BLAKE IN LONDON.

HIS SPEECH AT THE BANQUET.

Lord Rosebery Pays a Great Compliment to the Canadian Statesman.

Lord Reschery presided at the banquet of the National Laboral Club on Monday evening, held to celebrate the unveiling of the Gladstone portrait done by the Canadian artist Forbes.

The Hon, Edward Blake, Nationalist M.P. for South Lyngford, made the speech of presentation. It was an elegant enlogium of the Premier. Canadians regard Mr. Gladstone as the foremost of living men. Mr. B'ale said he believed that they understood his high aims and clean methods. They themselves knew the blessings of Home Rule, and ther fole had been most strongly attached to Mr. Gladstone by his efforts to save the Irish problem. Mr. Blake effered repeated appliance from his becreis and sat down amid a storm of charas.

Lord Rosebery professed his reply with flattering remarks as to Mr. Blake's "mode speech," compared with which he said his own address would "shine as a farthing rusal cht." Proceeding, Lord Rosebery space of the presentation as a strictly imposial event. He had often been farinted with a lack of sympathy with the Home Role ambitions of those parts of the Empire oct-ide of Great Britain. He more I that the feeling developed by the Canadian Liberals in semling the pleture would spread so far and wide that the taunt would be de-prived of all its malice. He wished to sec the bon is uniting the empire drawn more tight y. Alt present spoked that Canadian and Australian interests had been brought forward more conspicusly of late in English life. Mr. Bake, the most bri limt orator and one of the most capable statesmen produced by Canada in this gen ration, was evidence of the maturing upity of interests in the Em-
