A Run With the Hounds.

The hounds met at Minn's Hotel yesterday afternoon, the cast-off being at Davisville. The run was north and then east, finishing near the clubhouse in the Don valley. The run was a good one, as was the fencing and going. Quite a number of members turned out, and there were no spills. There will be another run on Saturday.

International Turf Courtesies.

London, Oct. 29.—Messrs. August Belmont, McDonald, Bryan, Deyo, Van Vleck and Stillwell, having completed their survey of the underground railroads of Europe, start on their return to New York to-morrow on board the White Star liner Oceanic from Liverpool, with much useful information for the benefit of New York City's underground road. Mr. Belmont had important conferences with the turf authorities. He said he saw the officials of the English and French Jockey Clubs, and that they evinced the most friendly desire to enter into reciprocal agreements with the New York Club. Mr. Belmont added: "I cannot disclose the details until I consult my American colleagues; but you can say there is a good outlook for thoroly reciprocal arrangements between these three organizations."

Novel Attempt at Horse Swindling.

The attempted gold brick game at Lexington, Ky., in which Clarence Mackay was to buy a $2500 yearling for $8900, is the reigning sensation in the blue grass region. The colt was given a workout before S. F. Hill, trainer for Mr. Mackay, and the latter was so much pleased with the extraordinary time in which the youngster negotiated three-eighths "over the hill" that he told Colonel Jack Chinn, who went to Lexington to look at the colt, that he would conclude negotiations by wire, as he had to catch a train. It was discovered the next morning that the pole which marked the three-eighths had been moved so that the distance was 44 feet and 3 inches too short.

After the trial a number of prominent breeders wrote a letter to Charles Green, of St. Louis, owner of the track, asking that he refuse the use of the track to the men accused of the job. Track Superintendent John Farris states that, at Dan O'Brien's request, he had whitewashed the fence beyond the three-eighths pole a day before the workout, the fence down the track being black.

O'Brien is quoted as denying complicity, but as saying that "If that man had 40 millions, I would move the grand stand to beat him."

The colt is by imp. Wagner, dam Margaret Jane, and is owned by Tevis Wilkerson and H. A. Engman, who wired Mr. Mackay of the facts, and declared the sale off. They say O'Brien obtained an option on the colt for $2500 and asked that they refuse to be introduced to the men who were coming to examine him, and on this promise they did not see Mr. Hill. Breeders are taking up the matter and the affair will be sifted to the bottom.

All those interested in the breeding, training or raising of thorobred horses were requested to meet at the Phoenix Hotel, in Lexington, for the purpose of taking such action as may be necessary to determine the truth of reports that a pole, supposed to mark three-eighths of a mile from the wire, at the Kentucky Association race track, was moved; and, if the reports be found correct, to take such action as may be necessary to expose and punish the person or persons guilty of moving it."

The call is signed by H. A. Engman, Tevis Wilkerson, Milton Young, T. C. McDowell, P. H. Johnson, J. C. Rogers, G. D. Wilson, B. G. Thomas, F. A. Dangerfield, T. J. Carson, O. H. Chenault, Ed. Kane, Charles McMeekin, H. P. Headley, S. C. Lyne, W. S. Barnes, E. F. Clay and Campbell Scott.

Harold H Returns to Wingham.

Wingham, Oct. 29.—Wingham to-day put on her festive clothes to give a royal welcome home to that magnificent little pacer Harold H., after his very successful season among the world's fastest pacers. At the G.T.R. station he was presented with a beautiful collar of flowers. A procession then formed and, headed by Leckie's Brass Band, he was escorted to his winter quarters.

Thousands of people from Wingham, Lucknow, Blythe, Gorrie, Wroxeter and surrounding towns lined the route of the procession, and cheered enthusiastically for the fastest Canadian horse that was ever bred or owned in this country. On Friday evening a banquet will be given by the citizens to his owner, J. A. Swarts, and driver Al Proctor, when they and Harold's groom will be presented with lockets suitably inscribed for the occasion. Mr. Swarts promises to repeat next year Harold's winnings of this, and he has also two or three green ones that our Yankee cousins want to look out for next season.

On Friday, Nov. 1st, a matinee will be given by Wingham Turf Club, when, weather permitting, Harold H. will pace a mile to beat the Canadian record on half-mile track.

WITH THE NATIONAL LEAGUERS.

New York, Oct. 29.—Owners of National League baseball clubs prefer not to commit themselves in regard to the new association of minor league clubs working under a national agreement until called upon to do so at the National League meeting in this city early next winter.

