CANADIAN STOCKS EASIER

Speculative Issues Lower on Toronto and Montreal Exchanges.

Richelles, Twin City and C.P.R. Firmer on Local Exchange—Wall Street Closed—Market quotations and Gossip.

World Office.

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 12.

The falling off in business on the local exchange was apparent again today, and the purely speculative stocks showed a decided weakness under a restricted demand. In pressure in selling or an unusual demand for a stock, but if there were no such pressure, the values might exhibit a considerable advance at a time when the close of the day would be nearly 6 points higher. The Dow Jones index was 114.15, up from 113.85, and recovered to 114.15, and 32. The Toronto market was lower, but held fairly steady, and the bonds were quiet and closed at 83 1/2.

C.P.R. was firmer, and closed at 83 1/2.

Twin City was also strong and gained 1/2 for the day. The latter stock was a further advance, some calling the high price at 118. Richelles is being bought for a rally, and sold up two points to 14 1/2. It could have been had earlier after Western Assurance was back on the market. Nova Scotia closed down, and sold at 23 1/2. The General Electric was firmer at 23 1/2.

THE TORONTO WORLD

Hard Colds

Hard colds nearly always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, consumption. Doctors know this. That's why they so generally approve of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. They tell us they cannot prescribe anything that cures coughs so quickly.

City News.

At Osgood Hall.

The Chancery Division Court yesterday gave judgment, discharging an
