

without fear or reprisal? Is the Soviet Government prepared to accept any such solution for Hungary? Here is its chance, perhaps its last chance, to prove its good faith.

I regret that I can find no evidence in the statement of the Representative of the USSR in this morning's debate that his Government has any intention of permitting the Hungarian people any freedom of choice or that it has any intention of withdrawing its forces from Hungarian territory. This from the Government that has made such loud protestations these last few days about intervention by other Governments in the Middle East.

With respect to the draft Resolution put forward by Cuba, Ireland, Italy, Pakistan, and Peru (Document A/3316) my Delegation can do no other than vote in favour.

We shall also support the Resolution just now introduced by the Representative of the United States (Document A/3319).

This Resolution is solely concerned with the humanitarian aspects of the situation in Hungary. Surely this purpose, and this Resolution, can be supported by all Delegations genuinely interested in human welfare and the relief of suffering. In this connection, I have been authorized to state that Canada is ready to give priority to applications for immigration from Hungarian refugees; to contribute an additional $100,000 to the High Commissioner for Refugees, specifically for the aid of Hungarian refugees, and to contribute a further $100,000 to the Canadian Red Cross for Hungarian relief.
