

Closing Day.

AFTERNOON.

THE session of '85-6 closed on Wednesday, April 7th. The examinations were all over on the Saturday previous, and, as in past years, a number of students left the city on that day by the first train. A few of these returned before Closing Day and, with the rest, seemed anxious about "the results." But there was a glorious uncertainty about these results. The examiners were not very communicative. They seemed sworn to secrecy this year. "Mum's the word" for an examiner.

At three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Convocation Hall was filled by the graduates and friends of the college. Rev. Principal Caven presided, but, owing to a severe cold which prevented him speaking above a whisper, he was unable to take his accustomed part in the exercises of the day. On the platform with Dr. Caven, were seated :—Rev. Professors Gregg and McLaren, Dr. Daniel Wilson, of University College; Rev. Principal Sheraton, of Wycliffe College; Rev. Dr. Reid, Rev. Dr. Proudfoot, London; Rev. Dr. Laing, Dundas; Rev. Drs. Torrance and Wardrope, Guelph; Rev. Dr. Beattie, Brantford; Rev. E. D. M'Laren, Brampton; and Messrs. W. Mortimer Clark and Thomas Kirkland. The proceedings were opened by the singing of a psalm, the reading of a Scripture lesson by Rev. Dr. Gregg, and prayer by Rev. Dr. Sheraton.

Rev. Dr. Gregg, after expressing thankfulness for the unusual exemption from sickness with which the professors and students have been blessed during the session, and having referred to several other college matters, read the following report of the Board of Examiners :—
