

12 CONSTITUTION GRAND CHAPTER BRITISH COLUMBIA
AMENDMENTS.

Sec. 25. Procedure.—Any proposed amendments to this Constitution shall be presented in writing at an annual communication, and shall in all cases be referred to a committee, who shall report thereon; after which, upon a two-thirds vote in favor of such proposed amendment, it shall be declared adopted, and, after the close of that communication, shall become a part of the Constitution.

Sec. 26. Deferred Action.—If the vote in favor of such proposed amendment be less than two-thirds, but there is a majority therefor, it shall lie over for one year, and shall be published with the proceedings under the heading, "Proposed Amendment to the Constitution." And at the next succeeding annual communication, if it shall receive two-thirds of the votes given thereon, it shall be declared adopted, and from and after the close of that communication shall become a part of the Constitution.