In reply to queries addressed to them, a majority of the National League men have declared that they favor organized baseball, as they always have, but cannot voice the action of the National League until a continuance of its life is established at the forthcoming annual meeting.

It is learned upon good authority that the club-owners of the National League are not a unit in regard to the abrogation of the national agreement, and that some are of the opinion the National Board acted with unnecessary haste and not for the best interests of the major league.

The action taken by the minor league owners in New York last week has already influenced some minor league players who had accepted money from the National League clubs. They have returned the money to the National League men and will not desert the minor league with which they were connected. Both Eastern and Western teams are affected. Other minor league players, who contend that the minor leagues under an ironclad agreement they will never obtain high salaries, and are willing to go to the club that will pay most, no matter of what league it is a member.

The abolition of the farming system will work to the disadvantage of the players, since if cast adrift by the major leagues they must work for smaller salaries in the minor leagues.

Toronto Baseball Club.

Mr. Jess Applegath states that he is not a candidate for the presidency of the Toronto Baseball Club. He was a valuable member of the new company's directorate, and feels satisfied with the results of the team's work the first year. Mr. Applegath warmly commends Manager Ed. Barrow for his capable work the season just closed, and hopes to see him again at the helm in 1902. The annual meeting of the shareholders takes place at the Rossin House on Wednesday, Nov. 6th.

Just Suitable for Winter.

It is often a puzzle what to drink during the winter months. Some say one thing, some another. "D.C.L." (Black Bottle) Whiskey is the best. Pure and wholesome. No after effects. Adams & Burns, sole agents, Toronto. ed

Sporting Notes.

The meeting of the Toronto Tenpin League, called for last night to draw up a schedule, was postponed till Nov. 5, at the Liederkranz.

Sport.—You must conform with the rules of the handbook or the poolroom in which you do business. In the case cited you would probably only win the place bet, drawing the money on Haviland to win.

The Grand American Handicap, America's greatest shooting fixture, will go to the West in 1902. It will be held the first week in April, and $1500 will be guaranteed for the event by the Interstate Association. It will be the tenth renewal of the affair.

Manager J. H. Manning of the Washington Baseball Club, and the owner of about 54 per cent. interest in that organization, has given an option on his interest in the club to Fred Postal of Detroit, the President of the club. The option expires on Friday. The prospects are that the deal will go thru.

Collegians.

The famous cigar which we retail at five cents, or five dollars a hundred, is now acknowledged by some of the best judges in the city to be superior to many so-called ten-cent brands. Give us a call and you will be convinced of this fact. J. A. Thompson, Tobacconist, 73 Yonge-street. 3

Many Gentlemen Surprised.

Surprise is daily expressed by gentlemen who call at Archambault's tailoring store, 125 Yonge-street (just below the Arcade), when they see the grey cheviot overcoats they can have made to order for sixteen dollars. These coats have all the qualities of a twenty-five dollar coat from some places, and for style, fit and finish they are equal to anything in America. At Archambault's, sixteen dollar made-to-order suits are equally satisfactory, and any gentleman contemplating a new outfit should call on Mr. Archambault.

Is there anything more annoying than having your corn stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced.

HOW MATTHEWS WON.

It was for hitting in a clinch that Couhig was disqualified at Fort Erie on Monday. After being knocked down with a hard right on the jaw, almost out, and scarcely able to struggle to his feet, Couhig electrified the spectators by getting up and clinching Matthews, and before the Brooklyn boxer could release himself Couhig smashed a wicked left-hand swing on the jaw.

The referee promptly stopped the bout and declared Matthews the winner on a foul. Up to the time that Matthews succeeded in landing the blow that knocked Couhig off his feet in the fifth round it was a bitterly-fought contest. Both men mixed it up fast, and never let an opportunity to land a blow slip by. Matthews appeared to carry more steam behind his blows than Couhig. Several times Matty caught the boilermaker as he came rushing in and staggered him with lefts on the jaw and neck. But Couhig was game, and fought back with a determination that won him rounds of applause.

In the opening round both boxers fought carefully, and it looked for a time as tho the bout would last many rounds. But this gradually faded away as the bout wore on, and when the men responded to the bell in the third round they immediately started in to mix matters at a lively clip. Matthews held a lead over the Dunkirk man on points in the first three rounds. He blocked, ducked and side-stepped in clever style, and worried Couhig with his long left, which he kept jabbing to the face with a regularity that puzzled Tom considerably.

