

THE INDEPENDENT FORESTER.

Ireland.

From the Green Isle, the land of castles, poets and wib, we hear, to our ears, but rarely.

For January good work was done. All applications were accepted.

We have received a very beautiful card, informing us of the Annual Social Meeting of the High Court of the North of Ireland, on March 31st. The function will be held in Exhibition Hall, Botanic Gardens. The Lord Mayor of Belfast will preside. Wouldn't we like to attend!

Scotland.

Sure, if slow; not always slow.

Bro. Rev. R. McNair, P.E.C.R., is working away, displaying that quality dear to the Scottish heart, perseverance, untiring and unswerving.

A good dozen members are expected as the result of the splendid concert given by Court Phoenix.

Bro. McNair reports three courts as well under way. Now that the great strike is over it is expected that it will be easier to do business.

Acknowledgments.
