ENTERTAINMENT AT BURNBRAE

Very Enjoyable and Largely Attended --- Social and Personal Notes.

Tuesday evening's entertainment at Burnbrae given under the auspices of the Church Aid was one of the very best given here. The well lighted and attractively decorated staging, together with the many Japanese lanterns on the grounds secured to give an ideal setting for so first class a programme. The note of life and enthusiasm sounded at the start by the Middleton Syncoated Orchestra was maintained throughout their frequent selections. The Paradise Male Quartette has seldom sung better while the beautiful high soprano of Miss Agnes Jackson was clearly revealed in a Quintette sung by her and the Male Quartette. Solos were sung by Mr. William Doyal who never failed to please his audience and by Mrs. William Beard (nee Miss Marion Bishop) whose many friends are delighted to see her home again. A reading was given by Miss Evelyn Lonsley portraying a little girl's conception of story-book writing and a Japanese dialogue entitled "Her Father's Will" was presented in two very attractive scenes by Mrs. E. G. Morse, Miss Alice Longley, Mr. Lewelyn Bowly, Mr. Anthony Banks and Mr. Robert Longley. The most humorous feature and probably the best acting of the evening was done by Mr. E. G. Morse who in one of his presentations was accompanied by a big brown bear. The said Mr. Morse proved himself to be both a good singer and a somewhat fearful orator and to have a terrible fear of bears, much to the amusement of his audience. In spite of slight showers there were a large number in attendance. Much credit is due Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Morse for making possible an evening's entertainment which was so thoroughly appreciated.
Mr. S. S. Ruggles and family, of Halifax, and Rev. H. H. Phinney, of Arcadia, Yarmouth Co., have been recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phinney.
A dozen ladies of the Women's Missionary Society, accompanied by half as many men went to Dalhousie West on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 29th, where they held a meeting. This is the third year in succession that some of the ladies of the Paradise Missionary Society have met sometime during the month of August with the Dalhousie friends. Had more cars been available a larger number from here would have gone, as those who once have the privilege always want to go a second time and those who haven't had the privilege want to go to see why the others are so enthusiastic about the Dalhousie yearly trip. Perhaps it is only fair to our mountain friends to tell them in this way how thoroughly we appreciate the welcome they give us and the matchless spirit of hospitality with which they entertain us.
Miss Francis Lewis, Principal of the Lawrencetown School, was a week end guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Morse.
Miss Janet Boss, teacher of the Primary Dept., arrived in Paradise on August 25th and will make her home with Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson.
Rev. J. A. Sweetman, of Waterloo St. Baptist, St. John, accompanied by Mr. Daniel Charlton, of North Williamston, visited at the parsonage on August 27th.
Rev. W. H. Robinson is visiting his son in Sackville, N. B.

WEST PARADISE

West Paradise Sunday School had a jolly time last Friday on their annual picnic at Hampton where the day was spent in boating, bathing, field sports and all the usual accompaniments of an enjoyable picnic.
The "D" candidates from West Paradise school, Eugenio Daniels and Raymond Abbott, passed their examinations successfully, the results reflecting credit on their teacher, Miss Evelyn Beattie.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hines, of Lynn, Mass., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Saunders, left for their home Monday in their car.
Mr. and Mrs. Merris Vidler, of Nictaux, and their daughter, Mrs. B. Horne, and her son, George, of Andover, Mass., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Saunders.

