utterly, and bowing her are now prepared to accept risks on all class of insurable property at current rates.

WETMORE & WINSLOW, Barristers, &c.

KIDNEY-WORT THE SURE CURE KIDNEY DISEASES. LIVER COMPLAINTS, CONSTIPATION, PILES, AND BLOOD DISEASES.

"Kidney-Wert is the most successful remed.
I ever used." Dr. P. C. Ballou, Monkton, V
"Kidney-Wort is always reliable," Dr. R. N. Clark, So. Hero, Vt.
"Kidney-Wort has cured my wife after two year suffering." Dr. C. M. Summerlin, Sun Hill, Ge IN THOUSANDS OF CASES where all else had failed. It is mild, CERTAIN IN ITS ACTION, bu but efficient, CERTAIN IN 178 AUTION, out harmless in all cases.

EFIt eleanses the Blood and Strengthess and gives New Life to all the important organs of the body. The natural action of the Eddneys is restored. The Liver is cleansed of all disease, and the Bowels move freely and Restithfully. In this way the worst diseases are eradioated from the system.

SPRING 1884

NEW GOODS She bowed, wondering what was "I do not know what your circumstances may be," he said, with a little embarrassment, "but could you be per-

"Yes, sir, if I could feel satisfied that I was competent to fill the position Ladies' Dress Goods

-IN-Black Cashmeres and other Stuff Goods Fabrics, suitable for Spring wear, Prints, Silks, Satins

whatever nature, if honorable, that she Scarfs, Corgets, Gimps, Fringes, Laces, Friling, Hose, Gloves, Gossimers, Umbrellas, Parasols, and a genuine stock of "I am happy to hear it," returned the old man. "You ought to be a staple and Fancy Dry Goods

Silk and Linen Pocket Handkerchiefs. Underclothing and Furnishing Goods of every description at Lowest Cash Prices.

It bore the name of Wm. H. Alcott, ber Coats and Umbrellas.

Wondering what object Wm. H. REMNANTS. REMNANTS ladies."

They stopped and looked around.

An old gentleman was sitting just a garding her, she carefully put the little back of where Brownie had sat, and little back of where Brownie listener.

Wondering what bought in the view ra garding her, she carefully put the little bit of pasteboard in her pocket-book, Cottons, Tickinsk, Swansdownes, Hollands, Cottons, Tickinsk, Cottons, Tic

Sharkey's Block

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY

'84 Summer Arrangement '84

On and after MONDAY, June 2nd, the Trains of this Railway will run daily, (Sunday excepted) as follows: Trains will Leave St. John. Day Express ...

RAILWAY OFFICE, Moneton, N. B., May 28, 1881

All Trains are run by Eastern Standard time.

WINTER IMPORTATIONS, the sub-GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

UST Received direct from "Old England, Children's Boots and Slippers ORGANS and PIANOS! These goods are A l. and can be relied on

J. B. McAlpine,

Boots, Shoes & Rubbers NEXT ABOVE C. II. THOMAS & CO., Queen Street, Fredericton.

New Goods!

84 \[ FALL & WINTER \] 85

I have just received a specially se-lected stock of

In Plain and Fancy Colors. Pilots, Black and Blue Naps. Scotch Suitings, Worsted Coatings. West-of-England Trouserings.

And a Fine Selection of Canadian TWEEDS

MERCHANT TAILOR, Cor, Queen St. and Wilmot's Alley.

JAS. D. FOWLER'S Is the cheapest place in the city to buy

CEM RINGS, SIGNET RINCS SCARF PINS Elegant Gold suits of Jewellery, Fine Gold Necklets and Lackets, Rolled Plate Silver and Jet Jewellery. The finest stick in the city of SILVERWARE All new patterns, in Tea Setts, Pickle Jars, Cake Baskets, Card Receivers, Jewel Cases, Veilet Stands, etc.

Call and e / mine before purchasing elsewhere JAS. D. FOWLER,

Successor to John Babbitt, Opp. New Post Office, Queen Street, COFFEE

Do you wish for a Bich, Fragrant Cup of come? If so, use CHASE & SANBORN'S STANDARD JAVA! the best Coffee in the world, warranted strictly pure and of the finest quality grown

Ask your Grocer for it. At Wholesale only, by WHITTIER & HOOPER FREDERICTON, N. B.

