Until the skating season shall have closed a man's bumps has nothing to do with phenology.

A friend—if you love her, old fellow, why don't you marry her? Bachelor doctor—Marry her? Why, she is one of my best patients.—Lila.

"My furnace," said one man who keeps house, "is out of sight. 'So is mine," replied another, "out of anthracite."—Washington Star.

"Thank the Lord," said the farmer, "cotton's gone up last." "You don't say!" "Yes; yonder goes ten bales in a cyclone."—Atlanta Constitution.

Humorous editor—You have carried this joke a little too far. Sad humorist—Yes, sir; that is why I wish to leave it with you.—Boston Courier.

"She—Indeed, sir, I haven't reached the matrimonial plain—counterfeit her. You would be a bargain, my dear, on any counter.—Harper's Bazar.

"He—There is only a half hour until train time and your trunk isn't half packed. She—Don't worry, dear; I have my bonnet on.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

New Boarder—What's the row upstairs? Landlady—It's that professor of hypnotism trying to get his wife's permission to go out this evening.—The Bits.
