onnon, June 1.—Parliament is again in ion after its Whitsuntide holiday, but othing exciting is expected before next week.
dr. Gladstone remains at Hawarden until denday, Most members of the House of commons are back in London, but racing and coinl attractions, not political business, are meeting will be held before Saturday, when the ministers will have to make up their minds what to do about the licensing clauses in the Local Government Bill. They cannot abandon them, and they cannot afford many Southamptons. Another election is near. Mr. Campbell's (Craigie) death makes a vacancy in the Aytchire burghs, where, at the last election, the Liberal-Unionist majority was nearly 1200. The Gladstonians think it not impossible to win this seat, and are going to try. No Unionist candidate can be found who has so many elements of personal strength as Mr. Campbell had.

Campbell had.

Satisfied Puractities.

London, June 1.—The resolutions adopted by the Irish Cathelic prelates tonching the Pope's edict, appear to satisfy the Nationalist gans. The leading Parnellite paper sums them up as a blessing on the Irish people and the National movement. The only Tory comment on them yet published here says that the resolutions will give more gratification to the members of the League than to its opponents. Rome is thought to have taken alarm at the passionate protests heard in Ireland against the papar resorrip. Not a word of the resoript is withdrawn. The bishops themselves affirm its authority, but they side with the league in denying its political effect.

The Gerner Stone of Their Rosse and Hos-pital Laid Yesterday.

In grand June weather, and with High Church ceremonial, the foundation atone of the House and Rospital of the Sisters of S. John the Divine was haid on Major-street in the presence of a large concourse of spectators, the majority of whom were ladies.

The World has already described the philanthropic work of the Sisterhood for the last.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

three years in their circumscribed premises, Euclid-avenue, and the steps which led to the rection of the new Home and Hospital.

Briefly stated, this will be a red brick build-erection of the new Home and Hospital. Briefly stated, this will be a red brick building with stone basement. It will be 53 feat in height, 135 feet long, 82 feet wide. There is a west wing, and there will be ample exercise ground. The building will contain 60 rooms, including sealence, cells (as the sixter' dermitolies are formed), surgeone operating room, diapeneary, room for destitute women, mission-room, chapel, offices, etc. The total cost, exclusive of furnishing, will be $25,000. The chief contractors are John Stroud, brick and stone work; W. Park, carpenters work arrived a lofty burnished brass cross; and the procession of choristers, clergy and bishop, of Toronto and the Bishop of Ningara, before whom was carried the crozier or bishop's staff. The processional hyam, to the tune Aurelia, was "The Church's One Foundation." Then came chanting and special prayers.

Rev. Dr. Muckridge, rector of Christ Church calledral, Hamilton, read a quainy and somewhat unique statement on parchment, which had been amberibed by hishops, clergy, sisters, trustees, building committee and medical staff. It was summonnted with a large cross, and was a follows:

"In the oame of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Gloost. Amen. In the perpetual reign of our Lord Jesus Christ, on this 1st day of June in the year of His Nativity, 1888, being the 51st of the happy reign of our most gracious Majesty. Soversign lady, Queen Victoria, being the fourth year of the foundation of the Sisterhood of S. John the Divine, of which the Right Reverend Arthur Sweatman, D.C.L., the Lord Bishop of the diocesse is visitor; Rev. Ogden Pulleney Ford, M.A., warden; Hannah the first Mother Superior, Heien and Mangaret the first professed Sistera, Aimee, Sophia, Sarah, Mery, Alice and Eleanor novices, Mary and Kate postulanter, this corner-stone of the Holy Brits shall be the abode of true religion and an instrument powerful an

the Huly Gospel of the Blessed Saviour.

Amen."

With the usual formalities and outstomary prayers Bishop Sweatman well and truly laid the stone. In a cavity underneath were placed the Bishop of Toronto's sermon on Sisterhoods," church and school calendars, Toronto's papers and current come. The trowel used in the laying of the stone was the one presented to Rev. John Grier, rector of Belleville and father of the Mother Superior, at a similar ceremony 24 years ago.

