

5. In the performance of its duties, the Committee may work with other committees, working groups and subsidiary bodies established under this Agreement, the Council established under the Agreement on Labour Cooperation or, as appropriate, the Council established under the Agreement on Environmental Cooperation. In the context of this work, the Committee shall encourage efforts by these committees, working groups, subsidiary bodies, and these Councils, to integrate gender-related commitments, considerations and activities into their work.
6. The Committee may request that the Commission refer work to be conducted under this Article to any other committees, working groups and other subsidiary bodies established under this Agreement, the Agreement on Labour Cooperation or its successor, or, as appropriate, the Agreement on Environmental Cooperation or its successor.
7. The Parties may decide to invite experts or relevant organizations to Committee meetings to provide information.
8. Within two years of the first meeting of the Committee, the Committee shall review the implementation of this Chapter and shall report to the Commission.
9. Each Party shall develop mechanisms to report publically on the activities developed under this Chapter.
10. To facilitate communication between the Parties regarding the implementation of this Chapter, each Party designates the following point of contact and shall promptly notify the other Party if there is any change in the point of contact identified below:
 - (a) for Chile, the General Directorate of International Economic Relations ("Dirección General de Relaciones Económicas Internacionales") or its successor; and
 - (b) for Canada, the Trade Agreements and NAFTA Secretariat Division of the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development, or its successor.

Article N bis-05: Consultations

The Parties shall make all possible efforts, through dialogue, consultations and cooperation, to resolve any matter that may arise in regard to the interpretation and application of this Chapter.

Article N bis-06: Non-application of Dispute Resolution

A Party shall not avail itself of the dispute resolution mechanism provided for in Chapter N (Institutional Arrangements and Dispute Settlement Procedures) with respect to any matter arising under this Chapter.
