

PEMBER'S ALTERATION SALE
ONE MORE WEEK
10 per cent. off all Hair Goods

Unparalleled values in highest grade European Hair—Ladies' Switches, Pompadours, Wigs, etc., Gentlemen's Toupees and Wigs. When these extensive building operations are completed we shall have the finest premises of the kind in the Dominion.

Dr. Blanchard, the famous surgeon chiropodist, now has his office here. He painlessly and permanently cures corns, bunions and all troubles of the feet. Appointments made for any hour. Tel. Main 2275.

PEMBER'S Hair Emporium
127-129 YONGE STREET.

SOCIAL LIFE

Just now when Toronto is looking its loveliest and the long avenues are draped in shades of green, through which the sun-light flickers on the emerald turf, it seems a pity to see the shutters going up on so many houses, that will not be opened again until the leaves are falling fast next autumn. The old country claims its quota of Canadian visitors yearly. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Mortimer Clark and their daughters are leaving. Mrs. Mackenzie Alexander has gone. Mr. George Beardsmore is also an absentee and many more well-known people have left or are soon going. The owners of Muskoka cottages are fast finding their way thither, and beautiful Niagara is fuller even than is usual at this time of year. Happy are those who by custom or circumstance have their destinations settled for them, as the question of where to go is one fraught with difficulty, even when the necessary funds are on hand. But fashion decrees that instead of spending the hot months in cool town houses, containing every comfort, surrounded by beautiful lawns and gardens, and where every delicacy to tempt jaded appetites is obtainable, people should rush away in hot, stuffy trains or crowded steamers to remote places where probably the water is bad, baths a luxury and good food and fresh vegetables are things to be dreamed of, but not realized. The exodus notwithstanding, the number in streets and shops is not sensibly diminished, but it is the voice of the American that is heard in the land, and how much they wished they owned it may be judged by a speech made by a very prominent man in Boston the other day, who said: "It is the duty of every thinking citizen of the United States to consider how best they may acquire Canada."

Mrs. Beardsmore's luncheon at the Hunt Club was a pleasing event on Tuesday. Her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kingsmill, who came from England for her brother's wedding, and Mrs. Perry, also from England, were the guests that Mrs. Beardsmore invited 18 other ladies to meet. A private car conveyed the party from the King Edward. The table was placed on the verandah, and the decorations were of rose peonies. The grounds are at their best now, and the view of the lake adds such a charm.

Miss Scott and Miss Merrick had a garden party in the afternoon, and received the guests on the lawn. The maples are in full beauty and there were many comfortable seats placed about, the elder ladies thoroughly enjoying the cool shade and watching the pretty picture made by the girls flitting about in their gaily-colored frocks. The house was decorated with peonies and marguerites and there was some good music in the large drawing room. There was no event of note in Toronto during the evening, as interest centred in the ball at the Royal Military College, Kingston. A lot of people from town went down for the dance, which was very well done and thoroughly enjoyed. The night was a perfect one, a breeze blowing off the water and cooling the heated air. Lieut.-Col. Reade, the commandant, and Mrs. Martin, wife of

"ADONIS" Hed-Rub

The next warm day you happen to be in a barber shop ask the barber to apply to your scalp. You will find it delightfully cool and refreshing. It eradicates dandruff, prevents the hair falling, and keeps the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. All leading barbers. Only 10c.

"ADONIS" Hed-Rub

the professor of mathematics, received the guests, the latter wearing silver grey chiffon with embroideries of steel and silver, and on the bodice shaded orange velvet was mingled with the embroidery and point lace; ornaments of diamonds. Dancing was in the gymnasium, appropriately decorated in the clever way that soldiers know so well how to do, with flags and implements of war. There were many debutantes who will carry away recollections of their first ball to be marked in the calendar with a red letter. Pretty girls were there from all parts of Canada, those present from Toronto numbering among them Lady Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Oliver Macklem, Miss Gladys Nordheimer, Miss Mary Osler, Miss Katie Hagarty, Miss Helen Davidson, Miss Rutherford, Mrs. Edward Taylor, Miss Marjorie Cochrane and Miss Diana Irving.

Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Reid, Bowmanville, announce the engagement of their third daughter, Miss Hilda G. Reid, to Mr. John McAustin Gilchrist, Glasgow, Scotland.

