LATEST PROM BAGEAND. " The lorer." The lorees are marshalled on either side, and the subject is to be the appropriation of Church Revenue in Ireland.—
The liberals are content to pay the Clergy amply, to support ministers of the established Church, wherever they are either required or can be useful, but after providing in every respect for the security and extension of the Established Church they purpose appropriation to the state any surplus that may remain. There will be a surplus, say to the uses of the state any surplus that this standable undertaking, are respectfully invited that the standable undertaking that the standable undertaking the standab