ADDRESSES BY CANON TROOP

These Will Commence on Sunday Evening Next and Continue Through Week

Last week, by a typographical error, we announced a week of special services to be held in St. James' Church, Bridgetown, and to be conducted by the Rev. Canon Osborne Morse. For "Morse" we should have printed "TROOP". Probably most of our readers surmised this. They will remember the wonderfully inspirational course of addresses delivered by Canon Troop two years ago in St. James' Church, also the remarkable sermon preached by him on the occasion of Bridgetown's centennial celebration last year.
These services will commence in St. James' Church, next Sunday evening, and continue through next week, Saturday evening excepted, the Sunday evening service commencing at the usual hour, 7:30, and the week evening at 8 o'clock.
We append the list of subjects on which the Canon will speak:
Sunday, Sept. 2nd:
The Problem of Revelation: Has God definitely spoken to men? 7:30 p.m.
Week day addresses at 8 p.m.
Monday, 3rd:
The Problem of the People of Israel: What is their Future?
Tuesday 4th:
The Problem of the Church: Has it failed?
Wednesday, 5th:

Thursday, 6th:
The Problem of the Second Advent: How shall we meet the coming and the judgment?
Friday, 7th:
The Problem of Love: Is it true that Love Never Faleth?
Sunday, Sept. 9th:
11 a.m.—The Problem of Selfishness: Can it be overcome?
7:30 p.m.—The Problem of the New Creation: Is it reality, or a mere dream?
In addition to the above, Canon Troop will also give a series of "Bible readings in St. James' Church school room on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons, commencing at 4 o'clock.
All these services and meetings our readers are cordially invited to attend and especially those who remember the preacher as an old Bridgetown boy.

V. O. N. AMONG THE NEEDS

Proposal to Unite With Annapolis To Secure Services of Nurse.

Pictures relating to the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses were shown Thursday night at the Primrose Theatre by Miss N. Boswell, Inspector Victorian Order of Nurses.
Mrs. H. S. Magee, President of the Women's Institute, presided.
Lantern slides were first presented, giving the national viewpoint and what nursing service means to the country to varying conditions. The moving picture entitled "Nursing our Neighbors" is a three reel film with setting by the Victorian Order District of Ottawa, and demonstrates the various activities as carried on by the field where the nurse co-operating with the doctor acts in her dual capacity as nurse and teacher.
The film shows the nature of the organization, its various chief officials and gives valuable information regarding the work done annually and method of procedure, technical and administrative, this film is arranged so as to appeal alike, with interest, to lay and technical minds as all the scenes are natural and true to life in the district.
Such a nursing service is very necessary for Bridgetown, but the financial responsibility appearing somewhat heavy for a town with our small population, the question of combining with Annapolis was discussed, the majority evidently being in favor of such a plan.
The whole subject will be brought up later by the different agencies in town and discuss with the Town Council and a decision in conformity with the wishes of the majority of the citizens will probably be reached at a future date.

DR. L. L. CROWE COMMENCES PRACTICE

Dr. L. L. Crowe, a Bridgetown boy, who has had a most distinguished scholastic career has taken up the practice of medicine in his own town and is meeting with a splendid reception thus disproving the old saw a prophet is not without honor save in his own country.
Dr. Crowe completed his course at the Bridgetown High School in 1916 and entered Acadia in 1917 in the Arts Course. In May, 1919, he joined the Royal Air Force and after the conclusion of hostilities returned to Acadia early in 1919 when he completed two years in the Arts course.
In the Fall of 1919 he left for Toronto, entering the University there in the Medical course. The first year he did two years work in one and for his previous record at Acadia another year was remitted. Thus he graduated in medicine 1923 with the degree of M.B. in two years under the usual time taken.
The Summer of 1921 he spent in Toronto General Hospital and the Summer of 1922 practiced in Northern Ontario. He has passed the Ontario Medical Council, the General Medical Council of Great Britain and the Nova Scotia Medical Council and is thus registered as a physician and surgeon at all points under the scope and territory of influence of these various Boards. He therefore comes to the work splendidly equipped.

Sweets to the sweet.

A thousand people are employed in making candy. Chocolates, Confectionery, Cake, Snowflakes in Summer? That's the favorite time for them: when they're Molli's Snowflake Pilot Biscuits.

The Hindus were the first to use sugar in making candy. Sugar was unknown in Europe before the 11th and 12th centuries.