It is greatly to be hoped that the benevolent intentions towards benefiting the public that have been formulated by the manager of the street railway and are now being carried into effect, will have their part in laying up treasure for him in heaven, as they are the cause of very fervent anathemas by the said public on earth. One who travels constantly in the street cars avers that those of the convertible type are certainly an invention of the Prince of Darkness, as he would feel at home in the atmosphere created by the windows at one side being closed, ten people seated opposite to each other with three or four standing between. This is an ordinary occurrence, whilst the front seat remains vacant. Men don't care for it, as they cannot smoke, and the women, to whom it would be a boon, are debarred from its occupancy by the benevolent care of Mr. Fleming.

Mrs. Leary Cannington (sister of the late J. E. Worts) and her daughter, Mrs. Early, are visiting Mrs. A. G. Watson and Mrs. Score, 50 Carlton-street.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Paul's (R.C.) Church on Monday morning, when Rev. Father Hand united in marriage Mr. John B. Wendling of Berlin and Miss Elizabeth (Dot) Holding, daughter of James W. Holding. The bride was gowned in cream silk eolienne, trimmed with lace, with large picture hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Daisy, whose dress was white point d'esprit over blue silk, with hat to match. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. E. Wendling. After the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the bride's father, at which only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Wendling left by the afternoon train for Berlin, the home of the groom's parents. The bride's going-away dress was navy blue silk mohair, with traveling hat to match.

Dr. James Henderson, son of James Henderson (postoffice inspector, Toronto), and bride (nee Clarke) of Ottawa, visited his parents at 24 Brunswick-avenue en route for Sudbury, his future home.

Mrs. P. J. Bradshaw-Fullard, with her two children, left yesterday for Brandon, Man., where she will spend the summer.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at College-street Presbyterian Church Wednesday, June 24, when Miss Alice Pepper was married to Mr. Sydney Rands, C. P. R. agent, Drumbo. The bride, who was given away by Mr. M. Watson, was handsomely gowned in cream chiffon voile over taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss May Clark, was attired in cream silk crepe de chine and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Frank Rands, Shelburne, Ont. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl crescent, to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch, to the groomsmen a pearl crescent tie pin. The bride received many beautiful presents. After the ceremony a reception was held at G. S. McConkey's, where the guests sat down to a dainty dejeuner. The happy couple left for a trip to Ottawa and other eastern points.

The Queen's Royal at Niagara was very brilliant for what was, in all probability, the last military ball to be given by regiments in camp. Soldiers are always the best of hosts, and the casino is an ideal place for summer dances, the breeze from the lake making a delightful atmosphere and the verandahs are such delightful resting places. There are an immense number of Toronto people staying at the Queen's Royal and in the cottages. The ball was under the auspices of Gen. Otter and the uniforms of the Canadians mingled with those of the American officers stationed just across the river contributed not a little to the gaiety of the scene. Dancing forms an indispensable part of every man's education in the States, so that they are welcome guests where dancing is the order of the day.

The engagement of Miss Mary Hamilton, youngest daughter of the Bishop of Ottawa, to Mr. William French Wilbour, has been announced in Ottawa. Mr. Wilbour is a member of the New York bar.

Dr. and Mrs. Leslie have returned from England.

Mr. Flavell and his daughters have returned from a short visit to England.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford and their family have gone to Centre Island.

Miss Tilley is going to spend the summer at St. Andrew's, New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mowat have announced the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Margaret, to Mr. Percy Hardisty, formerly of Toronto. Mr. Hardisty has a ranch near Edmonton, Alta.

Mrs. Gerhard Heintzman, president of the Frauen Verein of the Lutheran Church, held a coffee party in the gardens of her residence in Bloor-street on Thursday afternoon. It was the tenth anniversary of her appointment as president, and the pastor, Herr Mueller, made a speech, conveying the thanks and affectionate gratitude of the society for the great help she had given them and their church during all those years, and at the conclusion presented her with a sheaf of crimson and white roses. Tables beautifully decorated with June blossoms were placed in a large marquee, and the dainty German confections and delicious coffee were fully appreciated. Mrs. Heintzman's daughters, Mrs. Bascom, Mrs. Bertram and the Misses Heintzman, were most attentive hostesses.

