

tional and Sabbath School Library throughout the bounds, to the end that everybody may be able to give a satisfactory answer to anybody that asks, 'Why are you a Presbyterian?'

From the "B. A. Presbyterian."

"The work Mr. Stewart has produced is particularly seasonable. We, with special warmth, welcome such a volume."

From the "H. & F. Record," C. P. Church.

"Probably the most readable book on the subject."

From the "H. & F. Record," P. C. of L. Provinces.

"It is not tedious; it is perfectly intelligible. There is an honest, earnest, unshrinking attempt to deal with every difficulty in the enquirer's path. We should like to see Mr. Stewart's work circulated throughout the bounds of our own Church.* * Mr. Stewart is, we understand, a young man; the production of such a volume, so logical, so comprehensive, so manly and correct in style, and so Scriptural in doctrine, is highly creditable to him, and full of promise for the future."

From Rev. James Cameron, of Chatsworth, in the "H. & F. Record."

"This little volume might be used with advantage by our Divinity students in the College, and before Presbyteries. The book goes over the field of "the Church" very thoroughly, and in a way that would call into exercise not simply the memory, but the logical powers of the student."

From Rev. J. Straith, in the "Paisley Advocate."

"This volume is a very welcome and valuable addition to Canadian Literature, and ought to be placed in the library of every one who desires to become master of the subject of which it treats. The style is clear and logical and perspicuous. We think the author makes good his positions in a manner logical, scriptural and unanswerable."

From Rev. D. H. MacVicar, LL.D., Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics, Presbyterian College, Montreal.

"I rejoice in the marked success of the work. I have read it this week in connection with a competitive examination upon it, and I can very heartily commend it to our people and to all others who wish to know the truth on the subject of which it treats."

Montreal, Dec. 5, 1872.

From Rev. John Eadie, D.D., LL.D., Professor Bib. Lit. to the U. P. Church Glasgow, Scotland.

"I feel that you have satisfactorily established your main argument. I rejoice to find that in Canada there are young men like yourself rising up to uphold the cause of sound faith and scriptural government, and there is no doubt that in the end truth will gain the victory."

Glasgow, Nov. 18th, 1872.

From Rev. R. Dewar in the "O. S. Times."

"The subject of the book is one of deep interest to the well-wishers of Zion, as it treats of the economy, management, and government of the Lord's