Then came addresses, brief yes carnest, by the Bishops, Rev. Dr. Mockridge and Dr. Temple of the medical staff. They eulogized the sisters' devotion and work, spoke of the unsectarian nature of the institution, save particulars of great benefits received by means of this the only housital for diseases of women in Toronto and anticipated great and glorious results.

From The New York World.

It is a question of interest to women and many men as to what the cost of the summer campaign will probably be, and the many men will doubtless be greeved to learn that the cost this season is to be greater than ever. Indeed, the modistes say that women who have heretofore filled their Saratogas for the summer months at the cost of $600 or $700 are going up to $1000 and $14000 customers are increasing their expenditures in like proportion. There are besides these a very great many women in New York who will distribute from $3000 to $5000 sthong dressmakers, milhiers, bott and glovenakers and the triblet abobe before they are ready for the summer outsing—these are the wives of men two or three times unllionaires. There are from sixty to eighty women in this city who can afford to and do spend $8000 to $10,000 ur clothes during the season, and four of five who can so up to $20,000. It is easy to see where all this vais sum of money goes when one learns that wealthy women think nothing of giving $100 fer a cotton freek when deed, the modistes say that women who have to see where all this vast som of money goes when one learns that wealthy women think nothing of giving $100 fer a coston frock when made by the best dressinakers and $250 is thought no very extravagant price for a single costume. Among these multitudinous toilets there are sure to be at least three gray ones, three green and three white, since these are the tavorite colors of the season, and each and every one will be in some way embroidered, braided or beaded with gold, silver or steel. And among the list of necessary gowns will be tea sowns, two or three at least; four or five ball dresses, the same number of dinner gowns, two yachting or beach dresses, two tennis costumes, a bathing suit, a riding habit, pretty cotton and foulard morning gowns, two at least from the tailor, and jackets, wraps, hats for every dress, gloves by the dozen and nearly as many shoes, with parasols in equal number.

No time like the present for seeking medicinal aid when what are footbally called "minor ailmenta" manifest themselves. There are, so "minor" ailmenta. Every symptom is the heraid of a disease very is perform a state of health should be remedied none, or disastrous consequences are likely to follow. Individual dyspensis, slight continents and another to beliguissess about be promptly counteracted with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and great blood purifier, and the system thus shielded from worse consequences.

Coat Talls In Greece. The rich old costumes are coming, or have come, to be regarded as ridiculous by the ers, and are only put on to please a stranger or by way of a joke. In another generation or two the curious traveler will be anable to find them. Those that have gold reason. anable to find them. Those that have gold and lace upon them will be bought up by Jew dealers, who have been for years scouring the Ægean like the dorsairs of old. The rest will be toen up or thrown away. It is just the same thing in Pelopouneus. The men who are the great dandies all through Greece still don their Aibanian coatumes in Sparta and Megalopolis, if they have not seen the world. But among the rich scarlet and white of this splendid dress you see the really fashionable man, the M.P. or local magnate, in a black dress coat and chimney-pot hat, perhaps with a gray plaid wrapped about his shoulders. And this hideously-dressed person is locked up to as the glass of fashionby the people around him, whose national dress gives them that dignity of mien and of manners which always accompanies a rich costume. So it is with the women are the costume. So it is with the women and of manners which always accompanies a rich costume. So it is with the women dressed on holidays in colors and coins quaint and beautiful to behold. In Pelopouneaus gaudy arsentic green mageatta, and purules of the most subscent successions con the are worn in librards. and beautiful to behold. In Pelopoinesus gaudy arsenic green, magenta, and purishe of the most sinceous line, are worn in ill-made dresses copied from the Bavarian Court taste of 20 years ago. To see such people on a Greek saland in the midst of Mediterranean time dancing a national dance with its curious apiral form is like seeing a beautiful engraving daulted over with water colors by an experimenting child.