Couhig fought steadily and put forth strenuous efforts to land a winning blow, but Matthews was too clever, and managed to keep well out of danger. Much money changed hands on the result, with Matthews a slight favorite. Couhig appeared to have an unlimited financial backing among the Dunkirk sports, but when they bet all their money Matty ruled a favorite at 10 to 8. Johnny Dunn, Jim Raskerville and Freddie Vaunch seconded Matthews. Couhig was cared for between rounds by Curley Supples, Bob Fitzgerald and Joe Schramm. Both men weighed in at 3 o'clock at 138 pounds.

In the preliminaries, George Salace and Otto Knop boxed a 10-round draw; Dave Battlestone beat Joe Mackay on a foul.

Around the Ring.

Martin Duffy and Art Simms box 10 rounds at Detroit to-night.

The National Sporting Club of London has offered a purse for a 20-round contest between Kid Broad of Cleveland and Ben Jordan of England.

Jack Bennett will likely arrive to-morrow from McKeesport to have 10 days' work on the spot for his 20-round bout on the Kid's birthday with Young Mahoney of Philadelphia.

At Trenton, N.J., on Monday night, Referee Crowhurst awarded Tim Callahan of Philadelphia the decision over Tommy Hogan of Chicago at the end of 20 rounds. Callahan was never in trouble, and won by a big margin.

Albert Griffiths, better known as Young Griffo, at Chicago on Monday night disappointed 400 enthusiasts who had congregated at Barry & O'Neill's handball court to see him box six rounds with Chicago Jack Daly. The Australian had his right hand heavily bandaged, and the management announced that the member had been injured in practice Sunday afternoon. The crowd, however, missed nothing in Griffo's failure to fulfil part of the contract, Charley Burns of Cincinnati was substituted, and after six terrific rounds of slugging Referee Jack Beaton decided the contest a draw. Burns surpassed himself, fought Daly to a standstill, and seemed to have the better of the fighting after the first round.

ARGONAUTS ARE CONFIDENT

Manager Thompson Makes a Good Wager That His Team Will Beat Rough Riders.

TEAMS ENJOY USEFUL PRACTISE

Varsity Considered to Have an Easy Thing in Queen's—Notes of the Game.

The Argonauts had another large turnout at Moss Park Rink yesterday afternoon, when its full senior team were in uniform. Besides a number of intermediate men have been suddely struck with enthusiasm, and are turning out regularly to help the seniors. The match at Rosedale on Saturday between the oarsmen and Rough Riders promises to be most interesting. It will be the first time of the season for these teams to meet. The attendance promise to be large, and several large bets of 5 to 4 on Ottawa have already been made.

Varsity had a full team practise yesterday, and Capt. McCallum put the men thru some useful work in running, punting and catching. The Varsity boys are in the best possible condition, and should have an easy thing with Queen's team on Saturday. This victory will give Varsity the championship. Hendry's place on the half line will be filled by Gibson, a good man who played on the second team. He proved himself worth a place on the first. The rest of the line up will be the same as last Saturday.

Varsity second team have a first-class chance for the intermediate championship. They are only one point behind Queen's II., and should easily overhaul them and win out.

Owing to the expected large sale of reserved seat tickets for next Saturday's game between the Argonauts and Rough Riders of Ottawa, the plans will open at Nordheimer's at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The students have not yet forgotten the goal dropped by Beatty at Kingston. They say it was a corker.

The Victorias are requested to turn out for practice on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week at 6.45 o'clock on Cottingham-street, and every evening next week at 7 o'clock.

Manager Fred Thompson of the Argonauts is so confident of his team defeating the Rough Riders at Rosedale on Saturday that he has wagered $150 against $175 of Ottawa money.

The Parkdale-Victoria Match.

Sporting Editor World: Seeing in the sporting columns of your paper an account of the Rugby match between the Parkdales and the Victorias, played last Saturday on Jesse Ketchum Park, I, too, would like to have a say in the matter, tho it differs somewhat from that of Mr. "Play Fair." The aforesaid gentleman will admit that the game was running pretty smoothly, with honors about even, until about eight minutes from time, then the trouble started. Another thing, Parkdale started this dirty work, as will be seen. About eight minutes from time Victoria was scrimmaging the ball 30 yards from Parkdale line. The ball was passed out to Butler, who passed to Green, and then Green to Cotton. Cotton had a good start, and only a few in front of him, which he passed. Menzies, the scrimmager of the Parkdales, deliberately tripped him, therefore spoiling any chance he had of scoring. Captain Butler appealed to the referee, but received no thanks. In the meantime, some of the crowd got into an argument with Menzies and a scrap ensued. The Victoria players, however, cleared the field, and the game proceeded, but, as for the Victoria game of rowdyism against the Parkdale players, it is all rot. Rugby.
