STOLE HOME WITH THE WINNING RUN

O'Rourke Again Big Factor in Victory-Onslow Tripled With Bases Full.

Special to The Toronto World. Reading, Pa., April 23.-For the second time in two days Toronto bats beat out a victory over the Reading International League Club, the final score today being, s to 7. Shortstop O'Rourke again was the hero. With the score used at 7 runs eacht at the start of the minth ianing and two men out for the Leafs, O'Rourke broke for home from third base. Brower, pitching for Reading, was in the midst of his windup when the shortstop started. Before the pitcher could complete his motion and whip the ball to the plate, O'Rourke had put on full speed and slid beneath Crossin for a clean steal of home with the deciding run.

The game was a seesaw affair with plenty of free hitting on both sides. Brower, the huge right-hander, who played first base in yesterday's opening game, lasted the full nine innings on the mound for the Marines. On the other hand, Manager Duffy sent four hurlers to the hill in the course of the contest. Two left-handers, Heck and Burke, were batted hard, as was Peterson, who worked less than three innings. son, who worked less than three innings. Holbrow took up the task in the last three sessions, and while wild in spots, three sessions, and while wild in spots, he proved more effective than his predecessors.

Things looked blue for Bobby Heck in the first inning, when Umpire Derrhalted play to warn the southpaw of the decree of President Fultz banning the spit ball. After a warm conference Heck agreed to refrain from moistening the sphere, but his curves thereafter lacked their usual deceit. Konnick and Manager Hummel bolved them first in the fourth frame for long home run drives, and then by clean hitting the Marines piled up five more tallies before the side was retired. Burke allowed three hits without an out before he was yanked and Peterson substituted. Holbrov, a Leaf recruit, who has just rejoired the ciub after visiting his bereaved family, gave but one hit.

In the seventh inning Toronto overtook the locals' five run lead. With the bases full and none out, Gonzales was sent to bat for Peterson, and hoisted a long sacrifice fly that scored the first run. Reading's danger seemed past when O'Rourke, after driving out five long fouls, let one pass him for a third strike. Then, on a double steal with Sanberg, Anderson came home. Spencer walked and Whiteman singled, filling the bases again. Onslow cleared them with a long triple to left field, the three runs tying the score. Riley finished the onslaught by striking out.

The first hit of the day for O'Rourke, who led both teams with six yetserday, came in the ninth. With one run needed to win Spencer was ordered to sacrifice and obeyed perfectly. O'Rourke advanced to third on Whiteman's out at first. Brower tried to put everything possible on the ball with Onslow, whose bat had tied the count, at the plate. The pitcher's concentration on the batsman, however, proved his undoing.

LACROSSE GOSSIP

Bert Booth's worries have been som what reduced, as yesferday's mail brought the news that Fergus will not be represented in the intermediate series. They do not appear to have enough players to put a sufficiently strong team in the league, and are, therefore, devoting the renergies to the juveniles. Several of the boys from Fergus will likely cast in their lot with Orangeville, as was arranged last season.

Maitlands have corralled Hodgson, who last year guarded the nets for Beaches. Hodgson is a coming McArthur. In addition to being a good stop, he handles himself well outside the nets.
