The City Council Committee Still at Work.

The City Council committee are busy meeting representatives of the Street Railway Company and of the men's association, alternately. Several of the meetings have been held in public, but the City Council committee appear to consider there might be greater freedom of discussion were the meetings conducted without undue publicity until the various ideas and suggestions assume more definite shape. To this view of the City Council committee, there can be no reasonable objection. The members of the committee are doubtless sincerely anxious to arrange a satisfactory settlement on fair terms, and the city will be disposed to give them a free hand as to methods.

TITHE RENT CHARGES

Bill Passed in the Absence of the Irish Members.

Chamberlain Summoned to Windsor by the Queen.

Objections Brought Against the Pacific Cable Scheme.

The Irrepressible Khalifa Collecting Another Big Army.

Mrs. Susan B. Anthony Gives a Striking Address at the Meeting of the Women's Council.

London, June 30.—The House of Commons last evening, by a vote of 319 against 176, passed the second reading of the tithe rent charge bill, which relieves the clergy of certain local rates. The bill has been hotly opposed by several Liberal-Unionists, and the government's large majority is due to the abstention of the Irish members.

Mr. George Whiteley, Conservative member for Stockport since 1893, has resigned his seat, as a protest against the bill.

WANTED AT WINDSOR.

The Queen has summoned the colonial secretary, the Hon. Mr. Chamberlain, to Windsor. He will go there with Mrs. Chamberlain on Saturday, and remain over Sunday. It is presumed the Queen desires Mr. Chamberlain's personal views regarding Transvaal affairs.
