

NEW BOOKS.

ELISE'S AUNTIE, or Bearing One Another's Burdens.—The Religious Tract Society, and S. R. Briggs, Toronto. Cloth, 90c.

This is one of the most attractive stories that we have read for many a day: illustrative of a loving, useful, Christ-like life; and written in a style that, though intended primarily for the young, makes the book one which the older members of the family or school will read with interest and pleasure. It is wholly free from the love-sick nonsense so common in story books, and does not close in the orthodox style with the marriage of the heroine, but leaves her still single, and wholly engaged in the good and loving work of helping others. We say of this book—as of others lately referred to—that it is such an one as may well be secured for Sunday-school libraries.

ABUNDANT GRACE.—Rev. W. P. Mackay. 2nd edition. Paper, 50c.

THE TRINITY OF EVIL.—Rev. Canon Wilberforce. Cloth, 50c.; paper, 30c.

These books have already received notice from us. They are now issued by S. R. Briggs, the well-known publisher of Toronto, in cheaper form; and certainly in bringing that secondly mentioned, "The Trinity of Evil," thus within the reach of everyone, he has done a real service to the cause of Truth in its conflict with evil. Every clergyman and every layman should read these articles by Canon Wilberforce on Infidelity, Impurity and Intemperance.

POEMS, DEVOTIONAL AND MISCELLANEOUS, by Rev. J. A. Richey, Rector, Seaford, N.S. Paper, stiff covers, 50c., post-paid.

This is a new issue of Mr. Richey's poems, with addenda. When they first appeared, some years ago, they received general and well-deserved commendation from Church and denominational papers alike. The author evidently possesses in no limited degree the true poet's power.

CHRISTIAN COMMUNISM.—By Rev. W. H. NEILSON, D.D. T. Whittaker, Bible House, New York. Paper, 10c.

The re-publication of this excellent sermon, explanatory of the Christian theory of Liberty, Equality and Fraternity, is most timely.

HOLY COMMUNION; a Consideration of the Subject.—By Rev. W. J. MILLER, M.A. T. Whittaker, Bible House, New York. Paper, 3c.

A very useful tract for parochial distribution.

THE CHURCH REVIEW.—Houghton, Mifflin & Co., New York and Boston. $4 per annum; 35c. each.

We notice from the July number of this admirable magazine that from this date it will be issued again monthly, and not quarterly only, as lately, and that the well-known house of Houghton, Mifflin & Co. assume the publication of it. The July number contains an able article on Marriage; the Table of Kindred and Affinity, by Rev. Geo. W. Dean, S.T.D., written in view of the impending legislation in the coming General Convention, and taking strong ground in support of the position of the Church of England on this question. The leading article is on the "Labor Question," and is from the pen of that deep thinker of the American Episcopate, Bishop Huntington.

THE ENGLISH PULPIT OF TO-DAY. A. E. Rose, Publisher, Westfield, N.Y. Yearly subscription, $1.50; clergymen, $1. Single number, 15c.

The July number contains the late Hugh Stowell Brown's last discourse, and sermons by Archdeacon Farrar, R. W. Dale, Alex. McLaren, Dr. Joseph Parker, Dr. Culross and Mr. Spurgeon. The Sermonic Framework is by Rev. Stephen Gladstone, son of the "Grand Old Man."

THE THEOLOGICAL AND HOMILETIC MAGAZINE.—S. R. Briggs, Toronto. $2.50 per annum; $1.50 per half-year; 30c. each.

The July number contains an extra good supply of mental food. There is an article by Canon Rawlinson, "What is the relation of Non-Christian Systems to Biblical Theology;" another by the Dean of Canterbury on "The Righteous Retribution;" another on "Union with Christ," by Rev. J. J. Lias; and the Rev. F. M. Houslin continues his notes on the Christian year up to the Fifth Sunday in Trinity, inclusive.

THE CHILD'S PICTORIAL: A monthly colored magazine. The S. P. C. K., London, Eng. 2d.

This is one of the prettiest of the children's monthlies; and, besides being prettily illustrated, contains in simple form real solid instruction. The opening story in this number, for instance, contains information as to "Sea Urchins."

DON'T MARRY.—J. S. Ogilvie & Co., Publishers, 31 Rose st., N.Y.

We have received a book from the above publishers, entitled "Don't Marry," which contains some practical advice in reference to this most important of all subjects. Some marry too soon, others wait too long. This book attempts to tell how, when, and whom to marry; besides giving hints and helps not without value. It contains 120 pages, and will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of twenty-five cents.

The following anecdote was related the other day of the late Dr. Corrie. He was once at a meeting in which a Dissenter concluded a violent harangue by tearing a Prayer Book in pieces and thus apostrophizing the fragments: "Paul I know; but who are ye?" "Aptly quoted, my friend," quickly rejoined the Master of Jesus College; "you remember that the words you are echoing were spoken by an evil spirit."

"Reasons for Being a Churchman."

Already it has been found necessary to issue a THIRD Edition of Reasons for Being a Churchman. The book has had an extraordinary sale, and no wonder, in view of its practical and instructive character and the testimony borne to it. Bishop Kingston, Co-adjutor of Fredericton, says:

"I have read, with much satisfaction, Mr. Little's book, 'Reasons for Being a Churchman.' The arguments are well marshalled, and presented in an attractive and telling manner. The book, as it stands, is very valuable, for it gives a vast amount of information in a condensed and readable form, and I recommend it wherever I have occasion." Price by mail $1.10.