Le Page's Liquid Glue. JUST RECEIVED Ing and cooking required. It can be used cold for Cabinet work and manufacturing purposes on fine grained wood. It is the best for lamily use and general repairing of furniture, Glass and China. Use Le Pages Giue, it resists water better than any other Gine, and will unite iron and wood. It is put up in 1, 2, 2 gal, pint and haif-pint tins, also in 1 and 2 ounce bottles.

For sale by

JAMES S. NEILL.

1000 bushels Oats Ely Perkins.

JAMES S. NEILL

ELY PERKINS. Varnish. Varnish. Varnish Just to hand from the Manufacturers ;

1000 BUSHELS OATS arriving for the people. Bring your bags with ('ASE Jamison's Rubbing Varnish; I case Crown & Auchor Rubbing Varnish; Gearing Varnish; Finishing Varnish; Wearing Body Varnish; Black Japan, Pure Bhellac; Pure White Lead in 12; lb. kegs, Z. R. EVERETT. JAS, G. McNALLY

Send for catalogue, Please examine before purchasing elsewhere. DUBLE and Single Barrel Guns, Breach Loading Guns, Powder, Shot, Caps Powder Flasks, Shot Bags. etc.

Fredericton, Oct. 1, 1884

Z. R. EVERETT.

Has been appointed Agent for the NEW ENGLAND ORGAN CO. First Class Instruments at very Low Prices.

J. C. RISTEEN & CO.

DOORS, SASHES, AND BLINDS

FURNITURE.

Moulding, Jig Sawing, Planing and Turning done to order. Dressed Clapboards, Flooring and Sheathing constantly on hand Corner Queen and Smythe Streets, Fredericton, N. B.

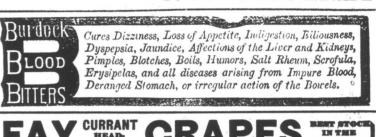

WE HAVE NOW ON HAND A FINE STOCK OF

NEW MUSIC STORE!

which we will sell at low prices and easy terms. CALL AND SEE THEM BEFORE PURCHASING, or write for PRICES

Organs from $60 upwards. We have been appointed agents for the celebrated Chickering & Sons, and the Hallett and Cumston, and an number of other makers of Pianos, which w will sell on easy terms. Call and try them at the store.

J. F. McMURRAY

SPRING AND SUMMER

If you will call up and look at the Show Cases, you can see for yourself that we turn out

CLOTHS, British and Canadian

Diagonals, BROAD CLOTHS.

TWEEDS.

DOESKINS, Etc. GENTLEMEN'S Wedding and Mourning Outfits A SPECIALTY

The Furnishing Department is the Largest in the City. JAS. R. HOWIE

QUEEN ST., FREDERICTON. FURNITURE

JACKSON ADAMS' County Court House Square. Now that the time has approached, it is neces-sary to have your HOUSE AND FURNITURE put in order for the coming season. WE HAVE FOR SALE Bedroom Setts, Bureaus, Sideboards, Desks, Tables, Lounges, Perforated, Cane and

o Measurement. UNDERTAKING. We have every facility for carrying on this branch of the business,

CASKETS & COFFINS

Wood Seat Chairs, etc.

We also Repair, Reupholster, and Repolish Furniture. Window Poles and Cornices made from the plainest to the most elaborate. Robes, Gloves, Crape & Hat Bands, JACKSON ADAMS County Court House Square. Fredericton, April 18, 1883 NEW GOODS

AT Reduced Prices JUST RECEIVED : 110 DOZ. Milk Pans; 25 doz. Preserve Jars; 25 doz. Preserve Jars; 95 doz. Rockingham Teapots; 50 doz. Cream Crocks; 100 Flower Pots; 5 "Cake Pitchers; 5 doz Bean Pots. Wholesale and Retail - Lower than St. John

JAS. G. McNALLY. Meakin's White Granite. 9 CRATES just received direct from the Pot-JAS. G. McNALLY. And Still they Come A NOTHER LOT of those handsomely deco-rated, Ivory Body Dinner, Tea and Toilet Setts, just received at

JAS. G. McNALLY. Just the thing you Want.

