The Beechams and Newspaper Advertising

Sir Joseph Beecham, who died recently at St. Helen's England, was a strong believer in and patron of newspaper advertising—as was his father, the founder of the Beecham business. The elder Beecham used to say, "There is only ONE advertising medium-the NEWS-

He was one of the first men in Europe to recognize the value of newspaper advertising and early impressed his views upon his son, who he intended should succeed him, Under Sir Joseph's management, according to Sir Joseph's own testimony, about 98 per cent of the Beecham appropriation went to the PAPERS, the remaining 2 per cent having been spent for "supplementary work and detail."

As time went on, the Beecham business grew to be very large. Sir Joseph left a fortune of many millions, notwithstanding the numerous charities and philanthropic movements connected with his name. It is the old story-Give your business IN DIVIDUALITY, then get back of it, and-
