but it seems to me they should have done something. If they haven't the City of Victoria might do something, because all St. Clair's service has been rendered in Victoria.

Some time ago I had a letter from him in which he asked me to help him get a position as correspondent with some of the large papers in the East. He sent me samples of things he had written, but they did not appeal to any of the publishers here.

I really do not know what to do about his case. Let me repeat that I think it is the duty of the School Board of Victoria to grant him a pension. Failing this, if any of you there get up a benefit for him I shall be very glad to subscribe what I can afford.

I was glad to hear from you again, Norris. I remember you very well indeed as a member of the old Fifth Regiment and also in France.

Yours faithfully,