The marriage took place on Monday, June 19, at St. Mary's Church, Woodstock, with Rev. Father Cook officiating, of Miss Minnie Kathleen Murphy of this city, the eldest of the quartet of musicians who have delighted so many audiences throughout the length and breadth of Canada in recent years, to Frederick Duke of Princeton. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family, the wedding took place in the presence of only the immediate members of each family. Miss Kate Halloran, Lindsay, acted as bridesmaid and M. Fitzhenry of Toronto assisted the groom. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Duke left on the 10:40 C. P. R. train for points west. Later on in the week, they will be joined at Sarnia by Eugene Murphy and daughters, and will then leave for a lake trip to Minnesota, where they will spend a couple of months visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Duke will upon their return take up their residence in Princeton, where Mr. Duke proposes to establish a private banking business. Miss Murphy's gown was of grey voile over silk, with a grey tulle hat with violets. Her traveling dress was grey shepherd plaid silk with lace and velvet trimmings. The bridesmaid's gown was bisque eolienne over cream taffeta with hat to match.

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Parkdale on Wednesday, when Mae Thayer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Maxwell, was united to Mr. J. M. Prentiss. The wedding was a quiet one, attended only by immediate relatives and friends.

If you desire something exquisitely fragrant in perfume let me recommend "Ideal"

JUNE CLOVER

A perfume that by its very excellence has gained the largest sale of any perfume in Canada. See the window of my King-street store for special display during race weeks.

W.H. Lee
KING EDWARD HOTEL
DRUGSTORE

Wm. Pitt & Co.
Ladies' Tailors and Costumiers

HANDSOME MATERIALS FOR AFTERNOON, DINNER

AND EVENING GOWNS, SMART SUITS and BLOUSES

MILLINERY

The Latest Creations in New Spring Millinery

LACE SCARFS and STOLEs

GLOVES

2-Clasp G'oves in all the new colorings: Evening Gloves Motor Gloves

Ladies' and Gents' Walking Gloves

CORSETS

PARIS KID GLOVE STORE

11 and 13 King Street East, Toronto.

TEL. MAIN 888.

BAKER, LADIES' TAILOR.

Ladies' Afternoon Costumes.

16 Charles Street.

Phone North 1431

latives and friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Treleaven, assisted by Rev. J. W. Pedley. The bride, who was given away by her father, was handsomely gowned in ivory silk crepe de chine with trimmings of pleated chiffon and ruchings over taffeta. She wore a tulle veil, caught with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Rilda Maxwell of Cleveland, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore cream crepe de chine with all-over lace yoke and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Lou Prentiss of the Bank of Hamilton, brother of the groom, was best man. The wedding march was played by the orchestra, and during the signing of the register Mr. Frederick Stoneburg was soloist. The house was prettily decorated with palms and ferns. After the wedding breakfast, a reception was held from 2 to 4 o'clock, when a large number of friends extended their good wishes to the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss left on the evening train for the northern lakes, and on their return will reside in their new home at 128 Delaware-avenue.

The marriage of Mr. Lorne William Mitchell to Miss Marion Adelaide, youngest daughter of Mr. George Stanway, took place quietly at half-past 2 o'clock on Wednesday, June 21, at St. Simon's Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends only. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. C. Cayley, the church being appropriately decorated for the occasion. The wedding march was played by Mr. Harrison. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dainty gown of white silk crepe de chine, with bertha of rose point lace. Her veil of tulle was caught with orange blossoms that had been worn by her mother, and she carried a shower bouquet of lily of the valley. Her sister, Miss Edith Stanway, was maid of honor, and Miss Winnifred Stanway (Montreal) acted as bridesmaid, both wearing gowns of silver blue crepe de sole with Valenciennes trimming and hats of white Valenciennes, with wreaths of pink and blue roses and pink plumes, and carrying large bunches of pink roses. Little Rosamond Ryckman, as flower girl, in white organdie over pale blue, and Master Allan Moore, as page, in white satin, preceded the bride, carrying baskets of pink sweet peas. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. J. W. Mitchell. Mr. W. H. Moore, Mr. H. Logan and Mr. Arthur Stanway acted as ushers. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stanway, Isabella-street. Mrs. Stanway wore black embroidered grenadine over pale blue silk, black hat with pale blue flowers. Miss Stanway biscuit silken mull embroidered gown with white hat, banked with American beauty roses; Mrs. Mitchell (Port Elgin), mother of the groom, black silk with lace and touches of white, black hat with plumes; Miss Gertrude Mitchell, dainty white silk gown, white hat; Mrs. William Stanway (Montreal), London gown of mauve taffeta and hat of same coloring, with periwinkles; Miss Hester Caver gown of painted net with tones of pink and blue and large picture hat of tulle; Mrs. C. H. Wood (Cornwall), grey silk crepe de chine with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left by the 5:20 train for an eastern trip, the bride going away in a neat suit of pale blue homespun, with touches of white and black, and pale blue hat. Many beautiful and costly gifts, including a number of cheques, attested to the popularity of the young couple, a handsome chair and grandfather's clock, presented by

Artificial Eyes

We have an excellently assorted stock of Snellen's Reform Eyes, at right prices.

