THE DONATION VISIT.

The mental vision of the brother was a little clearer on, at least, one subject, after hearing this declaration. He went away rather more thoughtful than when he came. There was no donation party that year; but, in its stead, a donation visit was planned, and Mr Edwards duly notified of the time when it was to take place.

On Saturday, the twentieth of October, the day appointed for this interesting event, the minister's little household was in a state of restless anticipation, pleasant or unpleasant, according to the particular temperament of the individual. Mrs. Edwards, who, probably, felt the exhaustion of all things temporal more severely than her husband, could not help letting her imagination picture, at least, some things more particularly needed than others. There was a new bonnet for herself. No doubt some of the kind sisters had noticed how rusty and defaced hers had become, and would supply the need.

"I hope they will not bring two bonnets," she said, to herself, as she mused on the subject. It was settled in her mind that one would come. The trouble was, lest two of the church members should decide upon the same article—a thing that seemed to her quite natural, as all must have observed how greatly she stood in need of a new bonnet. Then there were clothes for the children. Her two boys must have each a couple of winter suits. So plain a want as this, any one could see.

"I'm sure," she said, to her husband, "that Mr Jenkins, who owns the factory, will bring us some of his nice satinets, to make jackets and trowsers for the boys."

"Can't tell anything about it," replied Mr Edwards, to whose mind anticipation brought a feeling of disturbance and humiliation.

"Well, I'm sure he'll do so. Wouldn't it be natural for him, above all others, to think of a few yards of satinet? And he wouldn't feel it at all; for he's got hundreds of pieces."

Mr Edwards made no reply; but it did seem to him, now that his wife had suggested it, that it would be quite natural for Mr Jenkins to remember the boys in a present of cloth for a suit of clothes. The thought acted as a relief to his mind; for the boys had looked rather shabby for some time, and the way by which new clothing was to come, had not seemed at all plain before his eyes.

A Case of Chronic Rheumatism of fifteen years standing, cured by Halford's Balsam and Hope's Pills. Toronto, 14th Dec., 1848.

DR. URQUHART: Dear Sir—I hereby certify that I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for fifteen years; for a considerable time I was confined to bed, and the greater part of that time I could not move myself; some of my joints were completely dislocated, my knees were stiff, and all my joints very much swelled; for the last three years, I was scarcely able to do three months' work without suffering the most excruciating pains. I was doctored in Europe, by several physicians of the highest standing in the profession, as well as in this province. I was also five months in the Toronto Hospital, and notwithstanding all the means used, I could not get rid of my complaint; indeed I was told by a very respectable physician that I never could be cured, so that at the time my attention was directed to your SIR HENRY HALFORD'S IMPERIAL BALSAM for the cure of Rheumatism and Rheumatic Gout—and Dr. HOPE'S PILLS, I was despairing of ever getting cured; when I called on you I was hardly able to walk, and what was almost miraculous, in three weeks from my commencing to take your medicine, I gained fourteen pounds in weight; my health was much improved, and in about three weeks more my Rheumatism was completely gone and my health perfectly restored. I now enjoy as good health as any man in Canada. Since my recovery I have walked forty-six miles in one day, with perfect freedom, and I assure you, Sir, that I feel truly thankful. You can make any use of this you please; my case is known to several individuals of respectability in this city, their names you know, and can refer to them, if necessary.
Yours, truly and gratefully,
THOMAS WRIGHT,

Parties referred to—William Gooderham, William Osborne, and Samuel Shaw, Esqs.

DR. JAMES HOPE'S PURIFYING HEALTH PILLS.

A SUPERIOR Family Medicine, and a thorough purifier of the blood. It requires no long certificates, it recommends itself. For the cure of Bilious attacks, Sick-headache, Indigestion, and the whole train of symptoms arising from a weak and disordered stomach, with vitiated bilious secretions, these Pills are pre-eminently successful; and for the cure of Constiveness, either habitual or temporary, they are certainly unequalled, and for elderly, as well as for young persons, they are a most desirable medicine because they act thoroughly, yet mildly, without griping, sickening sensation, or prostrating the strength.

The Pills are warranted to contain no calomel, or any mineral, or any other deleterious ingredients. For Sale by Butler & Son, Cheapside, London, and at S. F. URQUHART'S Eclectic Institute, 69, Yonge-street, Toronto. Sole Wholesale Agent in British America.
