JOHN YOUNG,

Upper Canada Tract Society, - 102 Yonge St., Toronto.

THE WORKS OF THE LATE SIR DANIEL WILSON,

LL.D., F.R.S.E.

Memorials of Edinburgh in the Olden Time.

A new edition with extensive alterations, and with fresh illustrations from the author's drawings. Two vols., 4to cloth, uncut edges, gilt top, $10.

Reminiscences of Old Edinburgh.

Two vols., post 8vo., cloth, $5.

Left-Handedness.

The last production of the brilliant writer whose loss Canada is now mourning. It includes data originally accumulated in a series of papers communicated to the Canadian Institute and the Royal Society of Canada aiming at determining the cause of left-handedness in its archaeological, philological, and physiological aspects. Cr. 8vo., cloth, $1.50.

Prehistoric Man.

Researches into the origin of civilization in the old and new world. 2 vols., with illustrations, 3rd edition, med. 8vo., cloth, $9. The third and greatly enlarged edition of this most important and scholarly work. The illustrations number over two hundred.

Prehistoric Annals of Scotland.

Two vols., with plates, med. 8vo., 2nd edition, cloth, $9. This edition has been entirely remodelled, fully a third of it has been rewritten, and the remaining portions have undergone so minute a revision as to render it in many respects a new book.

Caliban.

A critique on Shakespeare's "Tempest" and "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Cloth, $2.50. "A choice contribution at once to Science, Theology, Religion and Literature."—British Quarterly Review.

Chatterton.

A biographical study. Cloth, $2. "Professor Wilson has produced the most complete, and, in our opinion, the fairest biography of Chatterton which has yet appeared."—London Examiner.
