

Mrs. B.—"The Browning cult has rather subsided in your city, has it not?"
 Mrs. L. (from Chicago)—"Yes, indeed! Now that we have got on to his curves it is scarcely an exaggeration to say that Browning is already in the soup."—Life.

"James," said the village jeweler, "are there any weddings to take place in the neighborhood soon?"

"There are two to come off next week," said the clerk.

And the jeweler sat down at once and wrote an order for two dozen pickle casters, with privilege of exchanging twenty-two of them for something else within thirty days—Chicago Tribune.

THE GLORY OF GILMORE.

GILMORE and his band, his cannons, his anvils, his big chorus and his star vocalists have captured the city. The four great concerts, to be given on Thursday and Friday of this week, afternoon and evening, are the single—or rather quadruple—subject of town gossip. Everybody is going, excepting the police, who will remain on the streets to see that the deserted shops and residences are not carried off. The expense of a big thing like this is something fabulous, but the attraction is overwhelming and irresistible, and hence we predict a successful financial outcome to the daring enterprise of the Philharmonic Society. Gilmore is no stranger in Toronto, and those who have heard his band once are not likely to let any subsequent opportunity pass by unimproved.