THE CULVERHOUSE OPTICAL COMPANY

LIMITED

6 RICHMOND STREET EAST

Confederation Life Building

Phone M. 4556

TORONTO

Wedding Gifts

English Breakfast Dishes, Entree Dishes and General Tableware

At the Jewelry Parlors.

JAMES D. BAILEY,

75 Yonge (N. E. cor. King)

SUMMER RESORTS.

HOTEL BRANT, BURLINGTON—$4—Saturday afternoon till Monday after breakfast, special rates for June! Just the place for banquets, conventions and evening parties. William P. Kenney, Manager.

The Penetanguishene

(ON GEORGIAN BAY)

CANADA'S SUMMER RESORT

Renovated From Top to Bottom

BRAND NEW THIS SUMMER

New Silver, Linen, China and

Other Equipments.

Fishing, Boating, Bathing, Bowling, Golf, Tennis, Orchestra.

Write for illustrated booklet.

The Toronto staff of the Canadian Northern Railway Co. and Mackenzie, Mann & Co., at a complimentary dinner tendered the groom on Monday evening, being particularly admired.

Miss Hirschfelder has gone to England on the Victorian, and Mrs. Cameron and Miss Birchell sail this week on the C. P. R. line.

The engagement of Miss Gwendolyn Francis to E. Bertram Gay Andrews has been announced.

Mrs. C. D. Warren and Miss Patti Warren are going to Yale, New Haven, for two weeks.

SOCIAL

William Scully, J. Europe in the early

William Smith, Col. during the week, e land.

E. W. Day return the Northwest durin proposes to spend th with his family at Very quiet was th Ethel May Hawkey her cousin, Thomas thurst-street, to Fre of Oshawa, on We 1905, at 5 p.m. The formed by the Rev. Wesley Methodist C sence of the imme the bride and groom given away by her un ton of Oshawa, and pale grey crepe de silk, with pleated pink with pink rosebuds, and seed pearls, an sheaf of bridal roses. Miss Mae Vinson, a ceedingly well in a over same shade of blue pleated tulle ha roses. The groom Douglas Guy of New ence Vinson played sic. Little Dorothy by, as maid-of-honor in her dress of cre hat to match. The bridesmaid was an of pearls, and to the tie-pin of pearls. T the little maid-of-ho let. The numerous denced the populari and groom. After t Mr. and Mrs. Baile for a brief stay, aft reside at Oshawa. away gown was of bi with a smart polo h

Mrs. C. S. Boone a of Port Dover spent and Mrs. William G summer home, Lins Park.

Miss Alma Cornis street is spending sooka. as the guest of Madden of Orillia.

A pretty, quiet w bled at the Jarv Church on Wednesd Rev. Dr. Perry unite Henry A. Webster Miss Jean W. Rice, and Mrs. Samuel Ricr bride was gowned in with lace, larg match. She was att ter, Miss Lila. The ed by F. Garfat of t the ceremony, a rec the house of Mrs. H. Calender-street, at v diate relatives were Mrs. Webster left by for Niagara and of bride's traveling dr blue figured silk mo match.

A merry party, co Jones, Miss B. Caver Kay, Miss A. Jones win, arrived home h having spent a very the Muskoka Lakes going up the lakes ag die of July for two w

Mrs. L. Duncan and wth-avenue, left f Bala, Muskoka, on

The marriage of E Naffel, Church of E at Rothsay, Ont., to laide Ames, daughte was celebrated in Ho at 2 o'clock on Frid Rev. John Pearson groomsmen was No ther of the bride, ar the groom's cousin, of Detroit. George terboro and Henry N ers. The bride, who by her father, wor voile over taffeta, a th tulle veil, wreathed sons, and carried a wedding gown was b plicity. The pleate ed with deep hem and escurial lace formed and undersleeves of row knife pleatings o ed with ruchings. e the puffed upper sle maid wore a white Swiss lace, hat to m pink roses. Mrs. Am ther, wore a costume Venetian lace, with blue, and violet hat. the bride's grandmo some gown of black lace stole, and black with a touch of mau Buffalo, an aunt of a lovely gown of wh pale pink taffeta, w chip hat, wreathed l tel shades, and ban with ribbons of the Mitchell of Port Ho

JUNE

We Make

Our materials, to us and made spe sive and come to us our own designs, en the essence of style

BRA

460

Phone Main 2478.