PARISH NOTES.

Mr. Leonard McMurray has kindly presented the Church with a rubber mat which has been placed by the west door.

Bon voyage to Miss Maud Cayley, Mr. Christopher Robinson, K. C. and family, Mrs.

Cameron, Mrs. Kenrick and Mr. Frank Kenrick, who leave this week for England.

The young people of the St. Agatha's Guild propose to give an entertainment in the school-house on Friday evening, May 15th, in the form of a Concert and Operetta, under the direction of Miss Cayley and Miss Dye. It is hoped that the performance will be largely patronised, as very great pains have been taken and no small expense incurred in order to make it in every way worthy of the Guild. There will be a small charge for admittance, the proceeds to be devoted, after the expenses are paid, to the objects of the Guild.

The Glee Club still continues its weekly practices on Tuesday evenings under the direction of Mr. Phillips, and has fully justified its inception. At the same time it is felt that the music selected should have drawn to the practices more members of the congregation who are desirous of cultivating the art of singing. It is hoped that the next session, which will commence in October next, will begin its work with greatly increased numbers, men's voices specially are needed.

Some kind friend continues to put 50 cents each Sunday in an unnumbered envelope. Will our friend please put the name on the envelope for the information of the churchwardens.

On Sunday, April 26th, the Rev. Prof. Plumtre, of Wycliffe, preached us a most excellent sermon. The Rev. W. B. Heeney, of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, preaches for us on Sunday morning, May 3rd.

Mrs. McMurray, treasurer of St. George's W. A., reports $40.00 from this Branch for the E. M. Williamson Memorial, of which Mrs. Nash collected ten dollars from friends.