NEW CLOVER HONEY,
Very Fine—In 2lb Boxes.

W. H. YANWART.

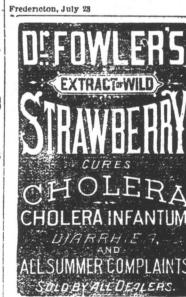

Send six cents for postage, and receive FREE, a costly box of either sex, to make more money right away than anything else in this world. Fortunes await the workers absolutely sure. At once address TRUE & Co., Auguste, Maine.

FITURES TAKEN.

Nothing but First - Class Work! We have taken great pains in choosing our cenery and Furniture, and having the lates mproved Instruments, we are now on a stand-ng equal to any Gallery in America. Call up and See for Youself.

J. HARVEY

Peoples' Bank, opp. City Hall.

GATES

IS A PURELY Vegetable Preparation, and is a sure and speedy reliever of all kinds Pain and Cramp. Pain and Cramp.

It is certain to check DIARRHCEA and DYSENTRY almost instantly, as well as CHOLERA, CHOLERA MORBUN, and all other kinds of violent pain. No family should fail to have a supply of this in the house, as it may save life before a physician can be called, beside saving a great amount of suffering.

It is the best preparation for children known, being very pleasant to the taste, speedy and safe in its effects. Should diet for a short time after relief is obtained. Try One Bottle. Sold by druggists and dealers generally at 25 cents per bottle. Manufactured by C. Gates Son & Co., Middleton, N. S.

July 23, 1884,

See Certificate next month,

LUMPHREYS OMEOPATHIS ARY VETESPECIFICS FOR THE CIRE OF ALL DISEASES OF HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, DOGS, HOGS, and POULTRY, and POULTRY, FOR TWENTY YEARS Humphreys' Homeopathic Veterinary Specifics have been used by farmers, Stock Breeders, Livery Stable and Turfmen, Horso Railroads, Manufacturers, Coal Mine Companies, Trav'g Hippodromes
and Menageries, and others handling stock, with perfect success.
Humphreys' Veterinary Manual, (330 pp.)
sent free by mail on receipt of price, 50 centa. HUMPHREYS HOMEOPATHIC MED. CO. 109 Fulton Street, New York. HUMPHREY OF VITAL Weakness and ProsHUMPHREY OF VITAL Weakness and Prosmidiscretion, HOMEOPATHIC is radically and promptly Homeopathic used by it.
Been in use 20 years, SPECIFIC NO. 28.
—is the most successful remedy known. Price 81 per vial, or 5 vials and large vial of powder for 8°, sent post-cree on recells of price. Haumphreys' Homeo. Vied, 50.
Hums, Catalogue free, 100 Sulton on 8.

FREDERICTON MONUMENTAL WORK Queen wist above Reform Club Kooms. THE Subscriber begs to inform the Public tha he is prepared to execute all sorts of PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL MONUMENTS, TABLETS, FENCE STONES & POSTS.

JOHN MOORE

... 11.00 a. m

Express for Sussex. Express for Halifax & Quebec, 10.15 p. m. A Pullman Car runs daily on the 10.15 p. m. Train to Halifax. On TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, a Pullman Car for Montreal will be attached to the Quebec Express, and on Monday, Wednes-DAY and FRIDAY, a Pullman Car will be attach-Trains will arrive in St. John. Exp'ss from Halifax & Quebec, 5.30 p. m. 12.45 p, m.

BARGAINS!

THE BALANCE OF HIS SUMMER STOCK OF CLOTHING, &c. · J. B. McALPINE.

short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall street, New York. J. B. MCALPINE.

4 Caeinet Organs for Houses and for Churches on hand. THE DOHERTY ORGAN. first-class square Piano on hand, for sal

24 Cases and Pokgs. Glassware, &c. A rice assortment of Children's Carriages.

NHW

Fredericton, July 90, 1884 Gold and Silver Watches

PHYSICIANS ENDORSE IT HEARTILY.

Dry can be sent by mail.
WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO. Burlington V KIDNEY-WORT

A great variety in Scarfs, Ties, after which he lifted his hat, and bowed DAILY EXPECTED Worsted Coatings, Canadian and Scotch Tweeds and other Suitings in great variety. choice Patterns and good value. Also, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Travelling Bags, Rub-