DOUBLE VICTORY FOR CLYMER'S BOYS

Staged Thrilling Finish to Win the First Game-Hit Smallwood Hard.

The Leafs are staging a great windup to the season. They downed Harrisburg twice yesterday. A ninth-innings finish captured the first 1 to 0 and the second was just a canter, 5 to 1. Luque and Enzmann had a great pitching duel in the first fixture, but the Indian twirler loosened just enough in the last innings. After Daley had died, Graham laced a single over short and Kocher drew a base on balls. Wares lammed one to deep left centre for a triple to score the winning run. Score:

The Leafs, after taking three straight from Harrisburg, will tackle the Skeeters this afternoon in a double-header at the stadium, the first game beginning at two o'clock. Manager Clymer and his players are making strenuous efforts to finish in the first division, but have a tough grind shead of them next week.

Another double-header will be played on Monday with the Skeeters, and then Richmond come here for a series. This series will be one for blood, as no love is lost between the Toronto players and Menager Jack Dunn of Richmond.

Guieter colors prevail, greys are much worn in tweeds and worsteds; blue serge is well represented, while striped materials of a not too dark hue are fashionable. There is a tendency to cut the business or lounge coat a trifle shorter. Well-dressed men like the new Semi-ready designs.

The quick tailoring of special orders to measure in four days at the shops is a distinct advantage.
