

his practical work to the hospitals where alone he could find the necessary material and equipment for his work.

7. It might further be mentioned that all hospital specimens which are kept for the University Museum come from the material found in the Hospital Services.