ROY JUST HANGING 'ROUND THAT PEACE MAY INTERVENE WANTS NO FIGHT, SAYS TOKIO

Delay Means Crippling Resources With No Place to Recoup—Togo Ready to Strike When Russian Moves.

BULLETIN.
Tokio, April 28.—(6 p.m.)—The Russian second Pacific squadron was sighted yesterday off Cape Varela, 70 miles north of Kamrah Bay.
Tokio, April 28.—There is less excitement in this city about the Russian fleet than there is in Paris and in London, judging from the despatches which come here from those cities. Government members of the naval staff, including at least one admiral, are rather sceptical that Admiral Rojestevsky will attempt to make the Sea of Japan and fight the Japanese fleet. They point out that he has been no more successful in the China Sea, using up both coal and provisions, and making practically no progress toward his alleged objective point. Every day that he remains in the water reduces the speed of his ships, and hence their fighting power when in action. It is regarded as probable that he believes for one moment that the Japanese navy will gain from a four-day journey to meet him in the South China Sea, and so the belief is gaining ground here that the commander of the Baltic squadron has imperative orders from St. Petersburg not to sail north of the Paracel Islands pending certain reports for peace which undoubtedly are being considered in more than one European capital.
The naval chiefs do not believe that he is waiting for Negobotski's ships. They are sure that he is waiting for the only for coast defence, with a speed of less than ten miles an hour under pressure. RUSSIAN ADVANCING WITH RECONNAISSANCE IN FORCE, BUT THERE'S NO FIGHTING

Gunahu Pass, April 28.—In the last fortnight the Russian army on the right, left and centre has advanced beyond the Singhai position, and the Russian vanguard posts are now in the form of an inverted crescent, the left horn of which is considerably in the rear of Changtchi, which the Japanese hold and which is strongly fortified. The Japanese are now exerting a pressure against the Russian advance.

THAT MOVEMENT CANNOT BE DISCOVERED

On account of the nature of the opposing armies, it is impossible to effect reconnaissance by small bodies of scouts and work of this nature must be done by considerable detachments of troops, the movements of which are not likely to be discovered.

IMPERIAL FAMILY AT SERVICE

St. Petersburg, April 28.—Three days' hard frost preceded Easter, accompanied by solemn services commemorative of Christ's passion, began to-day. Business of every character ceased, and all the government departments were closed during the last few days apparently for little or no reason.

KAMAHURA TO STRIKE

It is regarded as certain here that he will be heard from in another neutral port, probably in one which has no fleet that can enforce neutrality. The Imperial navy department undoubtedly has good line on his movements, but declines to make this public. He could at the Port of Harbin, or in the northeast of the island of Hokkaido.

DIPLOMATS TO THE RESCUE TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Three Washington Ambassadors to Confer With Home Authorities—Roosevelt Wants It Over.

Washington, April 28.—Expecting that Washington is destined to play an important part in the preliminary negotiations that will precede the cessation of hostilities between Russia and Japan, even though the American capital may not be selected as the scene for the actual peace negotiations, Baron Sternberg, the German ambassador, and M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, will call for their respective countries soon after conferring with President Roosevelt when he returns from the west.
Baron Sternberg will have several audiences with the emperor and M. Jusserand will see President Loubet and M. Delcasse, and will be communicating in an entirely unofficial way the earnest wish of President Roosevelt that peace negotiations be prepared to return to their posts at once.

THINK HE'S HOTEL TRIP

James Longway Locked Up With Two Charges Against Him.

James Longway, who gives his address as 107 Montrose avenue, was locked up last night on the charge of stealing $40 from the English Chop House. Grating in the alleyway was found open. It is supposed that Longway entered the place and robbed the cash register. The police also think that Longway is the man who robbed the St. Charles of $112 on the 29th of last month. He is supposed to have secreted himself in a retiring room and waited until the employees left the place and then robbed the cash drawer.

"Hotbed of Bigotry" One Phrase They Approve—Bristol Will Speak on Monday.

Ottawa, April 28.—(Special.)—The Queen City had another magnificent specimen of a verbal bouquet handed her to-night. Mr. Sinclair, Liberal member for Guelph, in the midst of a heated denunciation of "Ontario intolerance" and "Yellow Journalism," declared that "Toronto is the hotbed of bigotry and intolerance in Canada."

Every member from Ontario on the government side of the house thumped the adjournment. Hon. William Paterson leading the way. The opposition left to-day, and only one man to the left of the speaker, Mr. Egan of East Middlesex, contributed to the debate. In their anxiety to keep the ball rolling until Frank Oliver walks triumphantly into the house, the government put up four speakers—Messrs. Martin of Wellington, Adamson of St. Catharines, and two others, something more or less to say about the educational clause, the general theme being the "Ontario Journalists' Association" and "Yellow Journalism."

Tuesday will see the end of Sir Wilfrid's present throught practically the entire session, and Charles Black never once wavered from the post of watchful dog. Mr. Martin of Queens moved the adjournment of the house for E. A. Bristol, so the member for Centre Toronto will make his maiden effort on Monday.

STOCK BILL'S FIRST READING

At the opening of the afternoon session, Hon. Sir Charles Black introduced some of his pet legislation, in the form of a bill to amend the act respecting the incorporation of live stock associations. The object desired by the minister was to include in the records of the stock associations in Canada the names of the breeders. It was hoped the Canadian stockmen would benefit. Foreign countries, such as the United States, have no such record, and animals might be admitted to the country without the necessary health certificates.

The autonomy debate was resumed by Martin (Liberal, North Wellington). It was his first effort and he introduced the bill from the standpoint of a Presbyterian. He had several passages-at-arms with Dr. Sproule and Dr. Lator regarding the true feeling of the Presbyterians of his county, and claimed that there was not one in ten who would not support the measure. Mr. Martin then launched out into an extended and somewhat rambling explanation of how the only real excitement in the matter was "hatched in Toronto" and "hatched in Ontario."

Dr. Frongczak's diagnosis of Paderewski's ailment was to the effect that he is suffering from a severe attack of neuritis.
