JAPAN WORK.

From Mrs. Large.

TOKYO, September, 1891.

Having been here but a few weeks, I have not yet gotten hold of all the threads of the work, as I had before leaving for home last year; but one thing I have taken hold of is, the amount of fruit-gathering there has been during the year. Your agents have been able to see the results of their labors in so many ways; our girls engaged in Christian work with them, others in their homes leading the others to the Saviour.
