

for. But as we apprehend that the nation is now on the verge of peace, we conceive no time more proper can ever present itself for the fixing of such an establishment than the present, and we are sure that the influence of such an establishment will never be more useful than now, when so large an accession of inhabitants is to be made to that Province.

We have the honor to be your Excellency's most obedient, humble servants,

CHARLES INGLIS,
SAMUEL SEABURY, &c., &c.,

To His Excellency Sir Guy Carleton, &c., &c.,

New York, March 26th, 1783.

Sir:

As we are very sensible that much will depend on good temper, prudence and ability of the gentleman who shall be appointed the Bishop of Nova Scotia, we take the liberty to recommend to your Excellency's notice the Reverend Doctor Thomas Bradbury Chandler, now in London. This gentleman is an American, and resided in America till compelled by the present commotions to take refuge in England. He is well known and much respected through the continent, and is well qualified to fill any bishoprick with dignity and honour.

We have the honour to be,

Your Excellency's most obedient humble servants,

CHARLES INGLIS,
SAMUEL SEABURY, &c.,

To His Excellency Sir Guy Carleton, &c.,

Whitehall, June 15th, 1783.

Right Honble. Lord North,

To General Sir Guy Carleton, K. B.

(Extract)

"The King's servants have taken into their consideration the letter from the clergy of the church now at New York, and their plan for an Episcopate to be established in the Province of Nova Scotia, contained in your despatch No. 65. But before they finally decide on that measure, it is very desirable that they should be informed of the
