Mercantile Summary.

— The fire insurance companies in New York are writing three-year policies on furniture in brick rows, at 35 cents. It will take a good many such risks to pay a $5,000 loss.

— It is reported that hay is selling up the Kippewa for $45 or $50 per ton. On the Mattawa, $25 per ton is offered. Potatoes are selling at the Kippewa at $1.25 per bushel.

— A gentleman of Moncton has been awarded the contract for the construction of the Railway from Broad Cove to Wyecoomah, which will be proceeded with immediately after the survey recently begun has been completed.

— A telegram from Calcutta says 120,000 persons perished during the cyclone which passed through Eastern Bengal on the 31st of October. — Still nothing definite with regard to the result of the elections.

— Mr. S. Carsley, of this city, dry goods merchant, has sent legal notice to the two leading mercantile agencies of John McKillop & Co., and Dun, Wiman & Co., cautioning them against the insertion of his name in future issues of their reference books.

— In October, the private deposits in the Bank of England reached a total of over £30,000,000; the largest sum ever held by the Bank previously was £27,956,000 in July, 1871, during the Franco-German war.

— There were 12,747,000 kegs of nails manufactured in the United States in 1875. — The passenger business of the American steamship line during the last three months has increased more than one-hundred per cent. over the same period of last year.

— Notice has been served upon steamboat owners and canal men that the water will be let off the Lachine Canal on the 4th of December, whether it is frozen or not, as the contractors want to complete work they cannot do while water is in it.

— The Plains of Abraham have been leased to a private association composed of the leading citizens of Quebec, whose intention is to lay out the grounds as a driving park, plant trees and otherwise embellish it, so that it may eventually become the public park of the city.
