IF EVER I CEASE TO LOVE
In a street, in a lane, in a garden,
In a wood, in a field, in a meadow,

THE OLD SEXTON.
N'g't to a grave that was newly made,
Learnt a sexton old on his cart-worn spade,

I LOVE TO BE A SWELL.
One day while strolling Pall Mall east,
In the morning mist and dew,

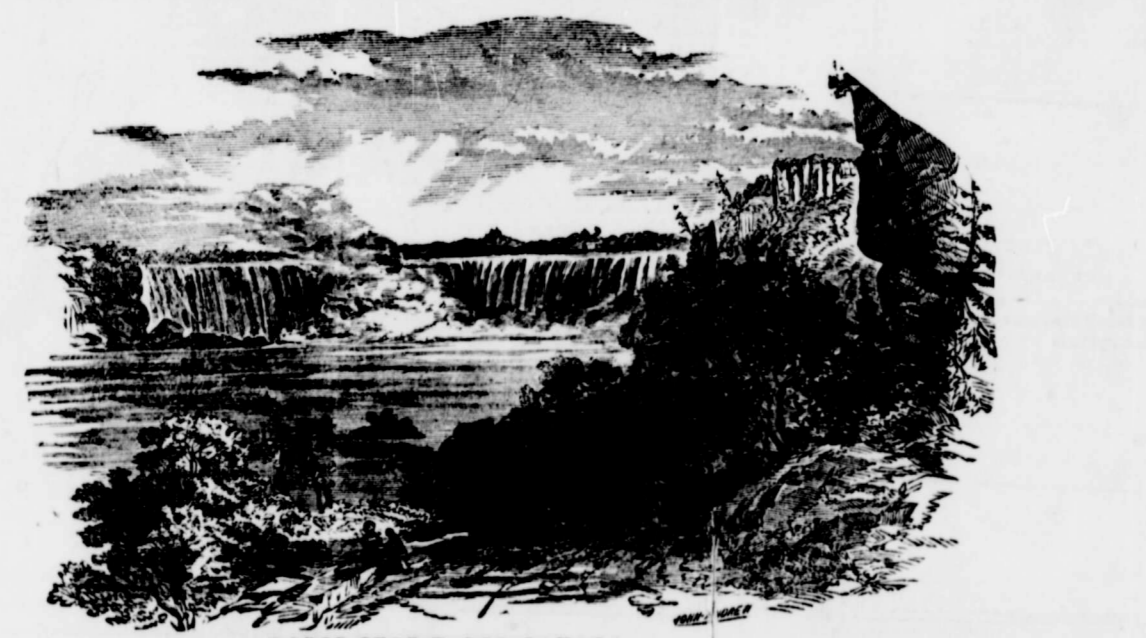

WHEN THE CORN IS WAVING.
When the corn is waving, Annie dear,
Oh, meet me by the stile,

THE JOLLY CATS.
There are a lot of jolly cats,
That often meet at night,

THE FISHERMAN'S DAUGHTER.
I've been caught in a net by a dear little pet,
And her eyes are as blue as the deep rolling sea;

WHEN THE BAND BEGINS TO PLAY.
I'm very fond of music, I could listen all the day,
Especially when the band begins to play,

YOU KNOW HOW IT IS YOURSELF.
The fairest girl in all the world,
Has oft been praised in song,
