SENIOR INDOOR BALL AT CENTRAL Y.M.C.A.

Two games were played in the new senior indoor baseball league of Central Y.M.C.A. last night. The first game proved a dandy, considering the men were not in condition, this being the first league night. Both teams played good ball and after the last innings was played not a run was chalked up against either team. The game for the Older Boys, picked good ball as also did Adlard of the Beaches. Both teams played well, thus no score in the whole game.

The second game was won handily by the Simpson's team, who defeated the Y.M.C.A. team. The first game
good ball and after the last innings
did Adlard of the Beaches. Both teams
game.

Albany, N.Y., Jan. 31.—The death of Stephen McDonald, who was killed during a boxing bout here last night, was due to "shock," occasioned by a blow over the solar plexus," according to the coroner's physician.
Governor Whitman today, in a formal statement, announced that he was in favor of repelling the law authorizing boxing exhibitions in this state.
A man has reached his second childhood when he refers to a six-inch wide bald spot on his head as a part.

Won the Prizes at Souris Bonspiel

The twentieth annual bonspiel of the Souris, Man., Curling Club closed last Saturday, after five days of curling, with five draws a day. The surprise of the spiel was the failure of Ald. McShane's rink to win an event after an undefeated run of over three days' play. Probably never in the history of thespiel have the prizes been better distributed, only three rinks winning two prizes: D. Mc-Eachern, a first and second; W. C. Mc-Shane, a first and fourth; and Dowling of Brandon, a first and fourth. The prizes were distributed as follows:

SEATTLE WINS.

Seattle, Wn., Jan. 31.—In one of the hardest-fought battles of the season Seattle defeated the Spokane Club here last night by a score of 4 to 2, and with Vancouver going down before Portland, increased their lead in the Pacific Coast Hockey Association race. Spokane played stubbornly but could not maintain the terrific pace set by the locals.

STOPPED VANCOUVER.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 31.—Portland stopped Vancouver's winning streak and accidentally won their first game in several weeks by defeating the visiting club here last night by a score of 11 to 1. It was a free scoring match. Portland took a commanding lead and was never in danger.
