Undigested Food

When any portion of food remains in the stomach and refuses to digest, it causes the torments of indigestion. This undigested food rapidly ferments, irritating the sensitive coating of the stomach, while other parts of the body, particularly the head, suffer in

And the next day Kitty washed Miss Halifax's silk stockings.

Kitty's clothes were fluttering white in the breeze, and Kitty herself, rosy and smiling as ever, pinned the stockings on the line nearest the gate, pulling them out carefully, and then went on hanging out her own dainty garments, for it washer own wash day too.

Terry drove up just then, stopped and, descending from his cart, blushingly wished Kitty "Good mornin"

Kitty responded gayly. "It's a great mornin', Mr. Fifine."

Then Terry leaned over the gate for a bit of a chat. "An' whose washin' are yez doin' this mornin'?" he asked, seizing at the first question that entered his head. "Me own mostly," answered Kitty. "I did Miss Ruth's yisterday, an' a big one too; my but if I lost her I don't know what we'd do; she's my best customer."

Poor Terry tried to say that he would take care of her always if she would let him, but the words would not come, so that opportunity was lost.

"Because it had been on your swate little foot." Terry had grown very bold into, for he saw encouragement in Kitty's eyes. "I love that little foot," an' I love that little foot, an' I love that little foot."

"I'll have one." he said, "to remember Miss Kitty. She'll never miss it; she has more there, an' this is ragged," noting the embroidery, and manlike not recognizing the value. He hastily took possession of the dainty article, and hiding it deep in his pocket he drove away.

It was three days before he saw Kitty again, and then her eyes were pink with weeping, as she leaned dejectedly over the gate.

Terry stopped. "An' what is it troublin' yer" he asked kindly.

HE secret of a happy home is entertainment. Home should be the most entertaining spot on earth for the family, and it can be for the very small amount of money which an investment in the Edison Phonograph would mean. Mr. Edison's Phonograph supplies the entire entertainment. It will sing, render any kind of instrumental music or talk. It is a marvelous reproducer of every kind of sound and especially of the sort of sounds which, combined, produce music.

If you haven't seen the new Edison model with the big horn, by all means go to the nearest Edison store and see, and more especially hear, it. It's a wonder in its way. Descriptive booklet on request.

December Records Out Monday

WHILE it has been hard to make a Record of just the right consistency to be durable enough to stand lots of wear and at the same time delicate enough to give the most perfect rendition of sound, yet Mr. Edison has produced by his secret processes the most perfect Record for Phonographic use that has yet been made. Go over the list of December Records, check off those you would like to hear and than go to the nearest Edison store and hear them. This is the way to get all the pleasure out of your Edison Phonograph.
