on school tours and the exhibits received a thoughtful review in the OSSTF District 19 newsletter, encouraging more people to come to the Ontario Workers Arts and Heritage Centre and learn about the situations faced by children around the world (see Appendix E).