

said City, for the use of the said City, as soon after the appointment of the said Treasurer as may be.

LV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all the lands, tenements, or hereditaments granted to any person or persons, or body politic, for, or reserved for the use of the inhabitants of Fredericton, or by any Law declared to be vested in any person or persons for the use of the said City, shall be and become vested in the said Corporation for the use and purpose of the original grant or reservation, and all the rents, issues, and profits thereof shall enure to the said Corporation; provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the rights of the Queen or her heirs and successors, or any person or persons deriving his or their interest therein or thereto from Her Majesty or Her Royal Predecessors, and all grants and assurances of any of the said land by Her Majesty or Her Royal Predecessors to any person or persons, or body corporate, shall be deemed valid and effectual, notwithstanding the said original reservation thereof, and any laws relating thereto shall continue in full force and effect in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

LVI. And be it enacted, That the said City Council shall have power to assess the City of Fredericton, for all the purposes and objects which the General Sessions of the Peace for the County of York, or any Special Sessions, or any other person or persons now have power, to assess that part of the Parish of Fredericton herein Incorporated, by any Law specifying such purpose in addition to the power conferred by this Act, provided that the said Justices of the General Sessions shall have no power of assessment within the said City for any purpose whatever; and further provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to prevent the collection of any assessment previously made upon the inhabitants of the said City.

LVII. And be it enacted, That all appeals from the assessment of Rates, authorized and to be made in the City of Fredericton, by and under the authority of this Act, or of any other Act of the General Assembly, instead of being made to the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for the County of York as is prescribed by the several Acts in force relating to assessing and collecting County and Parish Rates, shall hereafter be made to the City Council in the same manner and under the like direction as are now by Law provided.

LVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the City Assessors, once in each year at least, or oftener, if required so to do, to make, under the direction of the City Council, and upon the re-
